

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

GENEALOGIES.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE GENEALOGIES.

All families which have resided in Sullivan, so far as we have been enabled to procure a record of them, will be registered in the following genealogies in the alphabetical order of the surnames of the families. We are not aware that we have omitted any family. It is possible that some family which has lived at East Sullivan, or possibly elsewhere in the town, without acquiring any legal residence, has been overlooked. Hired men who have simply paid poll taxes in town have not usually been registered. We think that we have omitted no family that rightfully belongs here, but would be glad to be notified if we have done so. Of some families, however, our information is less complete than we could have wished. This is not through any lack of effort on our part. There are some persons who never answer letters, some who cannot do so, and others whose addresses we could not find.

We have aimed to give true dates, even if the dates given by the family registers differed. Dates on headstones are often inaccurate. Family registers in Bibles and elsewhere are not infallible.

Surnames are generally spelled according to the custom of the family, except in the case of certain families of foreign birth, who did not know how to spell their names. Individual names are here correctly spelled in all cases. Scores of "pet names" ending in "ie" are disallowed, as are all slang names and false names. Our forefathers were not consistent in their spelling. Their names are here spelled as they should have been, not always as they ignorantly were in the habit of spelling them. It is no compliment to them to publish to all the world the fact that they could not spell their names. We best honor them by ignoring their false spellings, which were often barbarous, and writing the true names as they should be written. Names like Lavinia, Eleanor, Hephzibah, Tirzah, Eleazar, Zadok, Jedidiah, and scores of other old fashioned names, as well as many which are more modern, are misspelled in records and registers in all conceivable ways. We have endeavored to give the true spelling in all cases. The fashion of turning all names into some form ending in "ie," such as Flossie, Allie, Sadie, Billie, and the like, is now discarded by most persons of culture and is considered very vulgar, though much in vogue among the "masses." Such names are not allowed in this work, unless it is known that the rite of baptism fastened it upon the person assuming it. In all cases we have written the true name of which such a form is simply a pseudonym.

The following abbreviations are used :

ae.	for	aged.	pub.	for	published marriage intentions.
b.	"	born.	q. v.	"	quem (or quam) vide (whom see)
bap.	"	baptized.			in family of that name.
ch.	"	child or children.	r.	"	resided.
d.	"	died.	res.	"	residence.
dau.	"	daughter.	S.	"	Sullivan.
h.	"	husband.	s. p.	"	sine prole (without children).
inf.	"	infancy.	unm.	"	unmarried.
J. P.	"	justice of the peace.	w.	"	wife.
m.	"	married.	wid.	"	widow.
oc.	"	occupied.

Other abbreviations will readily be understood.

Names followed by heavy figures are referred to the paragraphs, belonging to that family, which begin with those figures, where the family of that person will be noticed more fully.

The small, superior figures refer, in each case, to the number of the generation represented by the person, reckoning from the generation of the person from whom the family is derived.

Sic. (so), means that a date or fact is known to be as given, though differing from other authorities.

Phebe White; lived at Granby, Mass., where their son, *Alanson*⁶, 1, was b., June 29, 1803.

1. REV. ALANSON⁶ ALVORD, son of Gad, Jr., V., was pastor of the First Cong. Ch. of S., from Feb. 24, 1844 until May 18, 1845, living meanwhile in the parsonage, then the old Muzzy house, at 87. He d. at Mallet Creek, Ohio, Dec. 2, 1862. For a further account of him, see page 413. His wife was Adeline ———. While in town, they had one ch., *Edward Alanson*⁷. b. in S., Jan. 13, 1842; d. in S., July 8, 1843.

APPLIN.

I. JOHN¹ APPLIN, the first of the family known to have been in America, was m. in Watertown, Mass., in 1671, to Bethusa Bartlett. John was a school teacher and taught in Groton, Mass., perhaps in Littleton. II. JOHN² APPLIN, Jr., son of John¹, I., b., May 3, 1692, probably in Watertown, was a blacksmith and lived in Palmer, Mass. His w. was Rebecca. III. THOMAS³ APPLIN, son of John², Jr. II., was b. in Watertown and went with his father to Palmer. He m., Nov. 19, 1752, Mabel Brown, and moved to Swanzey, N. H. in 1764. IV. JOHN⁴ APPLIN (3d of name), son of Thomas³, III., b. in Palmer, Nov. 27, 1753; m.,

Feb. 8, 1776, Mary Sabin, dau. of Thomas of Uxbridge, Mass. Their 3d ch. was *Ephraim*⁵, 1, b. in Swanzey, Oct. 10, 1783.

1. EPHRAIM⁵ APPLIN, son of John⁴, IV., lived from 1813 (the owner after 1811) until 1819, at 236, and, from 1819 until his death in 1822, in the house marked "D. Cummings site" on map, opposite 253. When the FAMILY HISTORIES, pages 628-779, went to press, we supposed that this old house stood on the site of 253. We have discovered that it was on the opposite side of the road. Statements in paragraph 253, page 774, as well as the correction for that paragraph on page 811, must be corrected accordingly. Mr. Applin d. at the "D. Cummings site," Dec. 21, 1822. He m., May 17, 1813, Lucy Spaulding, b. in Hancock, Nov. 21, 1787; d. in S., Feb. 17, 1832; dau. of Thomas and Hannah (Brown) Spaulding. She d. in the same house, which was not afterwards occupied. He was a carpenter, wheelwright, coffin maker, and farmer. Four ch.: 1. *Lucy*⁶, b., May 16, 1814; m. Geo. Washington Nims, q. v.; 2. *Hannah*⁶, b. in 1815 or 1816; d. (or burial), June 27, 1818; 3. *Harry*⁶, b. about 1817; d. (or burial), Jan. 26, 1819; 4. *Hannah*⁶, b. about 1819; d. (or burial), Apr. 12, 1819. These ch. were b. at 236. The 2d and 3d d. there probably. The fourth may have d. at the "D. Cummings site." It has been almost impossible to obtain any record of this family. The births of the ch., except the oldest, are not recorded on the town books. Mr. Muzzy's church records usually gave the funeral dates instead of the death dates. He distinguished "child" from "infant," which aids in any case in determining the probable year of birth. Mr. Ashley Spaulding informed us that Harry⁶ was deformed in having extra fingers upon each hand.

ARCHIBALD.

1. REV. HENRY² ARCHIBALD supplied the Baptist church in Sullivan through the calendar years, 1847, 1848, and 1849, with what preaching the society had in that time. He was the son of John¹ and Barbara Archibald and was b. in Muselburg, Scotland, Aug. 14, 1786; m. at East Haddam, Conn., March 5, 1820, Rebecca, dau. of Thomas and Rebecca Marshall. She was b. at East Haddam, Jan. 20, 1787; d. at Bristol, Vt., Aug. 1869. He died at Mount Holley, Vt., Dec. 4, 1859. During the time of his supply of the Baptist church, he lived in Gilsum. As he was not a resident of S., we shall not elaborate his family record. For a further account of him, see page 433. We know of one ch.: *Thomas Henry*³, b., in Killingworth, Conn., Oct. 2, 1821, 2.

2. REV. THOMAS HENRY³ ARCHIBALD, son of Rev. Henry², 1, m., March 3, 1847, Susan W., dau. of Dea. Samuel and Margaret S. Tuck; b. in Dorchester (we are uncertain whether N. H. or Mass.), Aug. 8, 1823; graduated at New Hampton Institution in 1845; lady principal of the Hancock Scientific and Literary Institution in 1846. He was ordained at Concord, N. H., March 3, 1847. He had 4 ch.: 1. *Rev. Samuel Henry*⁴; 2. *Wilberforce Erving*⁴; 3. *Frank Cary*⁴; 4. *Susan Elizabeth*⁴.

1. EUGENE ROLAND² ARTHUR, son of Samuel¹ and Achsah Louisa (Symmes) Arthur; b. in Poultney, Vt., Aug. 30, 1860 (correcting the age in S. records); m. 1st, Jan. 1, 1875, (before he had completed his fifteenth year), in

Ellis), Apr. 8, 1906; 7. *Samuel Eugene*³, b. in Westport, July 10, 1908; d. in Roxbury (house of Geo. H. Ellis), Jan. 24, 1909; burial in Nye Cemetery in Roxbury. I. JOHN¹ ATWOOD was one of four brothers, three of whom, John¹, Josiah¹, and Philip¹, came from England to America. John¹ settled in Woburn, Mass., and was drowned in the Mystic River, about 1745. II. JOHN² ATWOOD, Jr., son of John¹, I., was b. in 1728 or 1729; d. in Nelson, Dec. 31, 1814; m. Elizabeth Lawrence of Woburn, Mass., who d. in Packersfield (now Nelson), May 9, 1797, ae. 67. III. 1. SILAS⁴ ATWOOD, son of Philip, III., lived in town from 1807 until his death in 1818. It is understood that he lived about a year or more at 178, which his father owned a few years (see page 735), until the house was built at 207, into which Silas moved probably about 1808. He lived there until his death, Feb. 2, 1818. His funeral on the next day was conducted by Rev. Chas. Cummings and the burial was in the lot of his father, in the old Nelson cemetery. Silas was unmarried. His housekeeper was a maiden aunt, MISS LYDIA ATWOOD, dau. of John and Elizabeth (Lawrence) Atwood. She was b. in Templeton, Mass. We do not know the date, nor the place of her death. She was a sister of Mrs. Reuben Wright, q. v., and of Mrs. Benjamin Eaton, q. v. She appears to have belonged to the Sullivan Baptist church and was quite likely one of the original members (or covenanters). She had a son, to whom she gave the name of Nathan Nye, who was b. in Nelson (then Packersfield), Aug. 27, 1797, and d., Oct. 24, 1869. He m. Lydia Robbins and lived in the south part of Stoddard, near Munsonville, where Henry Wilson lives. He did not come to Sullivan with his mother and we do not elaborate his family record.

JONATHAN⁴ BAILEY, Jr., son of Jonathan³, III., b. in Rowley, Feb. 1, 169 $\frac{1}{2}$; d. in Lancaster, Mass., Jan. 15, 1770; burial at Byfield, Mass., m. 1st, Mar. 28, 1734, Bridget Boynton; d. in Lancaster, Apr. 15, 1746; m. 2d, Abigail Whitney. The home was in that part of Lancaster that is now Sterling. V. SHUBAEL⁵ BAILEY, son of Jonathan⁴, Jr., IV., b. in Lancaster (now Sterling), June 6, 1740; d. in Sterling, Apr. 6, 1824; served in the Revolution; was 6 feet 7 inches tall; weighed 300 pounds; m., Dec. 25, 1766, Hannah Whitmore (or Whittemore) of Leominster, Mass., and Boston. We have been unable to trace them after leaving S.

II. THOMAS⁴ BAKER, son of Thomas³, I., m. Sarah Wade, Nov. 26, 1729. Among their ch. was Jonathan⁵, b. in Topsfield, Mass., June 25, 1749 (sic), 1., a brother of Hon. Thomas Baker of Keene.

Records of this family sent by descendants, which have reached us, are so inaccurate in certain cases that can be proved that we have followed the town records, unless something different was proved to be right.

4. GEORGE⁶ BAKER, son of Jonathan⁵, 1, m., Nov. 26, 1815, Eunice Whittemore of New Ipswich; b. there, May 2, 1783; d. in Peterborough, June 14, 1866; burial in S. He r. in New Ipswich several years, where his first four ch. were born. He then moved to S., living first in the Ira Ellis house (about 1819-22), 251, where the 5th ch. and 6th ch. were born; then living about 1822-1830, in the old John Dimick house, 242, where the last two of his ch. were born. About 1830, the Wardwells moved this house down the hill for a potashery (see 241, page 766), and George Baker moved to the Breed Osgood house, at 246. In 1833, he moved to the farm of Enoch Woods, at 80, which he carried on at "the halves." He was the victim of the dreadful tragedy described on pages 362-364, by which he lost his life, Oct. 16, 1835, from the effects of the stab inflicted by Enoch Woods. We have shown, on the pages mentioned, that Mr. Woods was undoubtedly insane. Eight ch., born in places above indicated:

1. *Elizabeth Brown*¹, b., Mar. 30, 1816, 7; 2. *George Farrar*¹, b., May 20, 1817, 8; 3. *William Emerson*¹, b., Nov. 8, 1818, 9; 4. *Emily Thornton*¹, twin to the preceding, b., Nov. 8, 1818; m., Jan. 29, 1852, Lucian Towles, and lived in Hudson, N. Several of the above dates differ from town records. We have here followed a family register.

5. EMERSON⁸ BAKER, son of Jonathan⁶, 1, m., Nov. 3, 1824, Chloe Wright of S., b. in Packersfield (now Nelson), May 14, 1801; d. probably in Ludlow, Vt., dau. of John and Phebe (Stoddard) Wright. They had two ch. of whom we have heard, a son¹ and a dau¹, names not known to us. Eventually she came to the house of her mother, then Mrs. French, at number 3, with her two ch., in destitute circumstances. Still later they went to Ludlow, Vt. We have been unable to trace them. One of the ch. was perhaps born in Alstead, where Mr. Baker owned a farm for a year and a half after his marriage. He lived about 1826-29, on the old Alpheus Davis farm, in the west part of Nelson, next east of the present farm of S. E. Jenkins, who lives at number 2. It is possible that one of his ch. was born there. Perhaps both were.

He has put the old mansion in excellent order, restoring the beauty of the rooms in their original form. He has built a very fine barn and expended a large amount of money upon the premises. He afterwards removed to Brookfield, Mass. His wife was Elizabeth. II. BREED² BATCHELLER, as he always wrote his last name, son of John¹, I., was b. in Wenham, Mass., according to one historical document, which probably corrects the generally received opinion that he was b. in Beverly, Mass. He was b. about 1740, saw service in the old French War, so called, was the first settler in Packersfield (Nelson), but in that part of the town which is now Roxbury. He was a tory, refused to sign the "association test," fled to escape arrest, entered the British service in the Revolution, was in the battle of Bennington, under Baum, was wounded in the shoulder, was taken to Nova Scotia, became dissipated, and finally was drowned, in 1785, by falling from a boat in the harbor of Annapolis, N. They came to S., the spring after their marriage and lived between two or three years in the old John Dimick, Jr., house, at 242. They came from Surry to that house and moved from there to Keene. Mr. Batcheller was a real estate speculator. When the second meetinghouse was built, at 77, he bought several pews. Not paying for them, he was sued by the town and finally surrendered them. Mrs. Batcheller joined the church in 1808. While in S., they had one ch., George Frederick⁴, bap. in S., Jan. 5, 1809, who must have been b. in town.

They had no other ch. while in town, and we can find no record of other ch., or the date of the birth of this.

BROOKS.

I. FAMILY OF D. B. BROOKS.

1. DANIEL BROWN⁴ BROOKS, son of John³ and Mary (Brown) Brooks, and presumably the grandson of John² Brooks, as well as the great-grandson of John¹ Brooks, who went from Woburn, Mass., to Lancaster, Mass., was b. in Lancaster, Mass., Nov. 27, 1768, and d. in Pennsylvania, July 10, 1838. Daniel Brown Brooks was almost certainly a son of John of Lancaster, Mass., whom we assume to be the John who lived later in Nelson, who had a son of the name of D. Brown. He lived in S., 1806-9, in the family of Thomas Spaulding, then at 256; then moved to Packersfield for two or three years; then returned to S., and lived on the old Eager farm at 257, until 1826, when he moved to Pennsylvania, in or near Springville, Susquehanna County. He m., Mar. 10, 1808, Hannah Spaulding, b., probably in Hancock, Dec. 18, 1785; d. in Pennsylvania, Jan. 22, 1870; dau. of Thomas and Hannah (Brown) Spaulding. They had eight ch.: 1. Elvira^b, b. in the old Dewey house in S., at 256, Aug. 27, 1808; m. a Mr. Bullock; lived after his death with her son Albert^b, at Meshoppen, Pa.; had seven ch., of whom only three were living in the nineties. 2. Daniel Brown^b, Jr., b. in Packersfield (Nelson); twice married; d. in Pennsylvania, s. p., Oct. 30, 1850. 3. Charles^b, b. in Packersfield, (Nelson), d. there in infancy, having been scalded to death. 4. Franklin^b, b. in S., at 257, Feb. 28, 1813; m. 1st, 1839, Aurilla Lyman, who d., Feb. 4, 1850 (or 1851); m. 2d, Dec. 15, 1852; was a farmer at Springville, Pa.; now deceased; had three ch.: 1. Of these a dau. had married and another dau. had d. in the nineties. The information respecting this family is not as complete as we could wish, but the most diligent efforts have failed to elicit complete dates or anything more than we have here given.

II. FAMILY OF JOHN BROOKS.

BROWN.

I. DR. WILLIAM BROWN.

1. WILLIAM¹ BROWN, mentioned in the U. S. decennial census for 1790, can be no other than the "Dr." Brown whose name is on the tax list for the same year, only one Brown being mentioned in either case. According to the census, William Brown's family consisted of himself, a boy under sixteen (doubtless a son²) and two females, who were probably his wife and a daughter². He is taxed but one year and probably left town soon after. We have been unable to discover whence he came or whither he went, or anything more about him. It is always hard to trace a person of the name of Brown, unless the first name is quite unusual. This physician named William Brown is understood to have lived in an old house built upon the site of 232, where I. N. Wardwell lived, and where Mr. Chapin lives.

II. MRS. ELIZABETH BROWN.

1. MRS. ELIZABETH BROWN, a widow, united with the First Congregational Church, June 21, 1803. It has been difficult to determine who she was. Some have supposed that she might be the widow of the physician named in the preceding paragraph. This is highly improbable. His death is not recorded in Sullivan, and, at that time, deaths were all faithfully recorded by Roswell Hubbard, the town clerk. It is more probable that she was the mother of Mrs. Thomas Spaulding, whose maiden name was Hannah Brown. Hannah is said to have been born in Concord, Mass., and it is thought that her parents were John and Elizabeth (Bateman) Brown. The dates for Hannah's birth in the family Bible and upon the headstone do not agree, and neither exactly agrees with the birth of the Hannah who was born to these parents in Concord. Old figures upon public records are often mistaken for other figures which resemble them. We have learned nothing more of this Elizabeth.

III. SILAS BROWN FAMILY.

I. THOMAS¹ BROWN of Concord, Mass., is considered to have been the ancestor of this family. The line then continues through: II. BOAZ² BROWN of Stow, Mass.; III. BOAZ³ BROWN, JR., of Stow, Mass.; IV. EPHRAIM⁴ BROWN of Stow, Mass.; and V. AARON⁵ BROWN of Stow and Leominster, Mass. This Aaron is believed to be the same as the Major or Captain Aaron Brown who m. 1st Rachel Reed and 2d the widow Blanchard.

1. SILAS⁶ BROWN, son of Aaron and Rachel (Reed) Brown, was born probably in Leominster, Mass. The date of his birth was Oct. 17, 1754. He d. in Putney, Vt., Jan. 9, 1813. He was a twin brother of Betsey, wife of Dea. Zadok Nims. He m. (date unknown) Mrs. Mary (Nims) Larrabee, b. in Keene, May 23, 1756 (place and date of death unknown); dau. of Ebenezer and Mercy (Smead) Nims; widow of Stephen Larrabee, whom she m. in Keene, by Rev. Clement Sumner, June 28, 1770. She had a ch. by Mr. Larrabee, named Ebenezer, b. in Keene, March 5, 1772. Mr. Silas Brown lived in Temple, Dublin, S., and Putney, Vt. In S., he lived a few years on the old Warren farm at 56. He had eight ch. 1. *Silas*⁷, b. in Temple, probably, Nov. 8, 1778; d. unm., at Natchez, Miss., Nov. 10, 1817, while with the Aaron Burr expedition. 2. *Stephen*⁷, b. in Temple, Sept. 22 (23, Temple records), 1781; d. in S., unm., Apr. 23, 1805, most likely at the house of his aunt, the wife of Dea. Nims, at 152. He was engaged to marry Hannah, dau. of Dea. Josiah Seward. 3. *Aaron*⁷, b. in Dublin, May 29, 1783; d. (place unknown), Sept. 1818. He had been a clerk in Boston and Marlborough, Mass. 4. *Mary*⁷, b. in Dublin, July 13, 1785; m. James Minot, of Putney, Vt.; son of James and Martha Minot. 5. *Ephraim*⁷, b. in Dublin, Nov. 19, 1790; no more known of him. 6. *William*⁷, b. in Dublin, July 13, 1793. 7. *Asa*⁷, twin to preceding. Of these no more is known. 8. *Jonas Bond*⁷ (called Joseph Bond in baptismal records of First Church) b. in S., at 56, Oct. 18, 1795; d. in Boston, Mass., Oct. 26, 1838. He is said to have been a prominent politician and the treasurer of a manufacturing company in Millbury, Mass. The records of this family are not as complete as we could wish. It was with the greatest difficulty that we obtained as much information as we did obtain. We learn that Ephraim d., Sept. 22, 1871.

IV. THE ELEAZAR BROWN FAMILY.

The descendants of the Sullivan Eleazar Brown have been in the habit of tracing their descent from a Mrs. Christiana Brown (or Browne) through Henry, and Henry, Jr., all of Salisbury, Mass., to Eleazar of Concord, Mass. This is undoubtedly erroneous. The ancestral line of the S. family is probably as follows: I. THOMAS¹ BROWN of Concord, Mass., whose wife was Bridget. II. ELEAZAR² BROWN, son of Thomas, b. in Concord, Mass., July 1649. III. ELEAZAR³ BROWN, JR., son of the preceding, b. in Concord, Mass., about 1675 or 1676; d. in Concord, Apr. 3, 1755, ae. 79. IV. BENJAMIN⁴ BROWN, son of Eleazar and Abigail Brown, b. in Concord, Mass., Apr. 14, 1713; d. in Swanzey, N. H., May 6, 1797; m., June 22, 1741, Submit Ward, b. Timothy Harrington, Lucy Rugg (not Susannah, as in the Lancaster records), b. in Lancaster, Aug. 17 (O. S.), 1746; d. in S., at site of 155, Oct. 2, 1822; dau. of John and Lydia (Phelps) Rugg. They moved from Swanzy to S., to site of 155, in 1796, where the family remained nearly thirty years upon what was later the Abijah Seward farm. He is probably the same Joshua who m., May 1853, Ruth, widow of Ebenezer Burditt, who was b. in Hebron, Conn., Nov. 9, 1768, and d. in Gilsum (?), Jan. 15, 1856; dau. of Israel and Dinah (Loveland, sic) Loveland. Joshua lived in S., on the Farrar farm, at 183, which he owned ten years, being the first settler of the farm, 1789–1799. We do not know where he went on leaving S., nor when nor where he or his first wife died. He had two sons b. in S., at 183: 1. *Daniel*³, b., Apr. 14, 1795; 2. *Abner*³, b., Apr. 21, 1797.

BURNHAM.

I. ROBERT¹ BURNHAM lived in Norwich, Norfolk Co., England. II. THOMAS² BURNHAM, his son, came to America, with two brothers, in 1635, and settled at Ipswich, Mass., where he d. in 1694, ae. 71. He m. Mary Tuttle in 1645.

THOMAS⁴ BURNHAM, son of the preceding, b. in Ipswich, Sept. 20, 1673, m. a woman whose first name was Susannah. V. STEPHEN⁵ BURNHAM, son of the preceding, m., Nov. 6, 1735, Mary Andrews. Among their thirteen ch. were *Stephen*⁶ b., probably in Gloucester, Mass., Mar. 20, 1738, 1, and *Jonathan*⁶, also b., probably in Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 30, 1758, 2.

1. STEPHEN⁶ BURNHAM, JR., son of Stephen⁵, V., and a brother of Dea. Jonathan⁶, 2, owned for several years, 1790–1795, the lot whose house was at 136. In 1795, he sold the eastern portion to Ebenezer Kendall and the western part to Samuel Seward. William Burnham, 3, had been living upon the lot. Stephen m., Apr. 10, 1760, Hannah Butler, and lived in Greenfield, N. H. He had four ch. by Hannah, *Susannah*⁷, *Abraham*⁷, *Jonathan*⁷, and *Hannah*⁷. He m. 2d, Lucy Burnham and moved to Lyndeborough, where he had two more ch.: *Sarah*⁷ and *Louise*⁷. As none of these ever lived in S., we cannot take the space to trace their families.

2. DEA. JONATHAN⁶ BURNHAM, son of Stephen⁵, V., m. Rachel Holt, b. in Andover, Mass., about 1758; d. probably at Johnson, Vt., July 9, 1829, ae. 71; dau. of John and Rachel (Fletcher) Holt. He was a farmer and lived upon the Dunn place, his house standing at 125, where he lived from 1783 until 1792, being the first settler of the farm. He moved from S. to Johnson, Vt., where he became a deacon in the Congregational church, and where he probably d., the known date being Feb. 5, 1839. Mrs. Burnham's father was a first cousin of the grandfather of Ephraim A. Holt, who lived at 115. He had twelve ch.: 1. *Polly*⁷, b., perhaps in Wilton, May 3, 1780; 2. *John Holt*⁷, b., at 125 (then Stoddard), Jan. 4, 1783; 3. *Joel*⁷, b. at 125 (then Stoddard), Oct. 8, 1784; d., place unk., May 17, 1819; 4. *Andrew*⁷, b., at 125 (then Stoddard), May 21, 1786; 5. *Nehemiah*⁷, b. in S., at 125, Dec. 26, 1787; d., place unk., Oct. 21, 1808; 6. *Sarah*⁷, b. in S., at 125, Mar. 6, 1791; 7. *Lucy*⁷, b. in S., at 125, June 16, 1793; 8. *Jonathan*⁷, b. in Johnson, Vt., Aug. 29, 1795; d. there, Mar. 14, 1800; 9. *Rachel*⁷, b. in Johnson, Vt., Feb. 16, 1797; d. there, Nov. 18, 1808; 10. *Daniel*⁷, b. in Johnson, Vt., June 14, 1798; d. there, July 21, 1816; 11. *Abigail*⁷, b. in Johnson, Vt., Nov. 10, 1799; d. there, July 6, 1813; 12. *Dolly*⁷, b. in Johnson, Vt., Nov. 29, 1801. We cannot trace further the descendants of Dea. Jonathan.

3. WILLIAM BURNHAM, who lived in the house at 136, was most likely a relative of Stephen and Dea. Jonathan, but we fail to discover his place in the Burnham family. His wife's first name was Huldah, if we interpret correctly the manuscript town records of Stoddard, in which town their lot was situated when a child, named Roxana, was b., May 26, 1786. On the record, Mrs. Burnham's name looks like "Huday," but Huldý or Huldá, for the more correct Huldah, was probably meant. Stephen⁶ Burnham, 1, at that time owned this lot at 136. We know no more of this Wm. Burnham family.

BURNS.

1. GEORGE HENRY² BURNS, b. at Wells River, Vt., Oct. 20, 1874, the son of Albert¹ and Maria (Finnegan) Burns, has lived several years in the

BUXTON.

I. JOHN¹ BUXTON m. a woman whose surname was Burneck. He lived in Wilton and also bought much land in Nelson, which extended into S. John¹ Buxton seems to have lived upon this farm. Eunice Buxton, who d., Dec. 2, 1843, ae. 78, and Hannah Buxton, who m. Samuel Hale, Mar. 3, 1812, were probably his daughters.

1. TIMOTHY RUSSELL² BUXTON succeeded his father on the same farm. He built a barn on the Great Meadow, in Nelson, but upon the western edge of the town, against the S. line. He was b. in Wilton, Mar. 7, 1773; d. in Nelson, Apr. 10, 1847. His wife was Eunice Chandler, b. in Wilton, Feb. 12, 1774; d. in Nelson, Jan. 30 (headstone), 1840. They had five ch., all b. on that farm, in Packersfield (Nelson): 1. *Betsey*³, b., Nov. 9, 1801; m. He d. in Nelson, June 17, 1850. The widow m. Joseph Melendy, removed to Wilton, and d. there, Feb. 27, 1879. Eli had seven ch.: 1. *George W.*⁴, d. in the army, at Alexandria, Va., Aug. 31, 1862; 2. *Mary M.*⁴, b. in Nelson, Feb. 19, 1835; m. A. L. After Eli Buxton's death, the old Buxton farm passed successively to Daniel Holt, 1851; Pembroke Fisher, 1855; Pembroke and Justus Fisher, 1855; Pembroke Fisher alone, 1860; F. B. Hardy, 1862; D. O. Reverstock, 1865; Charles A. Tarbox, one half, 1865, the whole, 1867; I. Bartlett, 1872; W. A. Page, 1875; Wm. Albert Wilson, 1878; Chester L. Towne, 1889.

We have not carried out the Buxton family in detail, nor any of the later families, because the house was not in S. Some of these families lived, at different times in S., and will be noticed in the proper places in the genealogies.

CALEF.

1. ROBERT STEPHEN² CALEF, son of David Robert¹ and Mary Maria (Barker) Calef, was b. in Keene, May 21, 1869; r. in S. and Keene. In S. he r., a few years from 1900, at 135, on the Capt. Seward or F. CANNON.

1. MESSER¹ CANNON, a physician, was b. in New Salem, Mass., Oct. 25, 1768; d. in Sullivan, Feb. 3, 1829. We do not know his parentage. He bought the farm at 243 in 1795, where he lived until his death in 1829, and where his widow lived, with her son-in-law, George Hubbard, until the latter's death in 1853, and, after that, with her grandson, George C. Hubbard, until 1858. He m., Nov. 29, 1796, Anna Bill, b. in Gilsum, Oct. 16, 1779; d. in S., at 206, where her grandson, George C. Hubbard then lived, Apr. 28, 1872, in her 93d year, having survived her husband forty-three years. She was dau. of Ebenezer and Rachel (Root) Bill. For a further account of this old physician, see page 598, also page 767. He had four ch., all b. in S., at 243: 1. *Elisa*², b., Jan. 30, 1798; m. Stephen Dean, q. v.; 2. *Nancy*², b., Oct. 26 (according to one family record, Oct. 25), 1800; m. 2. JOHN CANNON¹, brother of Messer, 1, b. in New Salem, Mass., Apr. 17, 1778; d. in Alstead, at the house of his son, Chandler, Dec. 25, 1863. His parentage is not determined. He became very deaf in old age. He m., in 1807, Margaret Chandler, b. in Alstead, Mar. 29, 1788; d. in Surry, Apr. 12, 1847; dau. of John and Lucy (Brown) Chandler. In S., he r. a short time, 1807-09, in what was later the David Nims house, at 160. Here his first ch. was born. He then lived in Vermont, at Shrewsbury, perhaps in other places; later, in Surry, and finally in Alstead, where he died. He had eight ch., of whom we know the birthplaces of only a few: 1. *Lucy C.*², the first, was b. in S., at 160, July 19, 1808. We hear no more of her. She probably d. young. 2. *John*² (like all the remaining children) was b. after his father left town, probably in Shrewsbury, Vt. We do not know the date of his birth. He m., in Gilsum, Mar. 16, 1841, by Rev. Ezra Adams, Emeline Wing. John² d. in Charlestown, N. H., and his widow m. Elias W. Knowlton of Walpole, whose first w. was John's sister Margaret. 3. *Chandler*², b. in Shrewsbury, Vt., July 10, 1820. He was a farmer in Alstead, and m., July 1850, Maria Lovisa Knight of Brownington, Vt., who was b. in Coventry, Vt. Alstead records give the births of four of his ch.: 1. *Celia*³, b. in Alstead, Jan. 3, 1852; d. there, July 12, 1857; 2. A dau.³, b. there, Apr. 19, 1853; possibly d. young; 3. *Willis P.*³, b. there, Aug. 9, 1859; 4. *Fanny E.*³, b. there, Dec. 2, 1861; d. there, Jan. 26, 1866. According to the Alstead records, as returned to the register of vital statistics at Concord, the mother of the first ch. was Sophia, of the second Emily, and of the last two Maria I.. We cannot reconcile this confusion of names, but think that there must be some mistake in copying. The order of John Cannon's ch. is here given as we found it in a published genealogy of the Chandler family, but it is probable that it is not the exact order of their births. 4. *George*², d. early of consumption. 5. *Samuel*², b. in June (or July), 1827; d. of consumption, Apr. 6, 1860, ae. 32 yrs., 9 mos.; m., in Alstead, by Rev. Elijah⁵ Carter, 2, was the first occupant of the house at 142, and Oliver⁵, 1, boarded with him. Enos Bailey (or Bayley) also lived upon this farm; but Oliver⁵ Carter did not live upon it after his marriage, hence we shall not detail the record of his descendants, which may be seen in the published Carter genealogy. Oliver⁵ Carter was one of the petitioners for the incorporation of Sullivan.

2. ELIJAH⁵ CARTER, son of Capt. Ephraim⁴, IV., m. in Lancaster, Mass., Dec. 5, 1785, by Rev. CHAPMAN.

I. FAMILY OF JOHN CHAPMAN.

1. JOHN² CHAPMAN, who lived in Gilsum and S., may have been the son of John¹ of Guilford, Conn., which son was b. there, Apr. 28, 1731. He came from Connecticut to this county. He d. in S., Sept. 20, 1805, his age, on the church record, being given as 70. If he were the John of Guilford, the age should have been 74, but 1731 upon the ancient MS. may have been meant for 1735. We have often found an ancient "5" which looked like a "1", as well as a "4" that looked like "o." However, we are not quite sure that he was the John of Guilford. When he first came from Connecticut, he lived in what is still Gilsum. About 1777, he moved to 175, later the C. W. Rawson farm, in what was Gilsum until the incorporation of S. He m. 1st Sibyl Dimick, b. in Ashford, Conn., Jan. 9, 1739 $\frac{1}{2}$; d., Sept. 24, 1777, probably at 175; dau. of John and Hannah (Kimball) Dimick. He m. 2d, Jan. 13, 1778, Mary Rowe, q. v.; dau. of John and Mary Rowe. We have not, at this writing, been able to ascertain her birth and parentage, or even the facts respecting her death. Mr. Chapman had eleven ch.; 1. *John*¹, 2, place and date of birth unknown; 2. *Benjamin*², 3, place and date of birth unknown; 3. *William*³, 4, place and date of birth unknown; the three preceding all b. in Connecticut; 4. *Sibyl*⁴, b. in Gilsum, Jan. 27, 1768; m. Abner Mack, q. v.; 5. *David*⁵, 5, b. in Gilsum, Oct. 5, 1770; 6. *James*⁶, b. in Gilsum, Jan. 10, 1773; no more known of him; 7. *Calvin*⁷, 6, b. at 175, Aug. 2, 1778; 8. *Mary*⁸, b. at 175, Apr. 6, 1780; m., Jan. 5, 1804, James Clement; no more known of her; 9. *Penelope*⁹, b. at 175, Dec. 23, 1781; d. young; 10. *Penelope*¹⁰, b. at 175, Dec. 17, 1788; no more known of her; 11. *Rhoda*¹¹, b. at 175, Dec. 20, 1789; no more known of her.

2. JOHN² CHAPMAN, JR., son of John¹, 1, lived a short time in S. after his marriage. He owned the place at 193 $\frac{1}{2}$, from 1787 to 1792, and began his married life there. It was originally a part of his father's farm, upon which John, Jr., probably lived a short time before leaving town. We have been unable to tell where he went from S., or when or where he died. He m., Dec. 11, 1788, Sarah (Sally) Burditt, probably a sister of Ebenezer Burditt. We know no more of her. The births of two of his ch. were recorded in S. Probably there were others after he moved away. These were: 1. *Amelia*¹, b. at 193 $\frac{1}{2}$, July 5, 1790; 2. *Ruth*², b., Jan. 4, 1793, perhaps in the same house, but more likely in his father's house, at 175.

3. BENJAMIN³ CHAPMAN, son of John², 1, was the first settler upon what became the Boynton farm. He bought it of his father and lived on it from 1784 until 1792. We do not know where he went on leaving S., nor when nor where he died. The first name of his wife was Eunice. We can find no more about her. He bought the farm at 176, Apr. 2, 1784, and was doubtless m. in 1784 or 1785. He had four ch. whose births were recorded on the S. town books. They were: 1. *Benjamin*¹, b., June 30, 1786; 2. *Eunice*², b., Dec. 16, 1787; 3. Sarah (Sally)³, b., Aug. 6, 1789; 4. *Amos*⁴, b., Oct. 30, 1791. They were all b. at 176, the first before the incorporation of S., while the spot was still a part of Gilsum. There were doubtless other ch. b. elsewhere.

4. WILLIAM³ CHAPMAN, son of John², 1, m., June 11, 1801, Polly Burditt, a sister of Joshua Burditt, b. in Lancaster, Mass., July 29, 1771; dau. of Thomas and Ruth Burditt. She had probably been living with her brother Joshua. As early as 1784, William bought the land of his father about the Chapman Pond. He also owned for two years, 1787-1789, the lot which was afterwards owned by Joshua Burditt, whose sister William later married. It was still later the John Farrar farm. William Chapman never lived in town after his marriage, and we know no more of him or his family.

5. DAVID³ CHAPMAN, son of John², 1, succeeded his father on the homestead at 175, where C. W. Rawson afterwards lived, who purchased it of David Chapman, in 1828, after which Chapman moved to Grafton, Vt. We do not know the date of his death. He m., Jan. 13, 1795, Bathshua Ellis, b. in Keene, Nov. 3, 1775; d. in S., at 175, Oct. 2, 1824; dau. of Joseph and Bridget (Hammond) Ellis. They had eleven children and, strange to say, there is not a birth of either of them recorded on the S. town books, and we are indebted to the late Hosea Foster, once a near neighbor, for all that we have learned with respect to them. They were: 1. *Daniel*⁴, b. May 1795; m., Apr. 24, 1822, Rebecca Cady of Alstead; b. there, Mar. 8, 1800, dau. of Joshua and Rebecca (Cheever) Cady. They had a dau., Alice Bathsheba, who m. Jotham A. Bates, q. v. They also had a son, James C. Chapman, b. in Alstead, Jan. 12, 1829, who m. 1st, in Alstead, by Alden S. Thurston, Esq., Dec. 2, 1852, Alfrances Janet Shaw, b. in Alstead, Mar. 2, 1836, dau. of Smith Moulton and Susan (Cady) Shaw; m. 2d, Apr. 2, 1862, Ellen Melissa McCoy, b. in Gilsum, Mar. 22, 1837; dau. of Osman and Miranda L. (Mansfield) McCoy; m. 3d, Nov. 21, 1874, Josephine Ann (Miller) Nash, b. in Gilsum, Nov. 1, 1853; dau. of Harvey Bill and Susan (Nash) Miller, divorced from Wm. Calvin Nash; two ch.: 1. Daniel Elmore Chapman, b. in Alstead, about 1854; d. in Gilsum, Aug. 20, 1856; 2. Ida Belle, b. in Alstead, Jan. 26, 1857; m., Aug. 1877, Orison Dwight Peabody. Daniel Chapman lived in Alstead, and d. there, Feb. 23, 1848, ae. 52 yrs. and 9 months. 2. *David Jr.*⁴, m. 1st Mary Anderson of Walpole. He m. a second time. He lost a leg in early life. He lived at Moriah, N. Y., on Lake Champlain. 3. *Abigail*⁴ (or "Nabby"). She m., Nov. 9, 1820, her cousin, Roswell Chapman, who gave his residence, at that time, as of Crown Point, N. Y. Mr. Hosea Foster informed the writer that he went from Grafton, Vt. 4. *John*⁴. We think Mr. Foster informed us that John did not marry. He was a carpenter and built one portion of the Boynton house. 5. *Joseph*⁴. He m. Laura Ann Wells of Keene, a tailoress. According to Hayward's "History of Gilsum," he d. in Gilsum, March 4, 1831, ae. 37, but, according to Mr. Foster, he must have been younger by several years. 6. *Amos*⁴. He m. and d. in Grafton, Vt. We know no more of him. 7. *Edward*⁴, said to have d. unmarried. 8. *Laura*⁴. 9. *An infant*⁴ which d., Dec. 21, 1810. 10. *Amasa*⁴. 11. *Aaron*⁴. 12. *Roswell*⁴. The last three were very young when the family left for Grafton, Vt.

6. CALVIN³ CHAPMAN, son of John², 1, m., Dec. 30, 1801, Polly Bolster, b. in what is now S., Jan. 30, 1786; dau. of Nathan and Chloe (Keith) Bolster. They never lived in S. after their marriage, and we know no more of their family.

II. MRS. OLIVE CHAPMAN.

1. MRS. OLIVE CHAPMAN, b. in Berlin, Conn., Oct. 15, 1800; d. in S., July 31, 1882, at the house of her dau., the wife of Dea. Jewett Morse, q. v. Her maiden name was Olive North. She was first m. to Thomas Hodgkins Skinner, who was b. in Haddam, Conn., May 29, 1797; d. there, Dec. 7, 1826. Her second husband was ——— Chapman. As Sullivan was never her legal residence, we shall not expand her family genealogy.

CHAPPELL.

1. JOHN CHAPPELL (or CHAPPEL or CHAPEL or CHAPPLE) came from Hebron, Conn., and purchased the lot in which 222 is situated, Oct. 15, 1785. Chappell's cabin was situated north of the Sullivan line. The house at 222 was built probably by a man named Solomon Howard, who owned that part of the lot for a time. Chappell paid non-resident taxes in town. As he never lived in S., we shall not attempt to investigate his genealogy. For a fuller account of him, see pages 755-6.

CHASE.

I. FAMILY OF IRA E. CHASE.

1. IRA ERASTUS² CHASE, b. in Keene, July 12, 1838, was the son of Erastus¹ and Mary (Richardson) Chase. Ira E. m. 1st, Jan. 1, 1861, Eunice D. Cantrell, dau. of Benjamin and Sophia Cantrell of Shelburne, Mass. She was b. in Deerfield, Mass., about 1843. They were divorced, and he m. 2d, Jan. 17, 1874, Mrs. Augusta Octavia (Dunn) Wheeler, b. in Stoddard, Dec. 16, 1846; dau. of Justus Perry and Chloe (Marsh) Dunn, and divorced from Solon A. Wheeler. They had no ch. They owned and lived upon the Keith place, at 138, from 1877 until 1881. He d. in Keene, Nov. 6, 1898. See page 370. Mrs. Chase now owns the old Dunn farm, at 122, but lives at 31, which place she purchased in 1902.

II. REV. CHARLES J. CHASE.

1. REV. CHARLES J. CHASE supplied the church at East Sullivan in 1885-6. See page 446. He was, at the time, the M. E. minister of Marlborough. As he resided there, and not in S., we shall not trace his family history.

CHRISTIE.

1. GEORGE W.¹ CHRISTIE came from St. Albans, Me., and purchased the David Seward farm, at 139, in 1871. He lived here two years, until 1873. He had three children at the time, all of whom were born before coming to that place. Their names, as we remember them, were George², John², and Anna². All efforts to get further particulars of this family have been unavailing.

CLARK.

I. FAMILY OF ABRAHAM CLARK.

1. ABRAHAM¹ CLARK came to S. from Townsend, Mass. His w. was Olive Taylor of Dunstable, Mass. She had d., in Townsend, Aug. 12, 1782, before Mr. Clark came to town with his children, which was in 1792. He lived in S. from 1792 until 1811 (at first at 102). In 1804, he built the house where Mr. Marston now lives. He owned the place on the east side of the road, from 1792 to 1804, which was the first settled place in town, where the Samuel Locke family lived, also John Locke for many years. Mr. Clark and his sons occupied the old Ellis house which stood there. We know of five ch. of Abraham Clark, Sr.: 1. *Olive*², b. in Townsend, Mass., Apr. 20, 1770; m. Dr. John M. Field, q. v. 2. *Samuel*², 2, b. in Townsend, Feb. 14, 1772. 3. *Lucy*², 3, b. in Townsend, Apr. 21, 1774. 4. *Abraham*², Jr., 4, b. in Townsend, Aug. 17, 1776. 5. *Asa*², b. in Townsend, Oct. 25, 1778. There was probably, also, another son, 6. *Isaac*², 5, the date and place of whose birth are unknown.

2. SAMUEL² CLARK, son of Abraham¹, 1, m., Jan. 15, 1800, Polly (perhaps for Mary) Gibson. We find the record of the birth of one ch.: 1. *Catherine*³, b. in S., Oct. 16, 1800. He lived with his father, in the old Griswold, or Ellis, house, at 102. We know nothing of the fortunes of his family after leaving S.

3. LUCY² CLARK, dau. of Abraham¹, 1, m., Mar. 29, 1807, David Jewett, b. in Rindge, Apr. 6, 1767; d. in Jaffrey, Aug. 27, 1819; son of Jonathan and Martha (Belcher) Jewett of Jaffrey. She d. in Jaffrey, Nov. 16, 1851. We do not find that they ever had any child.

4. ABRAHAM² CLARK, JR., son of Abraham¹, 1, m. Edith (called "Ede") Taylor. He was m. in 1804, and the house where Mr. Marston lives, at 236, was built for him by his father, who went there to live with him. He remained there until 1811. COMSTOCK.

I. JOHN¹ COMSTOCK is the first ancestor of this family whom we have discovered. He was of Lyme, Conn. II. WILLIAM² COMSTOCK, a son of the preceding, m. Naomi Niles and also lived in Lyme. III. WILLIAM³ COMSTOCK, JR., also lived in the same town.

1. WILLIAM⁴ COMSTOCK, son of the second William³, III., was b. in Lyme, Conn., about 1733; d. very suddenly in the road, on returning from Keene, Oct. 7, 1773. His death was the first that ever occurred upon that territory which now constitutes the town of Sullivan. It occurred nearly opposite the gate of the old cemetery, which then had no existence of course. In deference to a superstition of the time, his body was buried near the place where he died, and this was the origin of the cemetery. He was a young man only forty years of age. He was twice married. His first w. was Elizabeth Miner (the town clerk of Lyme being a little doubtful about the last name). His second

w. was Hephzibah Lord, b. in Lyme, Conn., June 22, 1737; d. in Sullivan, Apr. 25, 1799; dau. of Theophilus and Deborah (Mack) Lord, gr. dau. of Thomas Lord, and gr. gr. dau. of William Lord, "one of Lyme's first settlers and largest landholders." After Mr. Comstock's death, at an early age, Hephzibah m. 2d, Nov. 26, 1777, John Rowe, Jr., of Surry, who came to the Comstock place, at 106, to live. She had a son by him, named Theophilus Lord Rowe, b. at 106, Aug. 1, 1778. See under John Rowe, Jr. We know of five ch. of Wm. Comstock, Sr.: 1. Josiah^b, b. in Lyme, Conn., about 1759 or 1760. At the age of 18 he enlisted, Apr. 27, 1778, in a company commanded by Capt. Wm. Ellis, also, at another time, by Capt. Griggs, in the regiment of Alexander Scammell, the 3d N. H. Reg., which opposed Burgoyne's army, fought at Monmouth, opposed the British on Rhode Island, avenged the Indians in Wyoming valley, and "huttet" for the winter of 1778-79 at Reading, Pa.; where (obviously) Josiah Comstock died of disease, Jan. 8, 1779, about 19 years of age. Hayward's History of Gilsuam states that he was "killed in his first battle." The official records furnish the data for the facts here stated. Hayward is wrong, probably having followed some unreliable family tradition. 2. Lydia^b, b. in Lyme, Conn., about 1763; m. Simeon Ellis, q. v. Her marriage was the first in the settlement. Others in the settlement had married, but hers was the first marriage ceremony performed upon the territory which is now Sullivan. 3. Mury Bates^b, b. in Lyme, Conn., but we have not ascertained the date. She m. William Corey, q. v. 4. William^b, 2, b. in Lyme, Conn., May 13, 1770. 5. James^b, 3, b. on what is now Sullivan soil, at 106, Apr. 10, 1773, and was the first child born alive within the limits which afterwards constituted Sullivan. A still-born daughter had been born to the Olcotts, but he was the first boy and the first living child born in the settlement. As we remarked, in another place in this volume, it was a curious fact that the first death, the first marriage ceremony, and the first birth of a living child, within the limits of the present town, should all have occurred in one family.

2. WILLIAM^b COMSTOCK, son of William^d, 1, r. on the homestead in S., at 106 and 107, which latter house he built. In later life, he moved to Jaffrey with his third wife, and d., at the house of his son, Jonathan J.⁶, in Jaffrey, Dec. 22, 1865. The house which he built in S. was long occupied by Alonzo Farrar, whose dau. and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Reed, still live in it. Mr. Comstock m. 1st, Dec. 21, 1797, Sarah Emerson, b. in Marlborough, about 1775; d. in S., Jan. 25, 1800, in her 25th year; dau. of Daniel and Lucy (Collins) Emerson of Marlborough. He m. 2d, Mar. 10, 1801, Martha (Patty) Jewett of Jaffrey, b. there, Apr. 13, 1774; d. in S., May 30, 1803; dau. of Jonathan and Martha (Belcher) Jewett. He m. 3d, Nov. 27, 1803, Ruth Crane of Fitzwilliam, b. there, Sept. 1777; d. in Jaffrey, Oct. 4, 1863; the dau. probably of William and Keziah Crane, who came to Fitzwilliam from Stoughton, Mass. They had no ch., but reared Lucy Rugg, q. v., who m. Asa Ellis, q. v.; also Martin Rugg, q. v. COOLIDGE.

1. JOSIAH COOLIDGE appears from the town records to have been an inn-keeper in Sullivan. He took out an inn-keeper's license in each of three or four years. He paid taxes in 1802-3-4-5. There is a tradition that he once lived on the town farm, then the Rowe place, at 70. He may have stopped there a short time, but it is doubtful. It is well nigh certain that his "inn" was the old house in which D. H. Mason and Tirzah (Boynton) Kingsbury lived at later periods, at 97. If he kept an inn, it would seem that he must have had a wife or housekeeper. The town records are silent with respect to his family. No child of his is recorded. He was perhaps, at that time, a young married man without children. However, we have been unable to find anything about his family, whence he came, or whither he went. Jesse Morse, Jr., married a Coolidge. He came from Natick, Mass. It has been thought that Josiah was one of the Natick Coolidges. We do not know.

On the night of July 3, 1706, their home in what is now Nashua was surrounded by 200 Mohawk Indians. Mrs. Cummings was slain. He was wounded in the arm and escaped to a swamp in Tyngsborough, just south of the state line. Their home is what was later the "Nathaniel Cutler" place in the south part of Nashua. IV. He sold to Thomas Spaulding and went, it is understood, to Canada, with his second wife and younger children, where they died. He had fourteen ch., all b. in Swanzy but the last: 1. *Hannah*⁶, b., Sept. 24, 1769. Her m. was announced in the Sentinel of Feb. 12, 1814. She was m. in Swanzy, by Rev. She d. in Swanzy, Feb. 3, 1815. We read on his headstone: "He was the first in Swanzy who died in the belief that all who die in Adam shall be made alive in Christ." As the expression is Biblical, even Calvinists accepted this in their own way and would challenge the historical truth of this statement. The real fact is that he claimed to be the first Universalist in Swanzy, which was quite likely true. Three ch.: 1. DEWEY.

I. FAMILY OF TIMOTHY DEWEY.

This name is said to have been originally "de la Wey." The family is said to have passed into England in the time of William the Conqueror. The town of Douai in France, in which was issued the Catholic or Douai version of the Bible, was derived from this family. DeWes, DeVie, Davies, and Davis are kindred names. I. THOMAS¹ DEWEY appeared in Dorchester, Mass., as early as 1633. He removed to Windsor, Conn., where he d. in 1648. II. DEA. JOSIAH² DEWEY, son of the preceding, b. in Windsor, Conn., ab. 1640; d. in Lebanon, Conn., Sept. 7, 1732, ae. 92. His w., Hephzibah Lyman, was a lineal descendant of the Emperor Charlemagne (the complete line being given in the published Dewey genealogy). III. EBENEZER³ DEWEY, son of the preceding, b. in Westfield, Mass., Feb. 20, 167 $\frac{3}{4}$, d. in Lebanon, Conn., Dec. 3, 1711, in his 38th year. He m. Elizabeth Wright. IV. 1. TIMOTHY⁵ DEWEY, son of Dea. Ebenezer, IV., was b. in Hebron, Conn., Mar. 27, 1755. He d. in Tunbridge, Vt., Dec. 28, 1852, at the great age of 97. He was the first settler of the farm where M. J. Barrett lives, and built a house which stood at 256. He settled the farm in 1778 and lived upon it ten years, until after Sullivan was incorporated. He was a cousin of Admiral Dewey's great-grandfather. This was, in some respects, the most remarkable family that has lived in town. We have given fuller particulars on pages 775-6, and will not repeat here. Mr. Dewey served in the Revolution, enduring many hardships. See page 776. He m., June 29, 1780, Jemima Griswold, b. in Keene, July 1755; d. in Tunbridge, Vt., Apr. 1, 1822, having been a paralytic for seven and a half years. Her parents, Stephen and Hannah Griswold, are said to have been the first settlers of Sullivan, at the site of 102 or very near it. Five ch.: 1. *Timothy*⁶, b. at 256, Sept. 16, 1781; d. there, May 12, 1783. His little headstone in the old cemetery is the oldest stone there, although there had been earlier deaths in town. 2. TIMOTHY⁶ DEWEY, JR., son of Timothy⁵, 1, was the most remarkable man who has ever left Sullivan. The spot where he was born, at 256, would have been then in Gilsum, but was included in the town of Sullivan, which was incorporated before the Deweys left the place. He was the originator of the manufacture of illuminating gas upon the American continent. We have given a full account of this distinguished man upon page 613 and will not repeat the facts here. He d. at his estate, called Ashland, in Jefferson County, N. Y., Oct. 19, 1853, ae. 69. He was a civil engineer and had resided in Albany, N. Y., and New York City. He m., Dec. 11, 1811, Sylvia Canfield, b. in Salisbury, Conn., ab. 1786; d. in 1831; dau. of Joseph and Hannah (Harrison) Canfield. II. ELMIRA DEWEY.

1. ELMIRA² DEWEY, dau. of Daniel¹ and Bethiah (McIntire) Dewey, was b., Oct. 16, 1817, in Stoddard (?). She d. at the house of her uncle, David McIntire, in S., at 26, Feb. 24, 1844, of tuberculosis. Her parents were m., Mar. 15, 1810, in Pottersville, by Rev. Elijah Willard. Her mother was a sister of David McIntire.

DE WOLF (called DOLPH).

I. MATTHEW¹ DE WOLF (frequently called DOLPH) lived in Gilsum. He m. Sibyl Bliss, dau. of Jonathan and Sibyl (Fox) Bliss of Windsor, Conn. His known ch. were: 1. *David*², b. in Gilsum, Mar. 11, 1772; m. in Surry, by L. Holmes, Esq., Aug. 27, 1793, Sarah (Sally) Borden, dau. of Samuel Borden of Surry. She m. a man named Kelsey for her 2d hus., and died in Vermont. 2. *Roxana*²,

b. in Gilsum, Jan. 13, 1774. *Philadelphia DeWolf*² (usually known as Dilly Dolph), 1, according to the Gilsum history, was probably his daughter. II. CECILIA¹ DEWOLF was quite likely his sister. She was m. in Surry, according to the records of that town, July 12, 1784, by Lemuel Holmes, Esq., to George Parkhurst. According to the vital statistics of Keene, a certain BEULAH DOLPH of Surry was married in Keene, July 12, 1784, by Rev. Aaron Hall, to George Parkhurst of Surry. It seems hardly possible that there could be two George Parkhursts of Surry, who were married on the same day. It would seem as if the two records allude to the same marriage, but we cannot solve the puzzle. Possibly the town clerk of Surry erred in the spelling of the bride's name. Mr. Holmes may have performed a civil marriage, because the religious ceremony was in another town. George Parkhurst and his wife had a dau., *Cecilia*², b. in Surry, Feb. 22, 1785. III. PRUDENCE¹ DEWOLF (or DOLPH) was probably another sister of Matthew. She had a daughter, named *Charlotte*², b. in Westford (not Westfield), Mass., Dec. 5, 1773. The father was Timothy Roots, according to Gilsum records. Prudence m. John Dimick, Jr., q. v., and the daughter was called "Charlotty Dimick."

1. PHILADELPHIA² DEWOLF, probably the dau. of Matthew¹, I, was never married. She lived a few years in S., in a hut at 224, and was the only person who ever occupied it. She was the notorious DILLY DOLPH of whom we have given a pretty full account on page 756. After living here, from ab. 1798 or 1799 until ab. 1804, she went to Pownal, Vt., then to Gilsum, and also lived in several other places, and was finally driven from Gilsum, in 1821, in the manner described on page 756. We know the names of two of her ch.: 1. *Henry Page*³. At a special town meeting in Gilsum, in 1800, it was voted "to put out" Philadelphia Dolph's child. He was accordingly "put out" to Moses Farnsworth, a near neighbor, who was to have fifty dollars for taking him. In the writings, he is called "*Henry Page*³, as his mother hath named him." His paternity is unknown. 2. *David Nash*³, son of Abraham Nash, Jr., q. v., b. in Pownal, Vt., Jan. 4, 1804, correcting the record in the History of Gilsum. In 1804, there was a lawsuit between Gilsum and Sullivan about the maintenance of "Dilly's" children. Sullivan probably had to pay the bills. She is understood to have had other children, among them two daughters, but we cannot learn any authentic particulars. It is understood that no one of her children was b. in Sullivan.

DIMMICK OR DIMMOCK.

This name is variously spelled Dimmick, Dimick, Dimock, Dimmock, and in other forms. Dimmick appears to be the most approved form. I. THOMAS¹ DIMMICK came from England, and was in Dorchester, Mass., in 1635, moved to Hingham, Mass., in 1638, and to Scituate, Mass., in 1639. In the latter year, he moved again to Barnstable, Mass., where he d. in 1658. II. SHUBAEL² DIMMICK, son of the preceding, and the only son who lived to have descendants, r. in Barnstable, where he was known as "Ensign Dimock," in Yarmouth, Mass., and in Windsor (later Mansfield), Conn., where he was known as "Dea. Dimmick." He m. Joanna Bursley. He was bap. in Barnstable, Sept. 14, 1644; d. in Windsor (Mansfield), Conn., Oct. 29, 1732. III. TIMOTHY³ DIMMICK (or DIMMUCK), third son and ch. of Shubael², b. in Barnstable, Mar. 1668; d. in Ashford, Conn., ab. 1733. His w. was called Abigail.

1. JOHN⁴ DIMMICK, son of Timothy³, III, was b. in Mansfield, Conn., Jan. 3 (O. S.), 170 $\frac{1}{8}$; d. in S., at 250, June 23, 1789. He was one of the earliest settlers of the place. He purchased land in what was then Gilsum, Nov. 24, 1766, including many lots, several of which were in what is now S. His ch. were all b. in Ashford, Conn., before he moved to New Hampshire. After the removal, he lived several years on land that he owned in what is still Gilsum. About 1777 or 1778, he moved to his land in what is now S. He lived at 250, and his son, Timothy⁵, lived with him. He and his w. died there. He was a large land owner and gave fine farms to all of his children. He gave the farm at 250 (later 251) to Timothy; the farm at 242 (including the later Hubbard farm at 243) to John, Jr.; the farm at 103 (later the Baker and J. N. Nims farm, at 104) to Isaac; the farm at 175 (the C. W. Rawson farm) to Sibyl, who m. John Chapman; and the farm at 199 (later the Foster farm at 197, and the H. C. John Chapman, q. v.; 5. *Benjamin*⁵, b., Dec. 1, 1739; d. in Ashford, Conn., Nov. 10, 1759; 6. *Isaac*⁵, 3, date of birth not discovered; 7. *Timothy*⁵, 4, date of birth not discovered; 8. *John*⁵, 5, b., Oct. 19, 1748.

2. HANNAH⁵ DIMMICK, dau. of John⁴, 1, m., for her first hus., a Mr. Thatcher. We do not know where he lived and have no particulars concerning him. She appears on the records as the "widow Thatcher." She m., 2d, in Keene, by Thomas Baker, Esq., Aug. 29, 1787, John Harvey, Jr., of Swanzey. Mr. Harvey, by his first w., Mercy, had three ch., John Thurber, Mercy and Edward. Mr. Harvey was the son of John and Jemima Harvey, who came to Swanzey from Taunton, Mass., previous to 1776. Hannah is not known to have had any ch.

We know nothing of Isaac's wife, nor the particulars of his death.

4. TIMOTHY⁵ DIMMICK, son of John⁴, 1, r. in S., at 250, for many years. He left town and we do not know the place or date of his death. He m., May 31, 1782, in Surry, Sarah Beels (or Beals). We know nothing of her birth, death, or parentage. The Surry records err in calling her name Hannah. Six ch., all b. at 250: 1. *Kendall*⁶, d. at 250, June 24, 1785, in infancy. 2. *Timothy*⁶, b. Apr. 10, 1786; d. at 250, Nov. 23, 1786; 3. *Sarah*⁶ (called Sally), b., Aug. 4, 1788; d. at 250, Aug. 21, 1791; 4. *Dorcas*⁶, b., Jan. 18, 1790; m. 5. JOHN⁵ DIMMICK, JR., son of John⁴, 1, m., Oct. 8, 1774, Prudence Dolph of Gilsum, probably a sister of Matthew, q. v. We have no further particulars about her, nor do we know the place and date of Mr. Dimmick's death. He lived at first in what is still Gilsum, where his first two ch. were born, then he moved to what is now S., at 242, where his remaining ch. were born. On Nov. 3, 1808, he bought a farm in Pittsford, Vt., to which he moved, and we know no more of him. He had nine ch. certainly and probably eleven

11. *Hannah Dimmick*⁶, who m. Jasper White, q. v., was also probably a dau. of John. It is likely that Sibyl and Hannah were born between 1781 and 1787, their births coming between those of John and Alanson. The earliest Gilsum records, where these births would have been recorded, are not known to be in existence.

6. TIMOTHY⁶ DIMMICK, son of Timothy⁵, 4, d. in Union Grove, Ill., date undiscovered, having previously lived at West Rutland, Vt., where his two ch. were born. DODGE.

The Sullivan Dodges appear to have been quite distinct from the Stoddard Dodges and only remotely related, if at all. I. JOHN¹ DODGE and Margaret (or Margerie), his wife, lived in Somersetshire, England. II. RICHARD² DODGE, son of John¹, settled in the north part of what is now Beverly, Mass., where he d., June 15, 1671. III. EDWARD³ DODGE, son of Richard², d. in North Beverly, Feb. 13, 1727. He m. Mary, dau. of Wm. Haskell of Gloucester. IV. MARK⁴ DODGE, son of Edward³, d. in Beverly, ab. 1787. He m., 1st, Sarah Dodge, 2d, Elizabeth Woodbury. V. BENJAMIN⁵ DODGE, son of Mark⁴ and Elizabeth Dodge, b. in Beverly, Sept. 21, 1724; d. in New Boston, N. H., Oct. 10, 1797. He m., June 19, 1754, Lydia, dau. of Samuel and Margaret Dodge of Ipswich, Mass. She was b., Mar. 1733; d. in New Boston, May 8, 1830.

1. BENJAMIN⁶ DODGE, JR., son of Benjamin⁵, V., was b. in Beverly, Mass., Apr. 13, 1758; d. in New Boston, Jan. 13, 1831; m. 1st, Nov. 4 (or 24), 1780 (or 1781), Eunice Boutwell (or Boutelle); b. in Beverly, Mass., Nov. 14, 1761; d. in New Boston, Nov. 11 (or 21), 1811. He m. 2d, Mar. 15, 1812, the widow, Sarah Mudgett of Weare, b. in Andover, Mass., Aug. 17, 1774; d. in New Boston, Dec. 5 (or 6), 1838. He lived in S., not more than a year, in the old Joseph Ellis house which stood on or near the site of 102. He was then living with his first wife. His fifth ch., Sarah, was b. here, all the others in New Boston: 1. *Elizabeth*¹, b., Jan. 13, 1783; m. Solomon Dodge of New Boston, and had nine ch.; 2. *Mark*¹, b., May 16, 1785; d., Apr. 7, 1789; 3. *Lydia*¹, b., June 18, 1787; m. Samuel Gregg, and had six ch.; 4. *Charlotte*¹, b., Feb. 23, 1790; m. James Boutwell of Antrim, and had seven ch.; 5. *Sarah*¹ (Sally), b. in S., on the site of 102, June 15, 1792; d., unm., in New Boston, Nov. 4, 1808; 6. *Eunice*¹, b., Oct. 15, 1794; d. unm., in New Boston, Sept. 1, 1827; 7. *Benjamin*¹, b., Jan. 22, 1797; m. Mary Smith, and had seven ch.; 8. *Monica*¹ (usually misspelled Monice by herself), b., June 23, 1799; m. Samuel Dodge of New Boston, and had ten ch.; 9. *Achsa*¹, b., July 16, 1802; m. Rodney George of Windham; 10. *Rebecca*¹, b., Feb. 20, 1806; m. Jacob Bailey of Manchester; 11. *Sarah*¹, b., Nov. 27, 1813; m. Gove Kelso; two ch.; 12. *Mary W.*¹, b., Sept. 4, 1816; m. David A. Kendall of Mt. Vernon, N. H.; three ch. The descendants of this family are very numerous. As they never lived in S., and as the whole genealogy of the family is minutely traced in the published Dodge genealogy, we do not deem it advisable to publish it here, as it would take many pages to do so.

DORCHESTER.

1. ISHMAEL¹ DORCHESTER, a negro, lived for a time on what we call the Dunn place, in a house that stood on or near the site of 122. We do not discover the date of his birth or his parentage. It was probably during the ownership of Daniel Wilder, between 1807 and 1815 (we do not know the exact years), that Ishmael lived here. He was m. in Sterling, Mass., Nov. 2, 1783, to a negress called Peggy Rogers. Negroes derived their surnames from families in which they had been servants or slaves. We know nothing of Peggy's birth, death or parentage. Ishmael d. in Sterling, June 25, 1828. The Sterling records note the death of a certain Peggy Dorchester, perhaps Ishmael's mother or grandmother, who d., Apr. 9, 1816, at the age of 107. It may be doubted whether her exact age was known. In those days, negroes rarely knew their birthdays or parentage. The Sterling records record the births, in that town, of seven ch. of Ishmael and Peggy, all of whom, except the eldest, probably went to S. with their parents. They were: 1. *Seraphina*², b., Mar. 8, 1784; published in Sterling, Jan. 22, 1803, to Moses Roberts, "a bondsman," of Boylston; 2. *Elothina*², called "Allethina," b., Feb. 9, 1785; m. Peter Barker, q. v.; 3. *Fanny*², b., July 25, 1786; 4. *Rhoda*², b., Sept. 3, 1788; 5. *Arethusa*², b., Apr. 29, 1791; 6. *David*², b., Nov. 12, 1797; the boy about whom Capt. Nims composed his riddle (see pages 579-580); 7. *Maria*² (spelled Maris on record), b., Nov. 29, 1799. There was also an *Ivy Dorchester*², perhaps another child of Ishmael, or a relative, who lived with Mr. and Mrs. Pompey Woodward, negroes who lived at 127, 130, and 129. We do not know what became of her.

DORR.

1. JOSIAH DORR received a license to sell spirits, June 1, 1801. He was a trader and had a store in the house at 97, where Tirzah Boynton lived in later years. He was only in that store two or three years. He was probably a relative of the Keene family of Joseph Dorr, and was very likely one of the Boston Dorrs. We have not yet discovered his family relationships. He was quite likely unmarried at this time.

DORT.

The Dorts and Darts are originally of the same family. The name is variously spelled Dart, Darte, Dartt, and Dort (at the present time). This family spell the last name Dort, although their ancestors spelled it Dart. I. THOMAS² DART, the first of the family of whom we hear, was b. in Connecticut, ab. 1719; d. in Gilsum, Apr. 9, 1792. The name of his father is not known to us. He m. Sarah Belding. II. JESSE³ DART, son of Thomas, b. in Bolton, Conn., ab. 1756; d. in Gilsum, June 9, 1829; m., 1st, Jane McCurdy; m. 2d, (Oct. 1826, Mrs. Abigail (Webster) (Sawyer) Clisby. III. JESSE⁴ DORT or DART, son of Jesse, b. in Gilsum, June 8, 1783; m. Susannah Capen of Surry, and moved to Schenectady, N. Y.

1. WILLARD⁵ DORT, son of Jesse⁴, III., always spelled his last name Dort. He was b. in Gilsum, Apr. 5, 1810 (the date 1808 furnished by his dau. being probably a mistake, if the succession of the dates of the births of Jesse Dart's children on the Gilsum town records is reliable, upon which we rely for date of Willard's birth). He d. at Clear Lake, Iowa, Apr. 16, 1881. He lived in S., from his marriage until 1854, in the Hemenway house, at 210, where Wm. H. Bates lives. He then lived three years in Keene and moved to Clear Lake, Iowa. He m., Apr. 24, 1834, Elvira Fay Gibbs, b. in S., Sept. 12, 1813; alive when the record was taken, but probably not living at present; dau. of Dea. Dalphon and Asenath (Fay) Gibbs of Sullivan. They had three ch., all b. at 210: 1. *Dalphon Gibbs*⁶, called later Dalphon Alonso, b., Feb. 20, 1836; 2. *Asenath Roselva*⁶, 2, b., Mar. 28, 1838; 3. *Oscar Lyman*⁶, b., July 10, 1840. The boys were both in the Civil War. We have not obtained their family records.

2. ASENATH R.⁶ DORT, dau. of Willard⁵, 1, called herself later Rosa Asenath Dort. She m., Dec. 16, 1856, in Keene, by Rev. Gilbert Robbins, Thomas Ottobine Howard, b. in Marlow, Dec. 16, 1832 (correcting the History of Gilsum); son of Jonathan and Lucretia (Beckwith) Howard. In the spring after their marriage, they moved to Clear Lake, Iowa, where they ever afterwards lived. Mr. Howard rose to the rank of 1st Lieut. of Co. B, 3 Reg. of Iowa Vols. in the Civil War, and d., Apr. 11, 1864, from wounds received in the battle of Pleasant Hills, Ia. He was a very gallant soldier. They had two ch., both b. in Clear Lake, Iowa: 1. *Nettie Lorena*¹, b., Oct. 12, 1858; 2. *Thomas Oscar*¹, b., May 21, 1862.

DUDLEY.

MRS. SARAH DUDLEY is reported, in the Sentinel for Mar. 17, 1836, to have died in S. We have been unable to ascertain who she was. We know of no family of that name that ever lived in town. We think she must have been a visitor in some family. Her age was given as 76. She was therefore born in 1759 or 1760. Perhaps she was the mother of some woman of the town; doubtless a relative of some of the town people.

He lived many years in S.; at first, in 1839-40, in the old Cummings house, at 178. In 1840, he moved to the Kemp farm at 151, which he purchased in 1842, where he lived until after the Civil War, when he moved the house to Eastern Avenue in Keene, where he d., June 21, 1872. His death was caused from having his neck broken by being thrown from a mowing machine while at work in a field near his house. He was a prominent citizen of Jaffrey and had been a representative to the General Court. His former wife, who was Sarah A. Putney, died Dec. 13, 1873, from injuries received in being thrown from a carriage, by a frightened horse, on Ward Hill. Mrs. Emily L. Fassett d. in Jaffrey, Apr. 7, 1888. The date of birth on her headstone in the Keene Woodland Cemetery is wrong. She never had any ch. By his former w. 1. JUSTUS PERRY³ DUNN was b. in Stoddard, Nov. 28, 1812; son of Jonas² and Relief (Thompson) Dunn, and grandson of Benjamin¹ and Phebe (Spaulding) Dunn. He was named for Gen. Justus Perry of Keene, but dropped the Perry in later life and was usually known simply as Justus Dunn. He lived in Stoddard and Keene and moved, in 1850, to the old Oliver Stone house in S.,

We do not know where he went then, nor when nor where he died. His wife was Dolly Bayley (or Bailey), who was bap. in Lancaster, Mass., Dec. 20, 1767; dau. of Shubael and Hannah (Whittemore) Bayley. She was a sister of Enos Bayley, who bought the place just below, and built the house marked Bayley upon the map, on the farm afterwards owned by Amasa Brown. See Enos Bailey, in these genealogies. ELLIS.

1. JOSEPH¹ ELLIS was probably from Dedham, Mass., originally, but our researches have failed to establish his place in the Ellis genealogical line. He settled in Keene, in the north part of the town, at or not far from the site of 48 (Keene number). He was one of the earliest settlers of Keene, where he remained until 1776, when he moved to that part of Gilsum which is now in S. at 102. Here he d., in 1781, his will being proved, Dec. 25, 1781. This will was made at Keene, Dec. 4, 1773, in which he mentions his wife and the following children, Elisha, Lydia (to whom he willed "a cow forever"), Simeon, Benjamin, Mary, Nathan, and Joseph. Lydia, his widow, d. in S., at the site of 102, Jul

16, 1805, at the age of 85. The Sentinel obituary notes that she was "the third woman who moved into this town [Sullivan], at its first settlement." An explanation of this statement may be found on page 100. We will add to that statement that it is learned that the family of Zadok Nims, mentioned on that page, did not come to the settlement until after the Ellises. It was once supposed that the Ellises lived at 75, but this is now known to be an error. They moved at once to the site of 102, which had been settled by the Griswolds, who were doubtless the first persons in town and built here the first house in town, about 1768. We have not discovered the dates and exact places of birth of either Joseph¹ Ellis or his wife, or their parentage. They had eight ch., all b. in Keene: 1. *Elisha*², 2, b., Sept. 23 (O. S.), 1742; 2. *Joseph*², 3, b., about 1744; 3. *Lydia*², b., about 1746 or 1747, d., in the early part of 1833 (Feb. or Mar.), in S., at the house of Geo. Baker, at 246 (not 242, as incorrectly stated on page 792), to whom the town made the last payment for her support in March of that year, the preceding payment having been on Feb. 19 of the same year; 4. *Simeon*², 4, b., about 1749; 5. *Benjamin*², b., Apr. 1753; d. in Keene, Mar. 26, 1754; 6. *Benjamin*², 5, b., Apr. 13, 1755; 7. *Mary*², b., about 1757; m. James Sawyer, q. v.; 8. *Nathan*², 6, b., about 1760 or 1761.

2. *ELISHA*² ELLIS, son of Joseph¹, 1, d. in Keene, Jan. 4, 1805, at 62 years of age. His w., Sarah, d. in Keene, May 25, 1820, 74 yrs. of age according to town record, or 75 according to the records of the First Church of Keene. They had no children. He lived in the northeast part of Keene, on his paternal homestead, at 48 (Keene number). Besides a farm, he operated a saw-mill, at the spot where Ashley Spaulding afterwards had one, near the junction of the Beaver Brook and Sullivan roads. We have not discovered the date of his marriage or any particulars concerning his wife. He left her his property, excepting some trifling legacies, which she willed to *Abiah*³, dau. of Joseph² Ellis, q. v., who had long lived with them.

3. *JOSEPH*² ELLIS, son of Joseph¹ 1, m. 1st, Apr. 4, 1771, Bridget Hammond of Swanzey, who d. on what is now Sullivan soil, in the then new settlement, at the site of 102, Mar. 9, 1778, leaving a child b. the same day. She was the dau. of Thomas and Abiah Hammond. He m. 2d, Feb. 12, 1795, Abigail Divoll (as her family spelled the surname), b. in Lancaster, Mass., Dec. 18 (O.S.), 1747; d. in S., at the house of Mrs. Polly Seward, at 139, Mar. 1, 1834; dau. of Ephraim and Elizabeth (Woods) Divoll. He first lived several years in Keene, then many years on the old Ellis homestead, at site of 102, in S., then he bought the place where the Wardwells and Hubbards have since lived, on the site of 25, where he lived from 1792 to 1803; then he moved to the place where Q. B. Nash lives, at 26, which he owned from 1806 to 1809. After this, he lost his property, for which his son is said to have been blameworthy, and he and his wife were supported by the town in various places in S., especially at the houses of Joseph Seward (99), David Chapman (175), Abijah Seward (155), and Joseph Kingsbury (161), at whose house Mr. Ellis d., Feb. 5, 1829. His widow then lived and d. at the house of Mrs. Polly Seward, as we have noted. Joseph² Ellis had four ch.: 1. *Bridget*³, b. in Keene, May 14, 1772; d. there, June 2, 1772. 2. *Abiah*³, b. in Keene, Dec. 31, 1773; d. there, unm., June 21, 1849. She lived in the family of her uncle Elisha Ellis, who had no child, and, after the death of the latter's wife, inherited the property, but she eventually became a charge of the town of Keene. She was eccentric and kept several dozen cats. She finally became deranged and was cared for by Lewis Bridge, who lived on Beaver Brook road, near its junction with the Sullivan road, at 48 (Keene number), which Abiah had inherited from her kindred. 3. *Bathshua*³, b. in Keene, Nov. 3, 1775; m. David Chapman, q. v. 4. *Joseph Hammond*³, b. in what is now S., at 102, Mar. 9, 1778, at whose birth his mother died. We have heard, but not verified the report, that he was a lawyer. He lived at one time in Alstead. He managed, it is reported, to obtain possession of his father's property, after which he neglected him, so that the old gentleman and his wife required public support in their old age.

He lived in Sullivan several years, 1792 to 1799 or 1800, in the house built by himself at 193½. During the latter years of his residence in town, his brother John Farnsworth owned an undivided half of the farm. According to Hayward's History of Gilsum, Paul Farnsworth had the following seven children, the dates and places of whose births we cannot find: 1. *Daniel*², who m. Polly Farnsworth, his cousin, dau. of Moses, Sr., and removed to the state of New York. 2. *Lydia*², who m. a Page and settled in Roxbury. 3. *Oliver*². 4. *Ashbel*². 5. *Leonard*². 6. *Sarah*². 7. *Luther*².

2. JOHN FARNSWORTH was undoubtedly a brother of Paul. He owned an undivided half of the farm at 193½ from 1795 to 1800, with Paul. He paid taxes in town from 1797 to 1800, and probably lived on this place from 1796 until 1800. He m., Oct. 12, 1791, Bethiah Harvey of Swanzey, who was probably the dau. of John and Jemima Harvey of that town, who came there from Taunton, Mass. We find no account of any children, if he had any.

We regret that we can obtain no more information of the Farnsworths. It is astonishing how quickly all remembrance of a family will fade from the recollection of neighbors, especially of those who lived at a time when nobody made it a business to preserve vital records.

FARRAR.

I. FAMILY OF JOHN FARRAR.

I. JOHN¹ FARRAR moved from Framingham, Mass., to Fitzwilliam, about 1775. He d. there, Jan. 7, 1777. He m. 1st, Oct. 13, 1740, Martha, dau. of Rev. John and Sarah (Tileston) Swift of Framingham. She d. in 1749. He m. 2d, Oct. 4, 1750, Deborah Winch, b. in Framingham, Mass., Jan., 27, 1728½; d. in Fitzwilliam, Nov. 2, 1793; dau. of Thomas and Deborah (Gleason) Winch. They had thirteen ch., among whom were *Mary*², who m. Gen. James Reed of the Revolution (father of Hinds Reed, q. v.); 2. *John*², 1; and *William*², 2.

1. JOHN² FARRAR, son of John¹, I., and Deborah (Winch) Farrar, was b. in Framingham, Mass., Aug. 11, 1751; d. in South Hadley, Mass., Mar. 20, 1809. About 1793 or 1794, he purchased the farm later owned by the Boyntons, at 176. His brother, Wm.² Farrar, bought this farm in 1796; but John apparently lived upon it two or three years longer. In 1799, Wm. Farrar purchased the old Joshua Burditt farm, at 183, and John² Farrar lived upon it nine years, then went to South Hadley. His widow returned to 183 and d. at her son's home. On page 373 may be seen an account of John Farrar's being scalped during the Revolution. He m., May 8, 1786, Ruth Davis of Fitzwilliam, b. in Concord, Mass., Nov. 15, 1749; d. in S., at 183, Jan. 5, 1835; dau. of Zechariah and Lydia (Hubbard) Davis, and a sister of Elisha Davis of Stoddard, the grandfather of Marcus, q. v.; Asa, q. v.; and Alden, q. v. John and Ruth had three ch. all b. in Troy (now): 1. *John*³, 3, b., Mar. 25, 1787; 2. *Deborah*³, b., Apr. 16, 1788, m. David Porter, q. v.; 3. *Eleanor*³, b. Nov. 7, 1789. Eleanor was usually called "Nelly." Her name is incorrectly spelled "Molly" in the History of Fitzwilliam. After the elder John Farrar's family moved from S., Eleanor was m., at a date which we have not discovered, to Eli Dort of Gilsum, who was b. there, Jan. 14, 1791; d. at Harpersville, N. Y., Aug. 25, 1857; son of John and Elisheba (Briggs) Dort. Mr. Dort was a deacon of some Congregational church. They had one son and two daughters: Luke⁴, Mary⁴, and Eleanor⁴. We have been unable to trace their record.

2. WILLIAM² FARRAR, son of John¹, I., and Deborah (Winch) Farrar, was b. in Framingham, Mass., June 20, 1760; d. in Troy, N. H., May 4, 1837. The year of her birth is wrong in the published Boynton genealogy. Wm.² Farrar owned two farms in S. (see John Farrar, Jr.), but it is not probable that he ever lived upon either. He had no ch., and took into his family his wife's niece, Clementine, dau. of David Boynton of S., q. v. Clementine was b. in S., Nov. 27, 1804; d. in Troy, N. H., July 10, 1830, unm.

3. JOHN³ FARRAR, 3d, son of John², Jr., 1, purchased the old Farrar homestead, at 183, in 1815. He was m. seven years later and went there to live. His family was the last to live on the farm. He sold it to the Boyntons in 1837, who pastured it. Mr. Farrar moved to the north part of Keene, where he d., Oct. 23, 1856. He m., Sept. 18, 1822, Susannah Phelps, b. in Marlow, Nov. 29, 1795; d. at Walnut, Ill., Feb. 1860; dau. of Luther and Susannah (Cram)

He had four ch.: 1. *Susannah*⁴ (generally called Susan), b. in S., at 183, Feb. 16, 1824, educated at the Hancock Scientific and Literary Institution, engaged to marry George W. 4. DEA. JOSEPH⁶ FOSTER, son of Stephen^a, 1, d. in Keene, Oct. 3, 1875. He was a wonderful man. He had a remarkably inventive brain. He made a telephone which connected his factory with the Town (now City) Hall and Court House before anybody had announced the famous invention. He invented a machine to spin wool from the mass, without carding, by drawing out the fibre in a continuous thread. The machine was in the shop when he died, but no one else could ever put it together. He built, in 1829, the first cabinet organ ever made, the work being done in the old Hemenway shop in S., at 209, which Mr. Foster afterwards purchased. He was experimenting with electricity, at the same time as Morse, and along similar lines. He left in his house an instrument combining pipe organ, reed organ, and piano, but no one else could ever repair and tune it. See pages 565, 574, and 614. In S., Mr. Foster owned the house at 210 and the shop at 209, for a year, 1832-33, and he also began to build a shop, just across the town line, at 41 of the Gilsum numbers, but did not finish it. FREEMAN.

1. PETER¹ FREEMAN, a negro, who lived on the old Col. White farm, before the latter's occupancy of it, at 73, a house which was last used by Frederick B. Nims, did not probably know his age or even his ancestry. He was one of several negroes who came to town from Sterling and neighboring towns in Massachusetts. He was m. in Packersfield (Nelson) by Rev. Gad Newell, Nov. 12, 1798, to Catherine Bozroth (as nearly as we can decipher the chirography of her last name on the S. records). In Mr. Newell's return of the marriage, she is simply called Miss Catherine. She probably did not know her age and, very likely, knew little or nothing of her parentage. Peter lived at 73 about ten years, owning the place from 1794 to 1804, when he sold to Col. Solomon White, who sold it later to his grandson, Frederick B. Nims. All of the latter's children were born here, and one of them, George II. Nims, has erected a marble monument to mark the house site and to commemorate the births of the Nims children. Peter Freeman had four children that were born here: 1. Electa² (spelled Electia or Eleutia on the town records), b., Sept. 4, 1798; 2. Lydia², b., Mar. 26, 1801; 3. Merrill Daniels², b., July 4, 1803; 4. Clarissa², b., Dec. 17, 1804.

FRENCH.

I. FAMILY OF JOSEPH FRENCH.

1. JOSEPH¹ FRENCH became a resident of S. after his marriage to the widow of John Wright. With the exception of his daughter, Arethusa, wife of Joseph Mason, Jr., who had come to town long before he did, no one of his family, excepting himself, ever lived in S. We have, therefore, not attempted any extended notice of his children, because they more properly belong to other towns. We learn that his grandfather settled in Attleborough, Mass., as early as 1720. Joseph had lived in Chelmsford, Mass., before he came to that part of Marlborough which is now the north-east part of Troy, N. H., where Joseph Haskell was living in 1897. In 1808, he sold this farm to Hezekiah Hodgkins and went to Ludlow, Vt. His first wife was Ruth Farrar. He m. 2d, Nov. 24, 1817, Mrs. Phebe (Stoddard) Wright, widow of John Wright, q. v. After this, he lived, from 1817 to 1833, on the farm in S. that Mr. Wright left to his heirs, at 3. He then sold the place and went to Vermont. Phebe was the daughter of Richard and Rachel (Hill) Stoddard. We have not ascertained the place and date of her birth or of her death. We know of the following four ch. of Mr. French, by his former wife: 1. *Sarah*², probably the eldest, 2; 2. *Bridget*², 3, probably younger than Sarah; 3. *Arethusa*², b. in Chelmsford, Mass., Sept. 14, 1778; m. Joseph Mason, Jr., q. v.; 4. *Vryling*², b. perhaps in Chelmsford, Mass., ab. 1779; d. in Fitzwilliam (now Troy), Nov. 14, 1804, ae. 25; unm.

2. SARAH² FRENCH, dau. of Joseph¹, 1, was perhaps b. in Chelmsford, Mass., but we are not sure of the place of her birth and do not know the date. She d. in Alstead, March 2, 1839; she m., Jan. 1, 1800, Samuel Thurston; b. in Marlboro, Aug. 16, 1775; d. in Alstead, Dec. 23, 1873; son of David and Eunice (Whitney) Thurston. They had six ch., whose genealogy we have traced quite fully, but shall abbreviate the record here, because the family does not strictly belong to the town. They were: 1. *Louisa*³, b. in Alstead, Dec. 16, 1800; d. in Gilsum, Nov. 6, 1835; m., Oct. 15, 1817, Timothy Dort of Gilsum; b. there, Nov. 6, 1797; d. at Butler, Ill., Nov. 24, 1860; son of Timothy and Margaret (Taylor) Dort. I. SOLOMON HOWARD.

SOLOMON HOWARD, from Andover, Vt., came to Sullivan and bought the land on which stood the house at 222, in the north part of the town. The purchase was on Jan. 17, 1788. Mack's heart was fired with the patriotic desire to hunt up the tories of the vicinity and take them prisoners and secure the arms and ammunition which he fancied that they had secured to aid the British. His "raid" on the tories of Keene, on the morning of the day named, was an irregular and illegal performance, however commendable might have been his motives. His band of "soldiers" was met and dispersed by Capt. Davis Howlett. See Hayward's History of Gilsum, pages 160 and 161, also page 439; also Griffin's History of Keene. Their bodies were buried in the Keene Washington Street cemetery, but Mr. Lawrence, although receiving their farm, never erected any headstones at their graves.

HUNT.

1. CALEB HUNT lived a few years in Stoddard. We have not ascertained his birth, marriage or death records. While in Stoddard, his wife Lavinia (Levinah on records) died, Sept. 20, 1788, in the 27th year of her age. He bought the old Griswold-Ellis farm in S., later known as the Samuel Locke farm, at 102, May 20, 1807, and took out a license as inn-keeper on the 10th of June in the same year. He was already married a second time, to a woman whose first name was Ruth, who joined the 1st Cong. Church, Nov. 8, 1807, by letter from Sterling, Mass., from which town she probably came. Mr. Hunt was a man of much influence in Stoddard, holding several of the town offices. He bought the Sullivan place which we have mentioned from Capt. Elijah Osgood, but was evidently unable to pay for it and surrendered the deed, for we find Mr. Osgood, two years later, in possession of it again. We have not ascertained where Mr. Hunt went from S., nor when nor where he or his wife died. We can find no record of the birth of any child in either Stoddard or Sullivan.

HUNTLEY.

1. WILLIAM LEWIS² HUNTLEY was b. in Marlow, Jan. 16, 1825, the son of Curtis¹ and Betsey (Lewis) Huntley. HUSTON.

SAMUEL HUSTON, as he wrote his own name, very plainly, upon a deed which he gave to Capt. Samuel Seward, now in the writer's possession, but whose last name was often, and probably more correctly, spelled HOUSTON, with his wife Priscilla, of whom we know no more than her first name, lived in Sullivan for a few years at 174½. Mr. Huston (or Houston) bought a large tract of land in the "Gore" of the Sumner heirs. The Chapman Brook, outlet of Chapman Pond, flowed through his land. Upon it was a mill probably erected by him. See page 732. The mill stood at 174½. He purchased the land of the Sumners, Sept. 6, 1799, and probably came to town in the spring or summer of that year. His sojourn in S. was very brief, only about two years. The S. books do not record the birth of any child of Mr. Huston, and we know nothing of the birth, marriage, death, or parentage of either Mr. or Mrs. Huston. They sold their homestead in S. to Asa Wait, Jr., of Fitzwilliam, Sept. 28, 1801, and removed from the place, which was immediately occupied by the Waits, who built the newer house at 174¼. A long ballad of the old-fashioned type, of sixty-seven lines, was written to commemorate this famous ride, and is preserved in the History of Swanzey by Reed. Col. KENDALL.

I. JONATHAN¹ KENDALL, 3d, as he was known in Lancaster, Mass., is the first ancestor of the Sullivan Kendalls that we can directly trace. The name of Jonathan Kendall is so common in the Lancaster records that the tracing of the family is troublesome and confusing. This Jonathan Kendall, 3d, d. in S., at the house of his son Jonathan, Jr., at 144, Sept. 18, 1809, in his 81st year, having, therefore, been b. in 1728 or 1729, but we have not learned where, nor can we trace his parentage and ancestry. He m., Dec. 3, 1761, Patience Frost of Groton, Mass., b. there, Apr. 23, 1734; dau. of John and Ruth Frost. We have not ascertained the place and date of her death. Among their children were *Ebenezer*², 1, b. in Leominster, Mass., Nov. 13, 1762; *Jonathan*² Jr., 2, b. probably in that part of Lancaster that is now Sterling (or perhaps in Leominster), in 1764; and *Patience*², who m. Enos Bailey (or Bayley), q. v. Ebenezer and Jonathan were both baptized on Oct. 14, 1764, in the "Chocksett," now Sterling, church, which is to-day the old Unitarian church of that town. Patience was baptized in the same church, Nov. 29, 1767, which is doubtless the year of her birth.

1. EBENEZER² KENDALL, son of Jonathan¹, 3d, of Lancaster, Mass., b. in Leominster, Mass., Nov. 13, 1762; d. in S., at 145, Sept. 8, 1849, which date corrects the S. records as returned to the Vital Records office at Concord, N. H. He was an early settler of S. His home, a portion of which is still standing, is one of the oldest in the town. He was a farmer and substantial citizen. He and his wife were members of the First Cong. Ch. of the town. He m., June 7, 1796, in Worcester, Mass., by the Rev. Samuel Austin, to Esther Barker, b. in Concord, Mass., June 24, 1759; d. in S., at 145, Apr. 26, 1848; dau. of William and Martha (Shepard) Barker. She was a twin, the name of her mate being Francis. The inscriptions upon the headstones of Mr. and Mrs. Kendall are not accurate. These dates are all correct and carefully verified, although differing from certain family records. They had no ch. Harrison Rugg and Sophia Beverstock, who eventually became husband and wife, were taken, as children, into their home and reared in it. See under the family of Harrison Rugg.

2. JONATHAN² KENDALL, JR., son of Jonathan¹, 3d, of Lancaster, Mass., lived in S. at 143 and 144. After the death of his wife and the departure from the town of all his living ch., he lived in the family of John Dunn, at 151 (the old Kemp house), where he d., May 18, 1845, in his 81st year. He m., March 13, 1791, in Lancaster, Mass., by Rev. Timothy Harrington, to Mary (called Polly) Clark. She d. in S., at 144, June 27, 1827, in her 58th year, and was undoubtedly b. in 1769. In her obituary in the N. H. Sentinel, she is said to have been a native of Lancaster, Mass., but we cannot discover her parentage. Mr. Kendall settled a farm next north of that of his brother Ebenezer. Both farms were on a side road, always called the Kendall Lane. They had six ch.: 1. *Sparhawk*³, 3, b. in S., at 143, Apr. 20, 1792; 2. *Joel*³, b. in S., at 143, Mar. 14, 1794; d. there, June 3, 1795; 3. *Joel*³ (2d of name), 4, b. in S., at 143,

Mr. Locke does not appear to have been a legal resident of Sullivan, being a non-resident owner of the tannery plant. Usually, he went up from Keene to his business at East Sullivan each morning, returning to Keene at night. He was, however, in the town at intervals, with portions of his family, and boarded with the tenants living at 36. We, therefore, give only an abridged account of his family. MACK.

I. FAMILY OF BEZALEEL MACK.

1. His father was a large land owner in Gilsum and in that part of S. which was taken from Gilsum. Bezaleel bought land of his father, owning at different periods the Gibbs farm, at 206, also the A. B. Brown place (where Mr. Wheeler lives), the house then being at 204. He lived at 204 from 1785 to 1791, and perhaps for short periods afterwards. II. FAMILY OF ABNER MACK, JR.

1. ABNER² MACK, JR., son of Abner¹ and Phebe (Lord) Mack, was a brother of Bezaleel², of the preceding section. He also owned the Gibbs farm (206), as well as the Brown farm (204), for short periods, between 1790 and 1800. He was not married then, and when in town boarded in different families. On Sept. 20, 1803, he m. Sibyl Chapman of S., b. in Gilsum, Jan. 27, 1768; dau. of John and Sibyl (Dimmick) Chapman. They were married by Roswell Hubbard, Esq., in S. MACKENTIRE.

1. ELIAS¹ MACKENTIRE, of whom we know nothing respecting his parentage, birth, or death, m. in Keene, by Rev. A. Hall, Dec. 31, 1786, Miriam Rice, b. in Westmoreland (now Surry), Feb. 26, 1769; d. in Gilsum, July 27, 1850; dau. of Charles and Miriam (Clark) Rice. She m. a Smith for her second husband. At the Sullivan March meeting in 1789, a committee was appointed to act for Sullivan in a suit brought by Gilsum for the support of Miriam Mackentire and her daughter "Susannah." This was her eldest child. It is likely that her husband was a vagrant character, as he is not mentioned in this case. She had probably been living at her father's house, which was at 200. It was that same year that her father, Charles Rice, sold this Sullivan farm. According to Hayward's History of Gilsum, her ch. were four : 1. *Susan*², (doubtless the Susannah of the records, hence her first child), of whom we know no more. Susan, or Susannah, was perhaps b. in Gilsum, but possibly in S., and, it may be, out of wedlock. 2. *Electa*², 2, b. in Gilsum, Mar. 29, 1789. 3. *Sarah*² (or Sallie), who m., Oct. 10, 1830, Michael Murphy, a native of Ireland. She d. in Alstead. She had three ch.: Betsey³, Mary³, and James³. 4. *Eli*², who d. unmarried. Miriam's children were probably all b. in Gilsum, with a possibility that the first was b. in S., at 200.

2. ELECTA² MACKENTIRE, dau. of Elias¹, 1, d. in Gilsum, Feb. 22, 1872. She m., Jan. 1, 1805, Zenas Bingham, b. in Gilsum, Jan. 23, 1780; d. there, Jan. 1, 1857; son of John and Sibyl (Wright) Bingham. He was a farmer who lived in Gilsum, a few rods east of the highway on the summit of the Bingham Hill, on the road from Keene to Gilsum. They had eleven ch., whose records will not be elaborated in detail, as they had so slight a connection with Sullivan. The ch., all b. in Gilsum, were :

1. *Lucina*³, b., Oct. 20, 1805; m. Nathan Ellis, Jr., q. v.
2. *Franklin*³, b., Aug. 31, 1807; d., Sept. 24, 1809.

[MAC KENZIE] Mc KENZIE [Mc KINSEY.]

WILLIAM¹ McKENZIE, whose name is spelled MAC KENZIE, McKINZEY, and McKINSEY, lived for thirteen years, 1790 to 1803, upon the farm at 186, which was the east end of the later Hemenway or Wm. H. Bates farm. His wife was Mary (or "Molly"). The births of two of their ch. were recorded in S. Perhaps they had others that were older. Possibly younger ones were not recorded. These two were the following: 1. *Polly*², b. in S., at 186, Feb. 27, 1792; 2. *George Leonard*², b. in S., at 186, Feb. 28, 1795. The McKinzeys went from S. to Elizabethtown, Lincoln Co., N. Y. We have no further record of them. We know nothing of the birth, death, or parentage of either Mr. or Mrs. McKinzey.

(MAC LEOD) McLEOD.

1. THOMAS¹ McLEOD, of whose birth, parentage, and death we know nothing, m., May 29, 1796, in Lancaster, Mass., by Rev. Nathaniel Thayer, Alice Wilder, b. in Lancaster, Apr. 8 (bapt. Apr. 10), 1774; dau. of Samuel and Martha (Rugg) Wilder. She was a relative of Elijah Rugg (grandfather of Hon. E. W. Rugg). On Sept. 6, 1798, Mr. McLeod bought of Elijah Rugg the place whose house then stood at 127 (there were two later ones on the place) known as the Pompey Woodward place. He mortgaged it, Apr. 1, 1806, to Ebenezer Kendall, another relative of Mrs. McLeod, and did not redeem the mortgage. Mr. Kendall sold it, July 7, 1807 to Pompey Woodward, a negro. The McLeods remained, however, about two or more years longer, probably on this place. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod joined the First Cong. Ch. of S., Jan. 18, 1801, by letter from the First Ch. of Lancaster. He was a cooper as well as farmer. We do not know where the McLeods went from S., nor when nor where they died. Records furnish the names of six ch.: 1. *David*², b. in Lancaster, Mass., Sept. 21, 1796. 2. *Martha Wilder*² (called "Patty"), bapt. in Lancaster (with the preceding), Oct. 14, 1798, probably b. the same year. 3. *Susannah*², b. in S., probably in 1799 or 1800; bapt. V. BELA MASON FAMILY.

The ancestral line of this family is the same as that in the FAMILY OF SAMUEL MASON, the first of the Mason groups, through the first four generations: I. HUGH¹; II. JOSEPH²; III. JOSEPH³, JR.; IV. BENJAMIN⁴. For further particulars respecting these ancestors, see pages 1109-1110.

1. BELA⁵ MASON, fifth generation in the line of descent, son of Benjamin⁴, IV. and Martha (Fairbanks) Mason, was b. on the old Dublin homestead (now in Harrisville) where the late Solon Willard lived, Oct. 4, 1764. Bela continued to live upon this homestead until the spring of 1810, when he bought the Samuel Mason place in S., at 4, to which he moved at once. He lived upon the site of 4 until about two years after his purchase, when he moved the house that stood there to the site of 6. While the old house stood at 6, his mother died in it (see page 1110). The new house at 6 was built by Rufus Mason in 1836, and Bela Mason d. in it, Jan. 6, 1841. He was a prosperous farmer. He m., May 12, 1785, Sarah Norcross, b. in Dublin, June 10, 1768; d. in S., at 6, Mar. 12, 1846; dau. of Asa and Elizabeth Norcross. There were eight ch., all b. on the old homestead in Dublin (now Harrisville): 1. Betsey⁶, 2, b., Mar. 1, 1786; 2. Rufus⁶, 3, b., May 16, 1788; 3. James⁶, 4, b. Apr. 27, 1793; 4. Jesse⁶, 5, b., Mar. 30, 1795; 5. Jerusha⁶, b., Aug. 7, 1797; m. Curtis Spaulding, q. v.; 6. Elijah⁶, 6, b., Apr. 14, 1799; 7. Sibyl Norcross⁶, b., Aug. 25, 1803; m. Ephraim Foster, q. v.; 8. Sarah⁶ (called Sallie), date of birth not found; d. in S., at 4, May 18, 1810 (possibly the funeral date).

2. BETSEY⁶ MASON, dau. of Bela⁵, 1, d. in Keene, Aug. 1, 1857. She m. 1st, Dec. 26, 1807 (according to the private record of Rev. She m. 2d, Jan. 27, 1823, Thomas Thompson of Keene, b. in Marlborough, Apr. 6, 1785; d. in Keene, June 4, 1857; son of Thomas and Sarah (Scott) Thompson. The date of her marriage to Mr. Thompson here given is that upon the Sullivan church records and is probably right. Jan. 31 in the first Dublin history, and Feb. 27, in the Sullivan town records are both wrong. She had five ch.: 1. Oman Hoar⁷, b. in Dublin, Jan. 24, 1809; d. in Winchendon, Mass. He m. 3. RUFUS⁶ MASON, son of Bela⁵, 1, d., while on a visit to his children in Winchendon, Mass., Dec. 4, 1873. He purchased the farm of his father, giving the latter the customary bond for maintenance, in 1814, and then built a house for himself on the site of 5. All of his ch. were born there. In 1836, the old house which stood at 6 (the one which still earlier had stood at 4) was moved across the road and became a carriage house, and Rufus built the fine mansion which now stands at 6, the house which had stood at 5 becoming an ell of it for many years. Here his father and mother died, and here he passed the remainder of his life. He was a prominent citizen and a prosperous farmer. See page 631, paragraph 6. He m., Jan. 1, 1817, Myretta Osgood, b. in S., Mar. 22, 1796; place and date of death not determined; dau. of Ezra and Susanah (White) Osgood. We have found this Osgood book so faulty in many families that we cannot trust its statements with great confidence. Mr. Mason had three ch., all of whom were supposedly b. in Ontario, N. Y. They were: 1. *Ormond Osgood*⁷, b., Oct. 6, 1817; 2. *Emily Elvira*⁷, b., Sept. 24, 1822. 3. *James Orlo*⁷, b., Dec. 20, 1823.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson had two ch.: 1. *Myretta Thompson*⁷, b., Nov. 29, 1829; and *Sylvester Thompson*⁷, b., Jan. 29, 1836. We have been unable to carry the record of this particular family any further.

We regret that we cannot give a more complete account of this family, but we were unable to get in touch with anyone who could furnish the information.

10. RUFUS OSCOOD⁷ MASON, A. M., M. D., son of Rufus⁶, 3, fitted for college at Thetford Academy in Vermont, and graduated at Dartmouth College, A. B., 1854; A. M., same college. After graduation, he entered the Union Theological Seminary. Just at this time, the careful, scientific study of theological questions, which characterizes the schools of the present time, was beginning to receive attention. Being well educated and of a scholarly, critical habit of mind, he examined very painstakingly the theological problems which were brought to his attention, and he found that he was not in sympathy with the ancient tenets of Calvinism, in those days, so generally accepted. He accordingly abandoned the preparation for the ministry. He lived, however, to witness a complete and thorough reaction from those old-time tenets in the Union Theological Seminary, and his course in life might have been quite different had the modern methods of instruction in that same institution prevailed in his day. As it was, while the ministry lost a bright light, the science of medicine gained one. He graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, a department now of Columbia University, in 1859. He became one of the leading surgeons and physicians of the metropolis. He was an acting assistant surgeon of the U. S. Navy, 1861-63, in the dark days of the Civil War. Between his leaving the Union Seminary and his entering the medical profession, he taught in a public school in Cleveland, Ohio, having as a pupil Wm. Rockefeller, "then a little barefoot boy." Dr. Mason was deeply interested in metaphysical speculations and published several books upon the subject, as well as many magazine and newspaper articles. Among his publications may be noted: "Telepathy and the Subliminal Self;" "Hypnotism and Suggestion in Therapeutics, Education and Reform;" which publications "represent his work in bringing the facts of psychic research, and the beneficent possibilities of hypnotism, sanely before the popular mind. In this field, he was a pioneer, a sincere worker, and an enthusiastic, yet critical, student. Some of his experiments antedate those of the famous French scientist, Charcot." His experiments also preceded those of Bernheim. Other of his publications were: "Double Personality in relation to Hypnotism," "Alternating Personalities—Their Origin and Medico-legal Aspect," "Evolution and the After Life," "The New Therapeutics," and papers on "Double Personality," "Lucidity," and "Genius." For another biographical notice of Dr. Mason, see page 600. These additional facts have come to our notice since that sketch was prepared. Dr. Mason d. in the city of New York, May 11, 1903. VI. THE ASA MASON FAMILY.

The ancestral line of this family is the same as that of the family of Sam-uel⁶, Nathaniel⁶, and Joseph⁶ Mason, through the first four generations, namely I. HUGH¹, II. JOSEPH², III. JOSEPH³, JR., IV. BENJAMIN⁴, for a more detailed account of which, see FAMILY OF SAMUEL MASON, page 1109. V. BENJAMIN⁵ MASON, JR., son of Benjamin and Martha (Fairbanks) Mason, was b. in Sherborn, Mass., May 28, 1760; d. in Dublin, May 16, 1840, on the place, and near the house, now owned by Mr. Catlin. He m., Jan. 27, 1783, Phebe Norcross, b. in Dublin, June 30, 1764; d. in Sullivan, at the house of Jeremiah Mason, at 51, July 1, 1841; dau. of Asa and Elizabeth Norcross. Mrs. Mason was a sister of the wife of Bela Mason, the head of the fifth group of Masons. Their ch. were: *Abigail*⁶, m. Isaac Rider, q. v.; *Asa*⁶, 1; *Achsah*⁶, m. Samuel Leland of Holliston, Mass.; *Jeremiah*⁶, see FAMILY OF JEREMIAH MASON; *Phebe*⁶, m. Daniel Graves of Leverett, Mass.; *Benjamin*⁶, of Orwell, N. Y.; *Selhy*⁶, m. Joseph Muzzy; *Cyrus*⁶ of Dublin, who settled on the homestead (on which place is now the summer residence of Mr. Catlin); *David*⁶; *Julia*⁶, m. Eleazar Boardman; a dau.⁶, d. young; *Maria*⁶, m. 1st Artemas Piper, m. 2d Samuel Allison; and *Sarah Elmina*⁶, m. Calvin Newton.

1. ASA⁶ MASON, son of Benjamin⁵, Jr., and Phebe (Norcross) Mason, was b. in Dublin, Jan. 3, 1785; the date and place of his death being unknown, although he probably died at Leroy, N. Y. He m., Apr. 10, 1811, in Pottersville, by the Rev. Elijah Willard, to Betsey Rider of Sullivan, b. in Natick, Mass., Sept. 25, 1791; d. probably at Leroy, N. Y., but date unknown; dau. of Thomas and Anne (Haven) Rider. They lived a short time, about 1814-16, in S., at or near the site of 51, probably in a rude house afterwards removed. Leonard's History of Dublin names six ch.: 1. *Avaline*⁷, 2. *Betsey*⁷, 3. *Sarah*⁷ (Sally), 4. *Achsah*⁷, 5. *Asa*⁷, 6. *Cyrus*⁷. The dates of their births are not given, nor the places. It is possible that the eldest two (and possibly three) were b. in S., at 51. The others were doubtless b. at Leroy, N. Y. The late Mrs. Amos Wardwell spoke to us of this family, and we think she said that the eldest, Avaline, died here at 51, but the Sullivan records are silent about it. We regret that we cannot learn anything more definite about this family. Correspondence has been of no avail.

VII. THE JEREMIAH MASON FAMILY.

He was a good farmer and substantial citizen of the town. He m., Feb. 6, 1815, in Holliston, Mass., probably by Rev. Josephus Wheaton, to Sarah (Sally) Fisk, b. in Holliston, Sept. 2, 1794; d. in S., at 51, Nov. 27, 1870; dau. of Levi and Jemima (Underwood) Fiske. He moved to Sullivan, Apr. 14, 1816, and ever afterwards lived at 51. MATTHEWS.

I. JAMES¹ MATTHEWS belonged to a Scotch Presbyterian family. It is probable that the original name was Matthew. A superfluous "s" was often added to surnames by our ancestors. They came to Hancock eventually to live with their son, Robert, and died there, about the close of the eighteenth century. III. MAYO.

1. REV. JOHN¹ MAYO, came to America, probably, in 1638; was ordained colleague with Rev. John Lathrop at Barnstable, Mass., Apr. 15, 1640; rem. to Eastham, 1646; thence to Boston, where he was installed minister of the Old North Church, Nov. 9, 1655. He d. at Yarmouth, Mass., May 1676. His widow, Thomasine, d., Feb. 26, 1682. II. JOHN² MAYO, b. in England, a son of Rev. John¹; m., Jan. 1, 1651, Hannah Keycraft. He d. in Eastham, Mass., about 1706. III. JOHN³ MAYO, a son of John², was b. at Eastham, Dec. 15, 1652; m., Apr. 14, 1681, Hannah Freeman. He res. in Hingham, Mass., until 1700, when he removed to Harwich (Brewster), where he d., Feb. 1, 1726. IV. JOSEPH⁴ MAYO, a son of the preceding John³, was b. in Hingham, Dec. 22, 1696, d. at Harwich (Brewster), 1772; m., Feb. 20, 1717½, Abigail Merrick. V. MOSES⁵ MAYO, son of Joseph⁴, b. in Harwich (Brewster), Feb. 1, 1720¼, lived there till he was aged, then moved to Hardwick, Mass., where he d., March 7, 1812. He m., March 10, 1743½, Phebe Freeman.

1. BENJAMIN⁶ MAYO, undoubtedly a son of Moses⁵ and Phebe (Freeman) Mayo, was baptized at Harwich (Brewster), Aug. 28, 1768, and went to Hardwick, Mass., with, or before, his father. We have not learned the place and date of his death. He went from Princeton, Mass., to Marlborough, N. H., in 1794. He moved from Marlborough to S., and owned and lived upon the old farm at 257, afterwards occupied by D. B. Brooks, from 1806 to 1808. He m., March 31, 1793, Sarah (Sallie) Gleason, b. in Princeton, Mass., Feb. 5, 1772; d., place unknown, July 16, 1853; dau. of Thomas and Sarah (Stratton) Gleason of Princeton. She was a sister of Mrs. Amasa Brown, Sr., who lived on the old Bayley place at 258½, also at 259 and, later, at 258. They had three ch., b. in Marlborough: 1. *Sarah*⁷ (Sally), b., Feb. 20, 1794; 2. *Hannah*⁷, b., July 2, 1796; 3. *Benjamin*⁷, Jr., b., Sept. 28, 1798. We do not know the later history of any of these. A child of Mr. Mayo d. in S., in 1806 (possibly on May 12, the church register is a little indefinite), but this imperfect record leaves us in doubt whether one of these three is intended, or whether there was another whose name and birth we do not know. Mr. Mayo moved to S. in 1806. He had previously lived in Marlborough after his marriage. The Marlborough records give only these three ch. We, therefore, conclude that the child which died was one of these, and the youngest, Benjamin, Jr., would most likely be the one whose age would call for the designation, "child."

METCALF.

I. FAMILY OF EZRA METCALF.

1. EZRA¹ METCALF, who had been living for some years in Keene and other places, bought, in 1781, the farm where James W. Osgood lived until after the middle of the nineteenth century. Mr. Osgood's house was at 167, but Mr. Metcalf's house was probably some rods west of this site, which was placed on a piece of land added by the Osgoods to the east side of the farm. Mr. Metcalf owned the original farm until 1789. We know from deeds that he had buildings upon the place, and that he was living in them in 1788, but was living in Keene when he sold the farm in 1789. At other times, he owned other land in Sullivan, upon which he never lived apparently. He probably came from Topsfield, Mass., or descended from Metcalfs who came from that town. He m., Sept. 1, 1638, Hannah Phillips, who, after his death, m. Thomas Boyden, and d., Oct. 3, 1676. III. JOSEPH³ MORSE, JR., known as Capt. and Hon. Joseph³ Morse, b. in Dedham (now Medfield) Mass., Sept. 26, 1649; d. in Sherborn, Mass., Feb. 19, 1717½. He m. 1st, Mehetabel Wood; 2d, Apr. 11, 1683, Hannah Badcock, b., Feb. 8, 1664; d. in Sherborn, Nov. 9, 1711; dau. of Robert Badcock of Milton, Mass. He m. 3d, the widow, Hannah Dyer. IV. JAMES⁴ MORSE, son of Joseph³ and Hannah (Badcock) Morse, b. in Sherborn, July 1, 1686; d. there, June 5, 1725; m., Jan. 5, 1708, Ruth Sawin, who d., Jan. 12, 1774. V. THOMAS^b MORSE, son of James, b. in Sherborn, Dec. 5, 1709; d. in Dublin, N. H., Jan. 7, 1783; m. Mary Treadway of Framingham, b., May 16, 1718; d. in Dublin, N. H., Dec. 25, 1776. Thomas^b Morse was the first permanent English settler of Dublin, which settlement was made on the sixteenth lot of the fifth range in that town, where his grandson, Dea. Jesse Morse lived many years, in a large, square, two-story house, at the head of the road which leads (from the road to Marlborough, via Stone Pond) to Mt. Monadnock and Troy. Two of his children and a grandson settled in Sullivan. The grandson was Reuben⁷ Morse, Jr. (See FAMILY OF REUBEN MORSE). The two children who settled in town were Thomas⁶ and Abigail⁶. The latter was the wife of Daniel Wilson, q. v., who was the great-grandfather of the writer of this history.

1. THOMAS⁶ MORSE, JR., son of Thomas⁵ and Mary (Treadway) Morse, was b. in Sherborn, Mass., May 21, 1748. He was one of the earliest settlers of Sullivan. He purchased his farm, Apr. 5, 1777. As he is then called of "Gilsum" (in which town that part of Sullivan then was), we conclude that he had already settled upon the place before the purchase, probably in the fall of 1776. The house stood at 74. Hinds Reed afterwards lived here, and some of the earliest town meetings of Sullivan were held in this house. Mr. Morse lived here about eight years, and sold the place, in 1785, to Josiah Willard of Keene. A little later, he purchased the place in S., at 65, to the west of the White houses, on the old road. Here he lived a few years, and sold the place in 1790 to James Rowe, although he is supposed to have lived upon it a year or two longer. He had formerly lived in Keene. He went to Canada and d. there, the date unknown. He m., Jan. 20, 1773, Martha (or Patty) Rowe (or Row). She is supposed to have been b. in Hebron, Conn., and was the dau. of John, Sr., and Mary Rowe of Gilsum. She probably d. in Canada. They had four ch.: 1. *Thomas*⁷, b. in Keene, Jan. 8, 1774; 2. *Martha*⁷, b., Feb. 12, 1777, probably at 74; she d. in S., probably at 65, Nov. 11, 1792. 3. *Olive*⁷, b. in S., at 74, Mar. 21, 1781. 4. *Josiah*⁷, b. in S., at 74 probably, Jan. 23, 1787. We know nothing of the history of these children.

P., to Hephzibah Haven, b. in Natick, May 12, 1774; d. in Natick, date of death not ascertained; dau. of David and Abigail (Prentiss) Haven. She was a sister of Mrs. Jeremiah Leland and of Mrs. John Mason, Sr., both of whom lived, at one time, on farms near that which Mr. Morse purchased in S. This farm was the one where Addison N. Wilder now lives, at 23. Mr. Morse purchased this farm in 1799, and sold it to Oliver Wilder of Jaffrey, in 1804. Mr. Morse had previously lived in Natick, Mass., and returned to that place and spent the remainder of his days there. Mrs. Rider, who lived on the site of the house of Hon. D. W. Rugg, was another sister of Mrs. Morse. Mr. Morse lived once more in S., for a time previous to 1808, on the old Rowe farm, at 70. He had two ch.: 1. *Melvin*⁷, b. in Natick, Mass., Apr. 19, 1793; of whom we know no more; 2. *Jesse*⁷, 2, b. in Natick, Aug. 16, 1796. 2. JESSE⁷ MORSE, Jr., son of Jesse⁶, 1, m. in Natick, Mass., Sept. 10, 1818, by Rev. Martin Moore, to Betsey Coolidge, b. in Natick, Mar. 8, 1794; place and date of death unknown; dau. of John, Jr., and Eunice (Eames) Coolidge. He is said to have lived a short time, when first married, upon the old Rowe farm, at 70. It could have been but a short time, for his children were all b. in Natick, where he d., Mar. 18, 1833. He had seven ch.: 1. *Edwin Coolidge*⁸, b., Mar. 21, 1819; 2. *Mary*⁸, b., Apr. 23, 1820; 3. *Susan*⁸, b., Dec. 19, 1822; 4. *Eunice Eames*⁸, b., Aug. 12, 1825; 5. *Melvin A.*⁸, b., Feb. 12, 1828; 6. *Nellie Maria*⁸, b., June 7, 1830; 7. *Newton*⁸, b., Aug. 16, 1832. These dates, taken from the Natick records, undoubtedly correct the dates given in the published Morse genealogy, which is often found to be inaccurate.

NAROMORE.

CLARKE NAROMORE appears to have been receiving aid from the town of Sullivan in 1844. Martin Rugg was paid for taking care of him, and Dr. J. A. Crowley was paid for medical attentions. We do not know who he was nor whence he came. There were many of that name in Winchester, and branches of the Winchester stock were found in Swanzey and Richmond. He was probably of that stock of Naromores, the name being sometimes spelled Naramore. His death is not recorded in either the town or church records of Sullivan. He probably did not die when he was sick at Mr. Rugg's. He owned no land in town, was probably unmarried at the time, simply employed in the place temporarily, and not a legal resident.

NASH.

I. FAMILY OF ABRAHAM, SR., AND JAMES NASH.

I. JAMES¹ NASH was an early settler of Weymouth, Mass., and was made a freeman in 1645. II. FRANCIS² NASH of Braintree, most probably a son of James¹ of Weymouth, was the ancestor of all the Nashes of Sullivan and Gilsum. He was prominent in a military company as early as December 1675. He appears to have been married twice. By his former w., Elizabeth, he had a son whose name is not given in the records of Braintree; also Elizabeth, Thomas, and Margaret. By his second w., Mary, he had two sons whose names are recorded in Braintree, Benjamin, b., June 25, 1700, and James, b., Oct. 6, 1703. Francis Nash d. in Braintree, Aug. 3, 1713. Mary, his widow, d. there, Apr. 16, 1735, ae. ab. 75. III. BENJAMIN³ NASH, son of Francis² and Mary, was b. in Braintree, Mass., June 25, 1700, O. S. He d. there before 1755. His widow, Ann, m., Nov. 15, 1755, Samuel Briggs of Taunton, Mass., and moved thither with her young ch. Benjamin and Ann Nash had six ch., whose births are recorded in Braintree. They were Sarah, Benjamin, Daniel, Abraham, Hannah, and Rachel.

1. ABRAHAM⁴ NASH, SR., son of Benjamin³ and Ann (Smith) Nash, was b. in Braintree, Mass., May 16, 1740 (ac. to Braintree records, which are perhaps more nearly right than a family record, which gives the date, May 29, 1740). He d. in Shutesbury, Mass., May 25, 1791. He m. Lydia Smith of Taunton, Mass. She was b. there, Sept. 7, 1740, and d. in Gilsum, Feb. 6, 1830, at the house of her grandson, Cyrus Bliss, which was in the woods to the southeast of the John Davis house, in the east part of the town. After the death of Mr. Nash, Mrs. Lydia Nash came to S., in 1794, and bought what was later the Eaton farm, and erected her first cabin at 211. Later, a larger house was erected at 211½, which accommodated for a time the family of James⁵ Nash. About 1803, shortly after the death of her crippled son, Levi Nash, Mrs. Lydia Nash went to Eaton, N. Y., and lived a few years with her son, Asa Nash, who had formerly lived in S., at 212. On returning to New Hampshire, she spent some time with her children in Gilsum, and, in 1816, went to live with her grandson, Cyrus Bliss, where she died, as stated. Abraham, Sr., and Lydia had seven ch., b. in Taunton, Mass., except the last, who is said to have been b. in Belchertown, Mass. See the Bliss family, page 856. 5. Levi^b, b. about 1772; d. in S., at 211½, Dec. 3, 1802, about 30 years of age. William Bradford of Plymouth. She was murdered by Daniel H. Corey, who struck her with his gun, in a fit of insanity, and split her head open, a few feet from his house at 190. See page 360. James Nash had lived, after his marriage, in Stoughton and Taunton in Massachusetts, and Winchester, N. H. He came to S., with his mother, in 1794, and, with her, built the house that stood at 211½. He moved to his farm in the east part of Gilsum in 1797, where he lived the rest of his life. He was granted land for hazarding his life in promoting the settlement. He was the scribe of the original proprietors of Upper Ashuelot, chosen, July 25, 1737. At the first town meeting after the incorporation of Keene held on May 2, 1753, he was chosen the first town clerk and the first town treasurer of Keene. He held some office about every year until 1776. A quaint portrait of him, as he looked upon the street, was made by Jeremiah Stiles, and now hangs in the City Hall.  q. v. DAVID⁴ NIMS lived in Keene, on what was afterwards the Lucian B. Page place, on Washington St. The old house, one of the oldest two in town, has been moved to another site, to make room for a modern mansion, built by Henry Martin. In the following record of the Nims family, we have traced the genealogy of those branches which were connected with Sullivan. This includes practically all who have borne the name of NIMS. We omitted details of the Cook and Lawrence families, for they never lived in Sullivan. We have also omitted extended details of a few of the female lines which were not connected with our history. We wish here to acknowledge our indebtedness to the late Brigham⁷ Nims of Roxbury, for the loan of his valuable manuscript record of the Nims family. It was a wonderfully fine work for a man of his years. We have nearly doubled the number of facts collected by him. In a few cases, we have corrected his dates, where he evidently received incorrect data from those with whom he corresponded. We are also indebted to his son and daughter

 (Mr. David B.⁸ and Miss Madella S.⁸ Nims), for much additional information.

1. DAVID NIMS⁴, JR., son of David³, III., d. in Roxbury, Aug. 30, 1826.

 dau. of Samuel and Jemima (Houghton) Carter. A brother of Jemima was married on the same day. It was a double wedding. He lived in Roxbury on an estate of 104 acres which had been granted to his father for promoting the settlement of Keene. It was in Keene until the incorporation of Roxbury. His ten ch. were all b. on this place, while it was still in Keene: 1. *David*⁵, 3d of name in lineal succession, b., Jan. 16, 1769, 6; 2. *Abigail*⁵, b., June 28, 1771;

2. ASAH⁴EL NIMS, son of David³, III., had purchased a piece of land in Sullivan, which was afterwards the farm of Zadok Nims, later of Dauphin W.
 Nims, and now of Charles A. Brooks. He was clearing his land and was living in a log cabin, with his brother Eliakim, at 149. His own land was that on which the houses at 152 and 153 stood. He enlisted in Capt. Wyman's company, in the place of a cowardly fellow who wished at the last moment to remain at home. Asahel⁴ was killed at the battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1775, and his body was buried on the field of battle. He was unm., but was soon to have been m.

3. CAPT. ELIAKIM⁴ NIMS, son of David³, III., was a farmer. He lived in S., at 149, where he d., Mar. 12, 1846, in his 95th year, the oldest person in town, and the last Revolutionary pensioner in town of the surviving soldiers. He was with his brother Asahel⁴, at Bunker Hill. He was a captain in the old militia company. He was a natural poet of the type of the balladist. On pages 578 to 580 of this work, we have given a fuller account of his efforts in this line. See those pages. He m., Feb. 19, 1778, in Keene, by Rev. He had no ch., but Asahel⁵ Nims, 9, son of his brother, David⁴, Jr., 1, lived in his family, and was to have inherited the estate, but as Asahel⁵ died before Eliakim⁴, it passed to Asahel⁶, Jr., 30.

4. DEA. ZADOK⁴ NIMS (according to the true Biblical spelling, but Zadoc Nims, as he wrote it), son of David³, III., was a farmer living in S., at 152, in a large two-story house which formerly stood there. It was the farm which his brother Asahel⁴, who was killed at Bunker Hill, had purchased. After the latter's death, it passed by inheritance to his father, David³, of whom Zadok⁴ purchased it. The present owner, C. A. Brooks, married a descendant of Zadok⁴, and the farm has always been in the family. Zadok⁴ d. at 152, Jan. 31, 1842, nearly 88 years of age. He was, for 44 years, a deacon of the First Congregational Church of S., being one of the first two who were regularly chosen, in 1798. Two others had "distributed bread and wine" for the preceding six years, but were not regularly set apart as deacons. We have been unable to find the place and date of Zadok's⁴ marriage. His wife was Elizabeth (usually called Betsey) Brown of Leominster, Mass., where she was b., Oct. 17, 1754. She d. in S., at 152, Dec. 7, 1822. She was the daughter of Aaron and Rachel (Reed) Brown, and was a twin sister of Silas Brown, q. v. Zadok⁴ had nine ch. The first two were b. in Keene village; the rest were born on the old S. homestead. The children, from the third child to the sixth child, were born in a log house that stood near 152. The last three were born in the house that stood there until 1857, when the house at 153 was built. The nine ch. were: 1. *Calvin*⁵, b., May 4, 1776, 13; 2. *Frederick*⁵, b. ab. 1778, exact date not found; was unm.; was in War of 1812; went to the West, and nothing was again heard from him; 3. *Betsy*⁵, b. ab. 1780, exact date not discovered; d., March 19, 1781; 4. *Philander*⁵, b., Sept. 23, 1782, 14; 5. *Betsy*⁵ (2d of name), b., Aug. 27, 1786; m. He had six ch.: 1. *George*⁵, b. in Keene, Nov. 14, 1790; d. there, Oct. 8, 1796. In Hale's Annals of Keene, at page 80, we learn that Master George Nims, who d. at nearly six years of age, had an extraordinary memory, so that he could retain considerable portions of long discourses. 2. *Abigail*⁵, b. in Keene, Apr. 14, 1793; d. there, Aug. 9, 1794. 3. *Eliakim*⁵, b. in Keene, May 28, 1795; d. there, Sept. 5, 1796.

He was, for many years, the city collector in Keene. He is a man of the strictest integrity. In his official position, he had abundant opportunity to know not only the difficulty of tax collection, but the severity of its exaction upon many poor persons, not a few of whom will gratefully remember his kindness of heart in doing what he honorably could to alleviate their hardships. Mr. Nims was a valued citizen of his town, held most of its important offices, and was widely known and respected. He took a great interest in the history of his family, of which he compiled a genealogical record, through the line of David Nims, Sr., of Keene, from Godfrey Nims, the first of the family in America. His record contained the names and dates down to his own time, and it has been of inestimable service to the writer of this history, who desires, here, to acknowledge, again, his indebtedness to the kindness of Mr. Nims for the loan of the manuscript. NORRIS.

REV. WILLIAM NORRIS, then a licentiate preacher and student, supplied the Baptist Church of Sullivan, at such times as they could procure preaching, through their official year, which extended from March 3, 1834, to March 2, 1835. This was several years before his marriage. He was entertained by different families during his supplies and was never a legal resident of Sullivan. We shall not, therefore, enter upon any detailed genealogy of his family, as the plan of this work calls for such a thing only in the case of legal residents. Mr. Norris was born in Stratham, Dec. 31, 1807; son of Benjamin and Mercy (Clark) Norris. His preparatory studies were at New Hampton. He was several years a teacher. He was ordained at Newton, N. H., in 1835, and remained there until 1837. His health then failed and he taught for a time. He preached at Ashfield, Mass., 1842-6; Northwood, N. H., 1846-9; 2d Baptist Ch., Sanbornton, 1851-2, where he d., June 1, 1852. He m. July 27, 1842, Eliza Davis, dau. of Bailey and Hannah (Swan) Davis of Methuen, Mass. NORTON.

1. REV. THOMAS SNELL² NORTON was born in New Braintree, Mass., Nov. 25, 1813, the son of Allen¹ and Mehetabel (Snell) Norton. He grad. at Amherst, A. B., 1840; began preaching in Sullivan, Sept. 1, 1844; was ordained over the First Cong. Church of Sullivan, Feb. 4, 1846; and was dismissed, at his own request, March 10, 1859, having had the longest ministry in Sullivan of any person, except Rev. Mr. Muzzy, the first pastor of that church. He was subsequently settled in Dover, Mass., where he d. March 14, 1891. He was a most excellent man and was greatly endeared to the people of Sullivan, whom he served, not only in the pulpit, but, for many years, as the superintendent of schools. He was much interested in the cause of temperance and anti-tobacco, and in every good work and measure of reform, which would aid the moral character of the place. His influence was of the best. In a small town, there is always a greater or less difficulty in raising a salary. The burden usually falls upon a few, often upon those who are less able to bear it. Many good ministers are lost to parishes because of the difficulty, not to say carelessness and negligence, in the matter of raising a salary. Mr. Norton did not preach in Dover during the whole of the time that he lived there. He supplied the Sullivan pulpit a second time, from Nov. 5, 1882, until April 1, 1883. He m. 1st, at Conway, Mass., by Rev. OLCOTT.

1. BENJAMIN¹ OLCOTT was one of the earliest settlers of what we now call Sullivan. He came to that part of the town which was then in Gilsum, about 1768, and settled at 68, where he lived until 1772. He was probably the second settler of the place. Stephen Griswold, Sr., who settled upon the lot which he drew, at 102, as an original proprietor, was the first actual settler who had "drawn" land in the place, and had probably settled his lot before Olcott arrived. The latter's house at 68 was where the first Rowe house stood and is now on the town farm. Olcott's wife gave birth to a still-born daughter while living on this place. The child was probably the next after Benjamin named below. James Comstock, whom the writer in his boyhood knew, and who was a relative of the Olcotts, informed the writer that this still-born daughter of the Olcotts was the first birth on what is now Sullivan soil. Mr. Comstock also said that he was the first male child, and the first living child, born in the place. He was the first male child born in town, so far as we know. The Olcotts had a daughter named Mary, afterwards Mrs. Jonathan Lamson, who was born, according to Reed's History of Swanzey, page 389, on June 15, 1771, while Mr. Comstock was born, April 10, 1773. Mary Olcott was certainly born (if Reed's history be correct) while her parents were living in Sullivan, at 68. As there was probably not more than one other family in the settlement, and the cabin of the Olcotts in the wilderness would be an unsuitable place for the birth of a child, it is not improbable that Mrs. Olcott went to Keene, or some other town, for its birth. If that were so, it would make good the statement of Mr. Comstock. Mr. Olcott came from East Haddam, Conn., where he was probably born. He was b. in 1732 (or 1731), for he d. in Swanzey, Sept. 26, 1813, ae. 81 years. His wife was Naomi Comstock, understood to be a sister of Wm. Comstock, Sr., of Sullivan. If so, she was b. at Lyme, Conn., and was the dau. of Wm. Comstock, Jr., of that town, who was the father of the Wm. Comstock, Sr., of Sullivan. Mrs. Olcott was b. in 1739, and d. in Swanzey, Dec. 21, 1831, ae. 92 years. Omitting the still-born dau., mentioned above, they had ten ch.: 1. Lucy², b. at East Haddam, Conn., Feb. 26, 1764, 2;

4. BENJAMIN² OLCOTT, Jr., son of Benjamin¹, 1, d. in Chesterfield, April 18, 1812, in his 46th year. He m., May 29, 1788, Mary Pemberton, b. ab. 1766; d., Oct. 15, 1859; dau. of Leonard Pemberton. Her second hus. was Bela Prouty. The farm of Benjamin Olcott, Jr., was in Chesterfield. We find from the probate records that Benjamin Jr², and Mary Olcott had the following ch., although we do not know the order of their births: 1. *Mary*⁸, who m. Cyrus Breed of Keene, and had at least one ch., Mary⁴ Breed, b. in Keene, March 5, 1816; 2. *William*⁸, who d. in Keene, Feb. 3, 1876, ae. 75 yrs., 10 mos., and 28 days; 3. *Benjamin*⁸, who had a ch. die in Keene, Nov. 12, 1835, ae. 5 weeks; also twin daus., one of whom d. in Keene, Nov. 10, 1843, and the other, Nov. 15, 1843; 4. *Rachel*⁸ (if we correctly decipher the spelling in the ancient probate document); 5. *Almira*⁸; 6. *Willard*⁸; 7. *Harriet*⁸; and possibly one or two more. Since going to press, we find that *Benjamin*⁸, the 3d ch. named above, m. in Dublin, Apr. 13, 1830, Lydia Stone, b. in Dublin, June 4, 1808; d. about 1844; dau. of John and Elizabeth (Stanley) Stone. 5. MARY² OLCOTT, dau. of Benjamin¹, 1, m., Aug. 23, 1796, Jonathan Lamson. She was perhaps the first living ch. born in Sullivan. James Comstock asserted that he was the first living child born in the settlement. If so, Mary's mother went to some other place for her confinement. This Mary Olcott was the first child born of Sullivan parents, that is to say of parents living on what became Sullivan soil. We have learned no more of the Lamsons, except that they had a son, Jonathan³ Lamson, Jr., b., May 26, 1797, probably in Swanzey.

6. ANNA² OLCOTT, dau. of Benjamin¹, 1, m., Jan. 9, 1797, Jotham Whitcomb, b. in Swanzey, Feb. 18, 1772; d. there, Sept. 22, 1815; son of Gen. Philemon and Martha Whitcomb. She d. in Swanzey, Jan. 11, 1815. Read's History of Swanzey must err in stating that Anna m. a second time, to Elisha Whitcomb, for Anna died more than eight months before Jotham, and we also find, from the same history (p. 486), that Elisha Whitcomb's wife was the widow Anna Parker (not Whitcomb). Anna had three ch., all doubtless b. in Swanzey: 1. NANCY³, b., July 5, 1797; d. in Swanzey, July 7, 1826; m., Oct. 12, 1819, Samuel Stearns, b. in Swanzey, Jan. 25, 1795; d. there, Apr. 21, 1859; son of Abraham and Esther (Warren) Stearns. French of Peterborough, b. in Keene, March 29, 1830; son of Whitcomb Jr., and Mary (Kendall) French. His father and his brother (Henry K.) were successively proprietors of a good hotel in Peterborough village. Four ch., 2d b. in Iowa, the others in Peterborough: 1. Charles W⁵. French, b., Nov. 20, 1854; d., Feb. 26, 1856; 2. H. Edward⁵ French, b., March 15, 1857; 3. Minnie M.⁵ French, b., June 17, 1861; 4. Katie H⁵. French, b., Nov. 11, 1871. 5. Emilyette⁴ Holbrook, b. I. FAMILY OF JOSHUA OSGOOD.

I. JOHN¹ OSGOOD of Andover, Mass., was b. in Wherwell, Hampshire, England, July 23, 1595; d. in Andover, Mass., Oct. 24, 1651. On first coming to America, he lived at Hampton, N. H., and at Ipswich, Mass., and was made a freeman of Newbury, Mass., in 1639. He was one of the founders of Andover, Mass., and of its first church, and was the first representative from that town to the General Court, in 1651. He m. in England, ab. 1627, Sarah—, who d., April 8, 1867. II. STEPHEN² OSGOOD, son of the preceding, b. ab. 1638, in Ipswich or Newbury, Mass.; d. of small pox, at Andover, Mass., Jan. 15, 1690-1. He m., Oct. 24, 1663, Mary Hooker, from whom so many of the family have derived their names. He was made a freeman in Andover in 1669. III. HOOKER³ OSGOOD, son of the preceding, b. in Andover, Mass., Aug. 24, 1668;

d. in Lancaster, Mass., June 29, 1748. He m., Apr. 26, 1692, Dorothy Wood. He was a saddler, and moved to Lancaster in the early part of the eighteenth century. IV. JOSHUA⁴ OSGOOD, son of the preceding, b., Sept. 2, 1694, most probably in Andover, Mass.; d. in Lancaster, Mass., Jan. 31, 1783; m., Dec. 20, 1722, Ruth Divoll, who d., May 28, 1782; dau. of William and Ruth Divoll. V. JOSHUA⁵ OSGOOD, Jr., son of the preceding, lived in Leominster, Mass. He m., Jan. 2, 1747, Lucy Carter, b. in Lancaster, Aug. 18, 1727; dau. of Samuel and Jemima (Houghton) Carter. He d. in Leominster, March 10, 1760; and she m. 2d, June 6, 1764, Gideon Ellis of Keene, N. H. The published Osgood genealogy, by an egregious blunder, merges the family of this Joshua with that of his father, as if the latter were the parent of the former's children.

1. JOSHUA⁶ OSGOOD, 3d, son of Joshua⁵, Jr., and Lucy (Carter) Osgood, was b. in Leominster, Mass., Aug. 19, 1749; d. in S., at 247, July 28, 1828. He m., October 1772, Mary (or Polly) Batcheller, b. ab. 1745; d. in S., at 247, May 25, 1832, ae. 86. He was one of the earliest settlers upon the soil of what is now Sullivan, at 247. He bought the place, May 1, 1772, of Jeremiah Stiles of Keene, who had erected a dwelling-house upon the place, in which he had doubtless lived, although he had owned it only about two years. Mr. Osgood lived here more than half a century, till his death, and developed an excellent farm and raised a very large family. His ch. were nine, all b. on this farm, at 247: 1. *Zephaniah*⁷, b., Aug. 18, 1773; d., at 247, March 5, 1778; 2. *Joshua*⁷, b., Feb. 17, 1775, 2; 3. *John*⁷, b., Jan. 28, 1778, 3; 4. *Iddo*⁷, b., Dec. 9, 1779, 4; 5. *Roswell*⁷, b., March 2, 1782, 5; 6. *Mary*⁷ (Polly), b., July 2, 1783, 6; 7. *Breed*⁷, b., Apr. 6, 1785, 7; 8. *Zephaniah*⁷, b., Feb. 5, 1787, 8; 9. *Nahum*⁷, b., Oct. 5, 1788, 9. The dates here given correct the dates in the published Osgood and White genealogies, which are remarkably erroneous in this branch of the family. Mrs. Osgood was dau. of John and Elizabeth Batcheller and a sister of the noted tory Breed Batcheller, first settler of Packersfield (on a spot now in Roxbury).

2. JOSHUA⁷ OSGOOD, 4th, son of Joshua⁶, 3d, 1, d. in Rutland, Vt., Oct. 4, 1833. He was a blacksmith in that place. He m., April 6, 1806, Lucy Kingsley of that town, who d. there, January 1874. II. EZRA OSGOOD FAMILY.

I. JOHN¹ OSGOOD of Andover, Mass., the first American ancestor in the line of the JOSHUA OSGOOD family which precedes, is also the first American ancestor in the line of the Ezra Osgood family. For particulars, see the preceding family. II. STEPHEN² OSGOOD, son of the preceding, was the second ancestor in the line both of Joshua and Ezra Osgood. For particulars, see preceding family. III. HOOKER³ OSGOOD, the third ancestor in both the Joshua and the Ezra Osgood families, is more fully described in the preceding family. IV. HOOKER⁴ OSGOOD, Jr., son of the preceding, by his wife, Dorothy, was b. in Andover, Mass., March 26, 1693; went to Lancaster, Mass., with his father, in 1711; where he d., Jan. 5, 1765. He was a deacon in the First Church of Lancaster. He m., Jan. 23, 1716-7, Mary Wheelock of Lancaster, b. there, May 11, 1695; d. there, May 8, 1774; dau. of Joseph and Elizabeth Wheelock. V. He m. 1st (intentions declared, February 1740) Elizabeth Carter, b. in Lancaster, Mass., Jan. 17, 1718-9; d. there, Oct. 13, 1754; dau. (probably) of Thomas and Ruth Carter. He m. 2d, Jan. 29, 1756, Catharine Sawyer. She d. in Lancaster, Feb. 17, 1819; ae. 92.

1. EZRA⁶ OSGOOD, son of Joseph⁵ (V.) and Elizabeth (Carter) Osgood, was b. in Lancaster, Mass., May 23, 1752. The family record, which we consulted, had his birth, June 11, 1752. This is an error, for he was baptized, June 7, 1752, ac. to the records of the First Church of Lancaster, and the town records of Lancaster give it, May 23, 1752. The age as given on his gravestone would carry the date back to May. The date we have given is verified and corrects an old family register, as well as two or three published genealogies. In 1784, he came from Lancaster, Mass., and purchased what was afterwards the Keith place, in the east part of S., and built a house on the site of 137. Here his first ch. was born. He sold this farm, in 1787, to his cousin, Elijah Carter, also from Lancaster, Mass., and lived, about five years, 1787-1792, at the site of 58, in S. Here the 2d ch. was b. In 1792, he purchased the farm at 108, in S., where Mason A. Nims now lives. Here the 3d ch. and 4th ch. were b. In 1796, selling this place to his kinsman, Samuel Osgood, he moved to the farm at 167, in S., where he lived till his death, April 4, 1812, and where his son, James W. Osgood lived after him, till the house was burned in 1857. This is always known as the Ezra Osgood farm (or James W. Osgood farm). Ezra Osgood m., March 2, 1785, in Lancaster, Mass., by Rev. Timothy Harrington, to Susannah White, b. in Lancaster, Mass., March 1, 1763; d. in S., at 167, Feb. 11, 1854; dau. of Dea. Joseph and Patience (Ball) White. They had four ch.: 1. *James White*⁷, b. in S., at 137, Nov. 16, 1785, 2; 2. *Henry*⁷, b. in S., at 58, Oct. 8, 1789; d. there, Feb. 7, 1791; 3. *Susannah*⁷, b. in S., at the site of 108, Sept. 17, 1793, m. Eliakim N. Kemp, q. v.; 4. *Myretta*⁷, b. in S., at site of 108, March 22, 1796, m. James Mason, q. v. (in the BELA MASON family).

2. JAMES WHITE¹ OSGOOD, son of Ezra⁶, 1, b. in S., at 137, Nov. 16, 1785; d. in S., at 153, March 11, 1869. He succeeded his father upon the old homestead at 167, where all of his ch. were born. This house was burned in 1857, owing to the carelessness of an insane woman who was living in the house. Mr. Osgood and his wife then stopped a short time at the Perry Kemp house, at 168, and the same year (1857) went to live with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dauphin W. Nims, at 153. He m., Feb. 25, 1813, Betsey Wilson, b. in Keene, Feb. 25, 1786; d. in S., at 153, Jan. 7, 1864; dau. of Daniel and Abigail (Morse) Wilson of S, q. v. Mr. and Mrs. Osgood were very estimable persons, greatly respected by the citizens of the town. They had seven ch.: 1. A dau⁸, b. in S., at 167, April 4, 1814; d. there, April 5, 1814; 2. Augusta⁸, b. in S., at 167, Oct. 15, 1815; m. Dauphin W. Nims, q. v. (page 1264); 3. Henry⁸ (called Harry), b. in S., at 167, June 23, 1817, 3; 4. Roxana⁸, b. in S., at 167, March 24, 1819; m. Asahel Nims, Jr., q. v. (page 1250); 5. Emily⁸, b. in S., at 167, July 31, 1822; d. there, April 3, 1841; 6. Cynthia⁸, b. in S., at 167, July 17, 1824; m. Charles Osgood, q. v. (19 of the JOSHUA OSGOOD family); 7. James Mason⁸ (called himself, later, Mason James), b. in S., at 167, June 15, 1826, 4..

3. HENRY⁸ OSGOOD (always known as HARRY OSGOOD), son of James W¹, 2, was a farmer and lived in Deerfield, Mass. Towards the latter end of his life, he moved to his father's farm in S., at 167, where he d., Feb. 16, 1854, leaving no ch. He m., Aug. 16, 1847 (correcting History of Deerfield), in Deerfield, Mass., by Rev. John F. Moors, Unit., of Greenfield, Mass., to Charlotte Smith, b. in Deerfield, March 3, 1820; d. in Greenfield, Mass., Feb. 11, 1910; dau. of Nathan and Bercyle (Cobb) Smith. She m. 2d, Jan. 4, 1860, Marshall Rice. She had no ch. by either husband.

4. MASON JAMES⁸ OSGOOD, formerly called JAMES MASON OSGOOD, son of James W¹, 1, was for many years in the chair industry, in Gardner, Mass. He moved to Indianapolis, Ind., about 1870, and engaged in the manufacture of brick, and also developed gas wells on land that he owned, which supplied the city with gas for illumination and fuel. He was one of about three natives of Sullivan who acquired a large estate, safely estimated at about a million dollars. He d. at Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 10, 1900. He m. Dec. 9, 1860, in Fitchburg, Mass., by Rev. Elnathan Davis of that place, to Mary Augusta Adams, b. in Ashburnham, Mass., Jan. 22, 1835; d. in Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3, 1895; dau. of John and Lucy (Caldwell) Adams of Ashburnham. They had two ch.: 1. Frederick M⁸, b. in Gardner, Mass., June 25, 1862; d. there, Aug. 3, 1862; 2. Mary Edith⁸, b. in Gardner, Mass., June 11, 1869; d. in Indianapolis, Ind., July 7, 1870. They also adopted a dau., Lila M., who was b. at Indianapolis, June 1, 1876, who m. a Mr. Stanley. As she was not a blood relative, we do not give more of her family history.

III. FAMILY OF ELIJAH OSGOOD.

The lineage of this family begins the same as that of the families of JOSHUA and EZRA Osgood, through the first three ancestors of the line: I. JOHN¹ OSGOOD; II. STEPHEN² OSGOOD, son of preceding; III. HOOKER³

OSGOOD, son of the preceding. IV. BENJAMIN⁴ OSGOOD, son of the preceding, was b. in Lancaster, Mass., May 21, 1700; d. in Keene, Oct. 29, 1789. His wife was Hannah Divoll. V. ELIJAH⁵ OSGOOD, son of Benjamin (IV.), b. in Lancaster, Mass., May 27, 1740; d. in Swanzey, December 1822; m. 1st, Nov. 19, 1760, (correcting published Osgood genealogy), Mary Wallingford of Lancaster, Mass., b. there, June 26, 1743; dau. of Ezekiel and Lydia (Brown) Wallingford. He m. 2d, ac. to Osgood published genealogy, Rebecca Woodard, who d. in Swanzey, May 29, 1811. Ac. to Hayward's Gilsum, her name was Rebecca Durrell (see that history, under the genealogical register of Aaron Hammond).

1. ELIJAH⁶ OSGOOD, Jr., son of Elijah⁵, V., by his former wife, b. in Swanzey, March 21, 1765; d. at Almond, N. Y., March 23, 1847. In 1790, he purchased of Ephraim Wright of Keene that place in S., at 161, afterwards the farm of J. Kingsbury and Dauphin Spaulding. He sold it to Mr. Kingsbury, Nov. 20, 1804. Mr. Osgood was the first settler upon this place. In 1804, Mr. Osgood bought of the Clarks so much of the old Stephen Griswold (afterwards Joseph Ellis) homestead, at 102, as lay on the east side of the road. This was the first spot settled in Sullivan, the settlement being by Stephen Griswold. Mr. Osgood lived here five or six years. In the mean time, he owned the old Lydia Clark place, at 100, for a year, 1806-7, also the old Nathan Ellis (later Joseph Seward) place, at 99, for about a year, 1807-8. It is not probable that he lived on the former place, which he may have bought for a speculation. It is more probable that he lived on the Seward place, for he took down the old buildings on the Griswold-Ellis place, at 102, and erected, for a tavern, that two-story red house, where Esq. Samuel Locke and John Locke, also A. F. Nims, afterwards lived, probably living at 99 while building. He borrowed the money of Ephraim Aplin and, being unable to pay the note, he fled from town, in 1809, and nothing was heard of him for a long time. Mr. Aplin foreclosed and the place eventually passed into the hands of Esq. Samuel Locke. Elijah Osgood was a man of ability. He was the first captain of a military company which was formed in Sullivan. He was a man of considerable consequence in town affairs. He m., in Swanzey, Oct. 16, 1788, by Rev. Edward Goddard, to Elizabeth Thompson, b. in Swanzey, July 11, 1771; d. in Almond, N. Y., June 13, 1829; dau. of Roger and Elizabeth Thompson. The Swanzey history errs in calling Mr. Osgood her 2d hus. She was but seventeen years of age! The error arose from the circumstance that Mr. Goddard, like many clergymen of his time, addressed an unmarried woman as "mistress" (abbreviated to "Mrs"), a title now applied to married women only. Many modern historians have been misled by this ancient use of that word. Mr. Osgood had eight ch.: 1. *Polly*¹ (or Mary), b. in Swanzey, Aug. 24, 1789, 3; 2. *Betsy*¹, b. in S., at 161, May 21, 1791, 4; 3. *Martha*¹ (called Patty), b. in S., at 161, April 8, 1793, 5; 4. *Angelina*¹, b. in S., at 161, March 15, 1795, 6; 5. *Rachel*¹, b. in S., at 161, May 22, 1797, 7; 6. *Eliza*¹, b. in S., at 161, Aug. 26, 1800, 8; 7. *Lucy*¹, b. in S., at 161, Jan. 14, 1804, 9; 8. *Elijah*¹ T., b. in Almond, N. Y., Oct. 23, 1814, 10.

IV. FAMILY OF OLIVER OSGOOD.

I. JOHN¹ OSGOOD, first in line in this family, was the same as the first in the line of the JOSHUA OSGOOD family. II. STEPHEN² OSGOOD, son of JOHN¹, was the same as the second ancestor in the line of JOSHUA OSGOOD. III. HOOKER³ OSGOOD, son of Stephen², is the same as the third ancestor in the JOSHUA OSGOOD family. IV. BENJAMIN⁴ OSGOOD, son of Hooker³, was the same as the fourth ancestor in the preceding family of ELIJAH OSGOOD. V. BENJAMIN⁵ OSGOOD, Jr., son of Benjamin⁴, was b. in Lancaster, Mass., and bap. in the First Church, there, Oct. 10, 1731; m., Dec. 5, 1753, Mary Carter, b. in Lancaster, Mass., Feb. 17, 1731; dau. of Samuel and Jemima (Houghton) Carter. They res. in Lancaster, Mass., and Keene. Their ch. were Benjamin, Oliver (d. young), Samuel, Mary, Oliver, 1, Jonas, Peter, and Jemima, who m. Cornelius Howlet, q. v. -

1. OLIVER⁶ OSGOOD, son of Benjamin⁵, Jr., V., was b. in Keene, Jan. 18, 1762, not Feb. 18, as the published Osgood genealogy has it, for he was bap. in the First Church of Lancaster, Mass., Jan. 31, 1762. He lived in S., and was the first settler of the farm at 160, afterwards the farm of David Nims. He lived here nineteen years, from 1787 to 1806. He m. 1st Polly (or Mary) Stickney. She d., Jan. 21, 1824, probably at Windsor, Vt. We know nothing of her birth and parentage, or the date of marriage. He m. 2d, Dec. 7, 1825, Mary Smead. He was a brother of Mrs. Cornelius Howlet, who lived at 159 (on the place afterwards owned by Nahum Nims), and a first cousin of Capt. Elijah Osgood, who lived several years at 161, and at other places in town. Oliver⁶ Osgood was a blacksmith and farmer. He moved to Windsor, Vt., where he d., March 28, 1842. He had three ch.: 1. Susan P¹, b. in S., at 160, May 6, 1798, 2; 2. Mary M¹, b. in S., at 160, April 28, 1800, 3; 3. Lucy A¹, b. in S., at 160, July 14, 1802, 4.

2. SUSAN P¹. OSGOOD, dau. of Oliver⁶, 1, m., June 20, 1819, Stephen Kendall of Spring, Pa., a blacksmith. She had seven ch.: 1. Lorin F⁸. 3. MARY M¹. OSGOOD, dau. of Oliver⁶, 1, m., Dec. 21, 1825, Walter Smead of Madrid, N. Y., a farmer. She had six ch.: 1. Oscar H⁸. Smead, b., Dec. 24, 1826; 2. Oliver N⁸. Burt, b., Sept. 18, 1846.

V. FAMILY OF HOOKER OSGOOD.

The first three ancestors in the ancestral line of Hooker Osgood are the same as the first three in the line of Oliver Osgood of the preceding family, viz., I. JOHN¹ OSGOOD, II. STEPHEN² OSGOOD, and III. HOOKER³ OSGOOD. IV. Dea. HOOKER⁴ OSGOOD, Jr., of Lancaster, Mass., son of Hooker³, was the grandfather of Ezra⁶ Osgood of Sullivan (see family of EZRA OSGOOD). He was b. in Andover, Mass., March 26, 1693; d. in Lancaster, Mass., Jan. 5, 1765. He was a deacon of the First Cong. Church of Lancaster. He m., Jan. 23, 1716-7, Mary Wheelock of Lancaster, b., May 11, 1695; d. in Lancaster, May 8, 1774; dau. of Joseph and Elizabeth Wheelock. They had eight ch.

1. HOOKER⁶ OSGOOD, 3d, son of Dea. Hooker⁴, IV., was b. in Lancaster, Mass., in 1735, bap., Nov. 30, 1735; d. in Sullivan, N. H., May 15, 1812, at 167, where he spent his last days, in the family of his nephew, Ezra⁶ Osgood. He saw service in the colonial wars. Upon the defeat of Abercrombie and the alarm of 1757, the militia were summoned to Albany. Hooker⁶ Osgood was one of a company of troopers who reached Springfield before the orders to return were received. He was an ensign in the militia in 1771. For some reason, he seemed to drift away from the others of his immediate family, and came to Sullivan, where he found a congenial home in the family of his favorite nephew, Ezra Osgood. He m., June 29, 1759, Susannah Sawyer, bap. in Lancaster, Mass., Dec. 9, 1739; dau. of Phinehas and Mary Sawyer. We have not the record of her death. They had ten ch., the first nine were b. in Lancaster,

Mass., and the five whose deaths are noted in this paragraph d. there. The tenth ch. was b., it is understood, in Ashby, Mass. The ten ch. were bap. in Lancaster, as follows: 1. *Susannah*⁶, bap., June 15, 1760; d., April 1, 1787, (see end of this paragraph); 2. *Mary*⁶, bap., Jan. 17, 1762; 3. *Keziah*⁶, bap., April 15, 1764, 2; 4. *Hooker*⁶, bap., July 17, 1766; d., Jan. 7, 1768; 5. *Hooker*⁶, bap., Oct. 2, 1768, 3; 6. *Peter*⁶, bap., Jan. 13, 1771, 4; 7. *James*⁶, bap., July 25, 1773; d., Sept. 13 (or 14), 1774; 8. *Beulah*⁶, bap., June 11, 1775; d., Aug. 24, 1775; 9. *James*⁶, bap., July 7, 1776; d., Dec. 1, 1776; 10. *James*⁶, bap., Sept. 24, 1780. The published Osgood genealogy is very incomplete and unsatisfactory in its treatment of this family. It mentions only five ch., misplaces the order of births, and apparently errs in two of the five names. It mentions a Thomas who was lost at sea. No such name appears in the baptismal list of Hooker's children, on the Lancaster church records. This Thomas must have belonged to another family. It also mentions a Susan who married Thomas Thurston. She must have belonged to another family. We have seen that Hooker had a dau. Susannah, who died in her twenty-seventh year. It is not possible that she was the "Susan" of the Osgood book, who married Mr. Thurston, for we find no record to that effect. At her death, she was called in the records "Susannah, dau. of Hooker Osgood." Had she been married, the surname would have been given. The children of Hooker Osgood never lived in Sullivan, but we give a brief account of the three who lived to marry.

2. KEZIAH⁶ OSGOOD, dau. of Hooker⁶, 3d, 1, m., Jan. 30, 1794, Peter Hunt of Heath, Franklin Co., Mass. He is probably the same who was bap. in Lancaster, First Church, Oct. 17, 1762, son of Lieut. Sherebiah and Deborah (Wilder) Hunt. The published Osgood genealogy errs in the date of the marriage. It was January, not June. We have no record that Keziah had any child.

3. HOOKER⁶ OSGOOD, 4th, son of Hooker⁶, 3d, 1, m., May 31, 1797, Nancy Whitcomb of Lancaster, Mass. He operated a stage line between Marblehead and Boston, Mass., and lived at Marblehead. He died without ch. The published Osgood genealogy, so often inaccurate, is wrong in the date of his birth which was 1768, not 1764; also in the date of his marriage, which was May, not March (he was published in April); also in the name of his wife, which was Nancy, not Anna, according to the Lancaster records. There were two or three Annas, but they were all many years older than Hooker.

4. PETER⁶ OSGOOD, son of Hooker⁶, 3d, 1, and known as Col. Peter Osgood, d. in Boston, Mass., March 5, 1835, and his body was placed in tomb No. 15, at Christ Church on Salem St. He m., May 2, 1799, in Boston, by Rev. Peter Thacher, to Mary Pritchard, b. in Boston, Jan. 27, 1780; d. in Dorchester, Mass., April 8, 1860; dau. of Samuel and Martha (Blowers) Pritchard. Col. Peter was an active and enterprising man and established himself in business with Col. Whitney. He had three ch.: 1. *Peter*⁷, b. in 1800, d. in infancy; 2. *Mary*⁷, b. in 1803; d. unm., in Dorchester, Mass., in 1849; 3. *Martha Blowers*⁷, b. in 1808. All were b. in Boston.

VI. FAMILY OF SAMUEL AND NATHANIEL OSGOOD.

I. JOHN¹ OSGOOD, the founder of this family in America, is the same as the first ancestor named in the line of the JOSHUA OSGOOD family. II. JOHN² OSGOOD, Jr., son of the preceding, b. in England, probably in 1630; d. in Andover, Mass., Aug. 31, 1693. He m. at Haverhill, Mass., Nov. 15, 1653, Mary Clements. He was a captain, selectman, and representative to the General Court. III. JOHN³ OSGOOD, 3d, son of the preceding, b. in Andover, Mass., Sept. 13, 1654; d. there, April 22, 1725; m., Oct. 17, 1681, Hannah Ayers of Haverhill, Mass., b., Aug. 2, 1662; d., Sept. 6, 1735; dau. of Peter and Hannah (Allen) Ayers. He was lieutenant, selectman, and a prominent man in Andover. IV. JOSIAH⁴ OSGOOD, son of preceding, b. at Andover, July 13, 1706; d. there, Oct. 20, 1780; the youngest of eleven ch. He m., March 5, 1729, Abigail Day of Bradford, Mass., who d., Oct. 24, 1743. He m. 2d, Nov. 30, 1749, Hannah Kittredge. Each wife had four ch. V. JOSIAH⁵ OSGOOD, Jr., son of the preceding, 2d ch. of Josiah and Abigail, b. at Andover, Mass., Nov. 30, 1732; d. at Methuen, Mass., Dec. 10, 1788; was a blacksmith at Methuen. He m., March 3, 1757, Sarah Stevens of Andover, Mass., and had ten ch.: Josiah⁶, John⁶, and Sarah⁶, all of whom d. young; Col. Josiah⁶ of Milford, N. H.; John⁶ of Nelson, N. H.; Samuel⁶ of Sullivan, N. H.; Dea. Nathaniel⁶ of Nelson, N. H.; and Rev. Thaddeus⁶, who was a missionary to the Indians in Canada, who was unmarried, and died in Glasgow, Scotland; also Benjamin⁶ of Methuen, and Joseph⁶ of Methuen.

1. SAMUEL⁶ OSGOOD, son of Josiah⁵, Jr., V., b. in Methuen, Mass., Jan. 4, 1771; d. in Sullivan, at 108, Dec. 8, 1826. He was a farmer and lived at 108. He was also a blacksmith. He was a prominent man in the town and acquired a competency. His farm was one of the best in town. He m., May 26, 1796, Lucy Heald of Temple, b. there, July 10, 1770; d. in S., at 108, March 19, 1843; dau. of Oliver and Lydia (Spaulding) Heald. She had three sisters who were triplets and their births were the first in Temple. Mr. and Mrs. Osgood had no ch., but their house was ever open to receive and care for kindred and unfortunate children. Samuel Osgood and Ruby Osgood (See FAMILY OF SAMUEL AND RUBY OSGOOD), nephew and niece of Samuel, were reared in their home. 1. JOHN⁷ PARKHURST, son of Josiah⁶, Jr., VI, b. in Weston, Mass., May 2 (3 in the published genealogy), 1760, came to Marlborough, about 1788, and located, either on his father's farm, or on the one adjoining, afterwards owned by Ebenezer Colburn. He operated a store in Marlborough. In 1801, he bought the building at Sullivan Four Corners, at 97, built by Enoch Woods, which had already been used for a store. It was the house where D. H. Mason lived, and, afterwards, Tirzah Boynton. John⁷ Parkhurst used this building for a store from 1801 to 1807, when he sold it. He operated the store either personally or by the aid of clerks, but did not probably derive an official residence in town, for he appears, from recorded deeds, to have been a legal resident of Marlborough in practically every year that he owned this building. In 1813, he left Marlborough, and moved to Springfield, Bradford Co., Pa., where he d., Nov. 1, 1836, while sitting in a rocking chair that he had taken with him from New Hampshire. PEABODY.

1. LIEUT. FRANCIS¹ PEABODY, b. in St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England, ab. 1614, came to New England in 1635. He first settled in Ipswich, Mass.

In 1638, he went with Rev. Stephen Bachiler as one of the original settlers of Hampton, N. H. When a survey of lines determined that his residence was in New Hampshire, in 1650, desiring "to live neater Boston" (showing how early it was deemed good to live in or near the "Athens of America"), he sold his estate in Hampton and moved to Topsfield, Mass. He was a prominent citizen and large land owner. He m. Mary, dau. of Reginald Foster (or Forster), whose family is honorably mentioned in the "Lay of the Last Minstrel" and in "Marmion". He d., Feb. 19, 1697-8, and his widow d., April 9, 1705. Among his descendants have been many eminent men, such as Rev. Dr. Ephraim Peabody of King's Chapel, Boston; Rev. Dr. Andrew P. Peabody, preacher to Harvard University; the celebrated twin brothers Wm. Bourne Oliver and Wm. Oliver Bourne Peabody; the Rev. Mr. Peabody of Atkinson, who married a sister of the wife of President John Adams; and a score of others. II. CAPT. JOHN² PEABODY, eldest of the fourteen children of Lieut. Francis¹, I, was b. in Hampton, about 1642. He lived in Boxford, Mass.; m. 1st, Nov. 23, 1665, Hannah Andrews, who d., Dec. 24, 1702, ae. about 60 years; burial in Malden. Sarah Pope of Dartmouth, Mass.; dau. of Seth (?) Pope. He belonged to the Boxford church, and d. there, April 1, 1726. His widow d. there, Sept. 29, 1756, ae. 72. He had eleven ch. IV. JOHN⁴ PEABODY, son of Ensign David³, III., and Sarah, was b. in Boxford, Mass., April 11, 1714. He lived in Boxford and was a member of that church. He m., Feb. 26, 1736, Mary Chadwick. He d., April 27, 1765, and his widow m., July 9, 1767, Ebenezer Killum. He had 10 ch. V. JEDEDIAH⁵ PEABODY, 5th ch. of John⁴, IV., was b. in Boxford, Mass., April 11, 1743. He m., Oct. 9, 1766, Alice Howlet and lived at Boxford, later in the state of Maine, then in several towns of New Hampshire, and d. at East Lebanon, N. H., about 1825. VI. MOSES⁶ PEABODY, son of Jedediah⁵, V., was b., Nov. 29, 1773. He lived at Henniker, N. H., and Newport, N. H. He m. in 1796 Hannah Warde of Henniker, who was b. there, June 28, 1775, dau. of Capt. Josiah and Sarah (Goodell) Warde (last name so spelled in the History of Henniker).

1. REV. JOSIAH⁷ PEABODY, son of Moses⁶, VI, and Hannah (Warde) Peabody, was b. in Henniker, Aug. 12, 1798, according to the history of the Dartmouth alumni, for which he doubtless furnished the information respecting himself. In the published Peabody genealogy, the place is given as Newport, N. H., but we think that the author of that genealogy obtained his information from a source that was not reliable, the place being given as Newport, because Moses Peabody lived there so long. But Josiah was the first child, and was probably born before the family moved from Henniker to Newport. We have no doubt that Rev. Josiah Peabody supplied the editors of the Dartmouth book with the information respecting himself, as all graduates at that time living would naturally have done. He graduated at Dartmouth in 1825. He was settled over the First Cong. Church in Sullivan, in 1828-1829, as the second pastor. For a full account of his ministry, see Page 413. He was a scholarly man, in whom the cultured tastes of the honored family to which he belonged were conspicuous. He was a vigorous writer, a natural poet of much merit, considerably given to satire, but absolutely just and conscientious in all his dealings. Although a man of much ability, he did not make a success of the ministry. He seemed to lack that peculiar tact, wholly honorable in itself, which is so essentially necessary to a clergyman's success. After leaving Sullivan, he preached for a short time in Wilmington, Vt., then returned to Sullivan, in the autumn of 1841, and purchased the Wm. Brown place at 235, at Sullivan Centre, where he continued to live until his death, in that house, April 15, 1870. He m., in S., at 87, June 22, 1829, by Rev. Ebenezer Colman of Swanzey, to Betsey Mason Leland, who was b. in Dublin, July 23, 1806; d. in S., at 235, Jan. 15, 1886; dau. of Jeremiah and Abigail (Haven) Leland, who were then living at 87, in the old Muzzey house. Their only ch. was Helen Augusta^a, b. in Wilmington, Vt., Jan. 15, 1835. In later years, she has called herself Helen Sophia. She has never married. She is a well-educated woman. She is fond of natural scenery and especially of forest trees, for the preservation of which she has an intense passion. In 1895, Miss Peabody purchased the old Winchester farm, at 193, which included land about the shores of Chapman Pond, to which she was very much attached. Since then she has lived much of her time on that place. She is still living in 1915.

PEARSON.

FRANK L. PEARSON, who had worked some in the town, but was a comparative stranger, was killed, June 5, 1878, in the yard of the Dunn house, at 122, at the age of 28. See page 369. He was a single man then, but may have been married previously. The Keene records note the death of Lura, wife of Frank Pearson, who d., June 26, 1876, ae. 21 years and one month. He was never a resident of Sullivan. His body was buried in Chester, Vt.

He came to Hingham, Mass., in 1638. About 1645, he moved to Rehoboth (the part known as Seekonk Plain), where he d., Dec. 23, 1663. His second wife is unknown. II. JOSEPH² PECK, Jr., bapt. in Hingham, England, Aug. 23, 1623; came with his father to Hingham, Mass.; removed with him to Rehoboth (now Seekonk) in 1645. His house was on the site of the station of the B. & P. R. R., on Seekonk Plain. About 1660, he settled in the south-west part of Rehoboth. His will was dated, July 5, 1697. The widow Lydia Peck came to Marlborough to live, with all of her children. They were all, except Daniel, warned out of that town, April 1780. This was a ceremony simply designed to save the town from liability of maintaining the persons warned, and was generally observed in the case of all persons moving into a town.

1. DANIEL⁶ PECK, son of Ichabod⁶, Jr., and Lydia (Walcott) Peck, b. in Cumberland, R. I., May 4, 1754; d. at Sand Lake, N. Y., May 30, 1840. He enlisted in the Revolution, and eventually settled in Marlborough, N. H. He appears to have lived in what is now Sullivan (then Gilsum) from 1781 to 1784 or 1785. He bought the place at 204, in S., in 1784. It is probably where he had been living about three years, for various recorded deeds, bearing dates from 1781 to 1784, give his residence as Gilsum (which then would have included this farm at 204). He sold this farm, in a few months after he bought it, to his brother-in-law, John Harvey of Swanzey, but probably lived on it until 1786, when he purchased a farm in what is still Gilsum. He m., about 1780, Mehetabel Harvey, dau. of John and Mehetabel Harvey of Swanzey (now Marlborough). She d., Nov. 12, 1826, probably at Sand Lake, N. Y. They had the following ch., whose families are not traced in great detail, because they lived so short a time in the place :

1. PHILETA⁷ PECK (called "Philotte"), b. in Marlborough, March 2, 1781; m. Marcus Mowry of Otsego County, N. Y.

2. JOEL⁷ PECK, b. in S. (then Gilsum), at 204, Nov. 6, 1782; d. at Poestenkill, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., Aug. 8, 1855. He m. Hannah Baldwin, in 1811, and had seven ch.

His 1st wife d., Jan. 15, 1809; the 2d. wife d., Aug. 3, 1848. He was living in 1864, at East Pembroke, N. Y., where he settled in 1830. He first settled, in 1808, at Sand Lake, N. Y., where his former wife probably died. He had one ch. by the former wife, and twelve by the second.

DANIEL SMITH PERKINS and Sarah M., his wife, lived two years or a little more in Sullivan, on the old Hersey Wardwell place, at 98. He had been a "rolling stone" that had gathered no moss. From recorded deeds, he is found in Amherst, N. H., in 1869; in Milford, N. H., in 1870; in Merrimack, N. H., in 1871; in Nashua, in 1872; in Boston, in 1876; and, on Aug. 17, 1882, he bought the Hersey Wardwell place of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Seward and mortgaged it to Mason A. Nims. He was unable to pay for it, and Mr. Nims foreclosed, June 11, 1884. In the fall of the same year, we find him in Chesterfield Co., Va. He was very reticent about his former life. They had no child in Sullivan, but he claimed to have a son in Mexico. He seems to have operated saw-mills in different places. We have ascertained no particulars about his family history.

PETERS.

JOSEPH PHELPS PETERS, who practised medicine and was called "Dr." Peters, was living in Sullivan when the town was incorporated. He lived in an old house on the south-west corner of the Four Corners, where I. N. Wardwell lived (in a later house). The wife of Peters was Azubah, but we have not learned her maiden surname. We have no particulars respecting the parentage of either Mr. or Mrs. Peters, and we know nothing of their family. He sold his place, April 10, 1788, to Nathan Ellis.

He lived in the north-east part of Roxbury, but he used the East Sullivan post office, and attended the meetings of the grange and the church in that village, and was so much identified with the interests of the place that we give a brief sketch of his family. III. DANIEL PHILLIPS.

DANIEL PHILLIPS paid a poll tax in Sullivan in 1809, and a tax upon two cows. He was never an established resident of the town. He owned no real estate in town. We cannot discover with what family he was connected. We do not know whether he had any family. The fact that he kept cows renders it probable that he was married. He may have lived at 182. The mother of Mrs. Artemas Stone, who had previously lived at that place, married a Phillips of Fitzwilliam. Mrs. Silas Morse, who subsequently lived at 182, was a dau. of Nathaniel Phillips of Fitzwilliam. At the time indicated, the farm at 182 was owned by the Stone family of Fitzwilliam, and not known to have been occupied. At that time, also, James Phillips, q. v. was living on what was later the Nahum Nims place, at 159. Daniel Phillips may have been some relative of his. We have been unable to trace his genealogy. He was in Sullivan but a year, and there was no marriage, birth, or death in his family, while in town, so far as known.

REV. DANIEL QUINBY made an assignment of property to Hemenway and Smith, May 26, 1838. He is thought to have been some person who was preaching to the church of the Christian Connection, which once existed in Gilsum. We have not certainly traced his connection with any family of that name whom we know. It has been said that he lived a time in the old Eaton house at 215, but we can find no satisfactory evidence that such a person lived there, and he was certainly not a legal resident of the town. We have, therefore, not attempted to trace his genealogy.

RAWSON.

1. EDWARD¹ RAWSON, who came to New England in 1636 or 1637, settled in Newbury, Mass., where he d., Aug. 27, 1693. He was b. in England, April 16, 1615. His mother was Margaret, the sister of Rev. John Wilson, the first preacher of Boston. Margaret's mother was a niece of Rev. Edward Grindall, D. D., "the most worthy and renowned Archbishop of Canterbury." Edward¹ Rawson held many offices in Newbury and was the state secretary of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay. He did not escape the fanaticism of the time and aided in the persecution of the Quakers. Few New England families were more respectably connected. Edward had twelve children. II. REV. GRINDALL² RAWSON, youngest of the 12 children of Edward¹, I., was b. in Newbury, Mass., Jan. 23, 1659; graduated at Harvard, 1678; studied divinity with his brother-in-law, Rev. Samuel Torrey, and was settled at Mendon, Mass., April 7, 1684. He d. in Mendon, Feb. 6, 1715, in the 35th year of his ministry. According to his monument, he had "entered six days into his 57th year". If that were so, his birthday would have been Jan. 31, not Jan. 23, as the town record of vital statistics has it. When he received the degree of A. B., President Urian Oakes of Harvard College, addressing him in Latin, spoke eloquently of the "illustrious stock" from which he had sprung, and predicted a brilliant future for him, which was, to a great degree, fulfilled. His mother was Rachel Perne. Like his father, he had twelve ch. III. EDMUND³ RAWSON, 5th ch. of Rev. Grindall², II., was b. in Mendon, Mass., July 8, 1689. He settled in Uxbridge, Mass., and was, many years, a deacon of the church in that place. He m. Elizabeth Howard of Bridgewater, and had three ch., all sons. IV. NATHAN⁴ RAWSON, son of Edmund³, III., was b. in Uxbridge, Mass., Aug. 4, 1724. He m. 1st Mary White; m. 2d Mary Chase of Sutton, Mass. He had one ch. by the former wife and six by the second.

1. ISAAC⁵ RAWSON, son of Nathan⁴ and Mary (Chase) Rawson, was b. in Uxbridge, Mass., April 23, 1767. Soon after his marriage, he settled in S., at 174. The place was a part of the land originally reserved by the grantors of Gilsum for their first settled minister. Rev. Elisha Fish, therefore, owned it for a time, then sold it to James Kingsbury of Needham, Mass., who lived here a short time, probably in a log house at or near 174. In 1797, Isaac Rawson moved here from Uxbridge, Mass., and, later in the year, took a deed of the place from Mr. Kingsbury. Mr. Rawson d. at 173, Aug. 16, 1850, where he had built a house, upon the same farm, shortly after he settled upon it. He m. (date undetermined), Polly Ward of Sutton, Mass., b. at Shrewsbury, Mass., March 21, 1774; d. in S., at 173, April 20, 1858. It is understood that she and her sister Sarah were twins. They were daughters of Jonas and Sarah (Draper) Ward. Mr. Rawson was a sturdy and hard-working farmer and reared an interesting family of six sons, all of whom were men of influence where they lived. RAYMORE.

DAVID RAYMORE (or RAIMORE) paid a poll-tax in S. in 1811-1812. A Mrs. RAYMORE kept house, in those years, for a certain Joshua Willard, who lived upon the Winchester farm (as it was afterwards known), at 193. David was probably either her husband or her son, more likely a son. She is said to have had some children with her. We have failed to connect them with any known family of Raymores, and we do not find her family register. We learn that they were not highly esteemed in the community. They cannot properly be considered as a genuine Sullivan family, they were simply employed by this Mr. Willard temporarily,

REED.

I. JOHN REED.

JOHN REED owned the old William Corey or McKinzey farm, in the north part of the town for nine months in 1789. It is doubtful whether he had any family. Quite likely he was unmarried. There is no record of any marriage, birth, or death, in any such family. Reed bought the place of Wm. Corey, and sold it a few months later to John Rowe, who, shortly after, sold it to Wm. McKinzey. The latter lived here thirteen years. The house stood at 186, in the south-west corner of the junction of the old road leading past the recent residences of Charles and Wm. H. Bates with the Boynton Hill road. We have been unable to identify this John Reed with any one of that name, or to connect him with any known Reed family. In his deed from Corey and his conveyance to Rowe, he is said to be of Sullivan, but we are not aware that he had any family and he never became an actual resident of the town. We have no clue whence he came or whither he went. There were Reeds in Stoddard and other parts of the country, but we cannot connect this John with them.

See the account of the pastors of that church in this history. He d. in Gilsum, March 6, 1888. He was a vigorous man, of a determined nature, and positive character. He was a good pastor, neighbor, and citizen. He res. in Gilsum while he supplied the Sullivan pulpit. He was a man of rare courage. One day, when returning from Keene to Gilsum, in his carriage, alone, a highwayman encountered him in the woods, not far from the Beaver Brook Falls, and demanded his money, threatening to take his life if refused. Mr. Rogers, undaunted, leaped from his carriage, seized the would-be-robber, gave him a sound thrashing, returned to his carriage, and drove on. Mr. Rogers m., May 9, 1848, Matilda Thankful Willard, b. in Berlin, Conn., Jan. 27, 1827; dau. of Rev. Elijah and Thankful (Gross) Willard, afterwards of Lynn, Mass. ROWE.

1. FAMILIES OF JOHN AND JAMES ROWE.

1. JOHN² ROWE, most likely a grandson of the Rowe¹ who was one of the first settlers of New Haven, Conn., in the part now called East Haven, is said by Hayward, in his history of Gilsum, to have died in Sullivan, about 1806, at the age of 100 years and four months. The Sullivan records are silent about the death of such a person. Mr. Hayward derived his information from some source which we have not seen. This John³ must have been the father of JOHN⁴, 1, and JAMES⁴, 2, whose family records we give below. If his death occurred in Sullivan, as Mr. Hayward states, it was probably a little before the time he suggests, and at the house of his son James, at 65. It has been found very difficult to arrange the record of this family. Town clerks in Connecticut have helped us. The name is variously spelled ROWE or ROW or even ROX. This John³ was the only centenarian who ever died in Sullivan.

1. JOHN⁴ ROWE, son (probably) of John³, was b. in 1724, probably in Hebron, Conn. He had been a farmer in Hebron, and was one of the early settlers of Gilsum. After his 2d marriage, in later life, he came to Sullivan, and lived at 106. He outlived his second wife and became a town charge. He d. in S., about Jan. 22, 1812, at the age of 87. He m. 1st, July 5, 1745, in Hebron, Conn., Mary Williams, who d. in Gilsum, Aug. 3, 1777. In a little more than three months, he m. 2d, Nov. 26, 1777, Mrs. Hephzibah (Lord) Comstock of S., widow of William Comstock. She was b. in Lyme, Conn., June 22, 1737; d. in S., at 106, April 25, 1799; dau. of Theophilus and Deborah (Mack) Lord. We know the births of seven ch. by the former wife, and there were probably two more by her. There was also one by his second wife. They were as follows:

1. A child⁵, b. in Hebron, Conn., Feb. 28, 1746; d. the same day.
2. JOHN⁵ ROWE, 3d, (?), b. in Hebron, Conn., Feb. 13, 1747; m., in Hebron, June 1, 1769, Elizabeth Bill, b. in Hebron, Feb. 5, 1748-9; dau. of Samuel and Sarah (Bond) Bill. They lived in the part of Gilsum which is now Surry, whence they moved to Windsor, Vt., where they probably died, but we have not the particulars. They had three ch., who were b. in what is now Surry: 1. *Elizabeth*⁶, date of birth unknown; m. Rufus Brockway of Surry; b. in what is now Surry, June 16, 1768; d. in Surry, Feb. 27, 1792; son of Woolston and Esther Brockway. They had one ch.: 1. *Elizabeth*⁷ Brockway, b. in Surry, Aug. 4, 1792; d. there, Jan. 16, 1793. 2. *Sarah*⁸ Rowe, b., Oct. 26, 1773. 3. *Rachel*⁶ Rowe, b., February, 1778; d. in Surry, Sept. 4, 1795, ae. 17 yrs. and 7 mos.

3. MOLLY⁵ (or POLLY) ROWE, b. in Hebron, Conn., Nov. 12, 1748; m. John Chapman, q. v.

4. A son⁵, b. in Hebron, Conn., May 5, 1750; d. the same day.

5. MARTHA⁵ ROWE, b. in Hebron, Conn., March 7, 1752; m. Thomas Morse, q. v.

6. MAANA⁵ ROWE (as spelled on Hebron records, perhaps the Maana is a barbarous spelling for May Anne or Mary Ann), b. in Hebron, Conn., Nov. 17, 1754; m. Ebenezer Hibbard, q. v.

7. A dau⁵, b. in Hebron, Conn., May 14, 1758; d. the same day.

8. ANN⁵ ROWE, probably b. in Hebron, Conn., date unknown; d. in S., unm., a town charge, Oct. 27, 1810, age not given on record.

9. HANNAH⁵ ROWE, b. probably at Hebron, Conn., date unknown, possibly older than Ann; m. Ebenezer Burditt, q. v., in 1784, and d. a year later.

10. THEOPHILUS LORIP^s ROWE, child of the 2d w., b. in S., at 106, Aug. 1, 1778. We have been unable to ascertain anything further with respect to him.

The births of Ann and Hannah are not upon Hebron or Gilsun records, but it is almost certain that they were children of John and Mary (Williams) Rowe.

2. JAMES¹ ROWE, brother of the preceding, b. in Connecticut about 1735; d. in S., at 65, Oct. 10, 1805, ae. 70; burned to death in his fireplace, in a fit of intoxication. He came to town in 1774 and bought the Olcott place at 68, where he lived until 1800, when he moved to 65. He m., in Hebron, Conn., Jan. 26, 1764, Esther Mack (doubtless the same as "Hester" Mack), b. in Hebron, Conn., Dec. 26, 1744; dau. of Josiah, Jr., and Hester (Trumbull) Mack. After the death of Mr. Rowe, she m. 2d, Aug. 26, 1807, Caleb Winch of Fitzwilliam (now Troy), N. H.; b. in Framingham, Mass., Sept. 26, 1744; d. in Troy, in 1826; son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Drury) Winch. Neither Mr. Rowe nor Esther had any child. She d. in S., at 70, July 4, 1833, in her 89th year. She bequeathed her farm, under certain conditions, to the town of Sullivan for the support of the poor. It is the farm owned today by the town. The new house, at 70, was a few feet from the old one at 68, where the Rowes first lived in town. They sold this farm in 1800, but Mrs. Rowe repurchased it in 1805, shortly after Mr. Rowe died.

II. W. F. ROWE.

WILLIAM FREDERICK ROWE, b. at Harrisville, (formerly Dublin), July 10, 1873, son of Walter B. F. and Harriet Eliza (Yardley) Rowe, is unm. (1916). On Oct. 28, 1907, he purchased of Mr. Wellman the old Jacob Spaulding place in S., at 119. He moved into the house, Nov. 1, 1908, and lived there alone for a year or longer, then sold the place. He now res. in Harrisville. He has worked in various towns.

RUDZINSKY.

JACOB¹ RUDZINSKY, b. in Kierszevicz, Poland, m. Fannie Darsuniskis, a native of the same place. They came to America early in the twentieth century. Their Christian names are here given in the English spelling. They lived, in 1904, in the Lovisa Kingsbury house, in S., at 117. They had a son, Frank² Rudzinsky, b. in Kierszevicz, Poland, Sept. 15, 1888. He was a bright, capable boy and had learned English quite rapidly. The father and son were choppers, working near the lumber camp in the north part of the town. They had some Polish choppers as boarders.

1. JOHN¹ RUGG, the ancestor of the Sullivan Ruggs, was the first known of the name in this country. See the ELIJAH RUGG FAMILY. II. DANIEL² RUGG, son of John¹, is also mentioned in the ELIJAH RUGG FAMILY. III. AMOS³ RUGG, son of Daniel², b. in Lancaster, Mass., Dec. 13, 1716, m., Dec. 29, 1741, Mary Burpee of Lancaster, perhaps the dau. of Thomas and Mary Burpee, who had recently come to Lancaster from Rowley, Mass.

We find a record of his being elected a highway surveyor for that district. He had two children born in town, his youngest two children. So far as known he had seven ch. He was a cousin of Mrs. Eleazer Brown, whose husband died in 1798, leaving a family of young children. It is supposed that he carried on her farm at 155 for a few years, from about 1802-1807.

SARTWELL.

1. MICAH¹ SARTWELL. (or MICHAEL SARTWELL, as his name is sometimes spelled) lived a short time in Sullivan on the Kendall or H. Rugg farm, at 145. He bought it in 1787, for non-payment of taxes, and lived there for three years, the first settler on the place. He came from Wilton and was a tailor, going from house to house making clothes for men. It does not seem probable that his vocation in such a community, at that time, could have been very lucrative. In 1790, he purchased what has been known for more than a century as the White farm, and built the first house on the place, which stood at 60. He only owned it about a year before he sold it to Josiah Gould White of Uxbridge, Mass., the progenitor of all of that name who have lived upon this place. Mr. Sartwell's last name is sometimes spelled Sawtell and sometimes Sawtle upon the records. The good yeomen of those days were likely to pronounce proper names in a barbarous manner and then spell them phonetically as they mispronounced them. The most particular record concerning this family is that of a "warning out of town" of the whole family, on Aug. 13, 1789, by Dea. Blijah Carter, acting in his official capacity. This was less than a month after he had bought what was afterwards the White place, and three days before he sold what was afterwards the Harrison Rugg place. This is the only record on the Sullivan books of the warning out of town of an entire family. There are three entries of the warnings of single individuals, one man and two women. This inhospitable legal proceeding, in reality, was instituted not so much to get rid of people as to rid the town of any responsibility for their support should such persons ever become a charge upon the public. The first name of Mr. Sartwell's wife was Sarah (or Sally). The children named in the record to which we have alluded were: 1. *Sarah*² (Sally), 2. *Parkhurst*², 3. *Stephen*², 4. *John*², 5. *Polly*² (perhaps for Mary). The connection of this family with the town was so brief that we have not been to the pains of tracing the genealogies.

SAUNDERS.

1. MICHAEL¹ SAUNDERS (last name often spelled SANDERS) came as a little boy into the home of Dea. Josiah Seward, at 139. We regret exceedingly, for that reason, that we cannot give a more perfect account of this virtually adopted son of the writer's ancestor; but the most diligent search has yielded only very meagre results. When Michael reached maturity, he married and settled in Sullivan. We have been unable to ascertain the place and date of his birth or of his death, or his parentage. He m., Aug. 30, 1797, in Keene, by Rev. Aaron Hall, Elizabeth (or Betsey) Dimick, b. in that part of Gilsum which is now Sullivan, at 242, April 13, 1779; the place and date of her death being undetermined; dau. of John, Jr., and Prudence (DeWolf, sometimes spelled Dolph) Dimick. He settled on the farm of his father-in-law, John Dimick, Jr., at 242, which he eventually purchased. In 1818, he sold the farm in parcels to various purchasers. This spoiled the farm, but the house was tenanted for a few years by transient tenants. Mr. Saunders moved to Pittsford, Vt., where he probably died. We know of only three children, but there may have been more. Sullivan records are practically silent concerning them. 1. The late Charles Franklin Wilson, Esq., told the writer that he went to school with a son² of Mr. Saunders, but could not give the name. 2. There was a dau. named *Mary*², 2. An *infant*² died or was buried May 29, 1809. The sex is not given. The birth was probably not long before the death.

2. MARY² SAUNDERS, dau. of Michael¹, 1, m. in Keene, Jan. 25, 1824, by Rev. Z. S. Barstow, to Joseph Foster (name originally spelled Forster), a famous glass-blower of Keene. They had a son, *William*³ which died, March 15, 1833, at eight years of age, evidently their eldest child. They had three or four other children. One of these, *Joseph Ezra*³ Foster, was b. in Stoddard, Jan. 17, 1847; d. at the Marshall House, in Boston, Mass., June 13, 1903. He m., Feb. 5, 1879, Helen Ardelle Steele, b. in Lawrence, Mass., March 24, 1852; dau. of William Patterson and Adeline Emerson (Putnam) Steele. They res. at Boston, Mass.; Somerville, Mass.; Scranton, Pa.; and Olean, N. Y. They last res. at South Lyndeborough, N. H. He was a glass-blower, like his father. They had one ch., Edna Livadia⁴ Foster, b. at South Lyndeborough, Oct. 23, 1885. We have been unable to get the record of the remaining children of Mary (Saunders) Foster.

SAWYER.

JAMES SAWYER was b. about 1755, perhaps Lancaster, Mass., but we have not discovered his birthplace or his parentage. It is thought that he belonged to the Swanzey Sawyers. He lived at first, after his marriage, in Keene near the junction of the Beaver Brook road to Gilsum with the west road leading to Sullivan. He lived a short time in the south part of Gilsum, and bought the Sullivan place at 248 in 1798, where he lived until his death, which occurred Nov. 23, 1834 at the age of 79. He m. Nov. 13, 1777 in Swanzey, by Rev. Edward Goddard, Mary Ellis, b. in Keene abt. 1757; d. Swanzey Feb. 5, 1843; dau. of Joseph Sr. and Lydia Ellis. We know of eleven ch. The first six were b. in Keene, the next four probably in Gilsum, and the last in S.: 1 Prudence², b. Jan. 11, 1778; 2. Sarah², b. Apr. 2, 1780; 3. Joseph², b. Mar. 9, 1782; d. Mannsville, N. Y., Dec. 11, 1848; m. in N. H. Mary Harper, dau. of John Harper of Jaffrey, and had ten ch.; only two were living in 1902, Mrs. Sarah Sweet of Auburn, N. Y. and Mrs. Anne Bicknell of Fairfield, Clay Co., Neb.; 4. Lydia², b. Oct. 25, 1783; 5. Sidney², b. Mar. 10, 1788; 6. James², b. Aug. 5, 1790, lived and died in Watertown, N. Y.; 7. Mary²; 8. Melissa²; 9. Elisha Ellis²; 10. Relief², who never m.; 11. Rachel², b. in Sullivan, at 248, abt. 1803, who was m. in Keene, Apr. 1, 1823, by Rev. Z. S. Barstow, to Abijah Ellis, b. abt. 1781; d. in Roxbury, Aug. 20, 1865. Rachel also d. in Roxbury, Dec. 11, 1825, aged 22. She had a dau. Rachel³ Ellis, b. in Roxbury, Dec. 4, 1825; d. Jan. 6, 1826. It is possible that both the ninth and tenth children of James Sawyer were b. in S. instead of Gilsum as we have stated. We have been unable to learn any further particulars concerning this family.

SEWARD.

I. SAMUEL¹ SEWARD and Elizabeth, his wife, were in Boston, Mass., early in the eighteenth century. According to the printed records of the Boston Record Commissioners, they had a son, Thomas, b. in Boston, May 1, 1730. II. THOMAS² SEWARD of Pepperell, Mass., is the earliest Seward who has been positively identified as an ancestor of the Sullivan family of that name. He d. in Pepperell, Aug. 19, 1757;

"ae. about 28," according to the town records. It is known that he had lived in Boston before going to Pepperell, and that he had a brother, James, who lived permanently in Boston. He would have been born about 1729 or 1730. It is, therefore, reasonably certain that he is to be regarded as the same person as the Thomas, son of Samuel, who was born in 1730, for it is hardly probable that two persons of such an uncommon name, both born in the same year, would be living in the same town. There has been a family tradition that the Pepperell Thomas was born in England, but traditions get confused in transmission. It is more likely that he was the son of Samuel, and born after his parents arrived in Boston. Thomas settled in Pepperell about the middle of the eighteenth century, and lived in a house of which no trace remains, which stood a few rods north-west of the place where Birkinshaw's mill was built. He was hardly more than a boy when he died, at the age of 28. He left a young widow of the same age, with three little sons, neither of whom could walk, because the eldest was a cripple, the second had not learned to walk, and the third was a newborn babe. The brave young mother, by strenuous exertions, brought up her family most creditably. Her name was Hannah. There is good evidence that her full maiden name was Hannah Martin. We have not ascertained her birth date and parentage. She d. in what is now Sullivan, at the house of her son, Josiah, which stood, then, at 140, March 23, 1787, in her 58th year. She was, therefore, born about 1729 or 1730, probably in the same year as her husband. Thomas and Hannah had three ch., all b. in Pepperell, Mass.: 1. Thomas^s Jr., b. July 11, 1754; d. in Pepperell, March 12, 1835, nearly 81 years of age. He was a cripple from his birth and unable to undertake any remunerative employment. His two brothers, who were in easy circumstances, attended to his needs, but he could not be induced to remain contentedly in Sullivan, for he was devotedly attached to his native town. It is also said that his infirmities had made him irritable, and that he did not bear patiently the restraints which the wives of his brothers laid upon him. 2. Josiah^s, b. Feb. 22, 1756, | 3. Samuel^s, b. April 12, 1757, 2.

1. DEA. JOSIAH^s SEWARD, second son of Thomas^s, was one of the famous minute men who marched from Pepperell, Mass., under their distinguished fellow townsman, Col. Prescott, helped to throw up the earthworks on the renowned Bunker (more properly Breed's) Hill, and participated in the memorable battle of June 17, 1775. His brother Samuel was with him. Both were invited and accepted the invitation to join the survivors of that battle, on the fiftieth anniversary, at the laying of the corner-stone of the Bunker Hill Monument. The veterans were all personally introduced to Lafayette and invited to sit on the platform. The names of the Pepperell minute men who participated in the battle are enrolled in the records of the old first church of that town. The widow of Gov. Roger Wolcott of Massachusetts has erected a magnificent granite memorial to their memory in Pepperell, upon which are engraved the names of the same men. Josiah was m. upon his twenty-fifth birthday anniversary, in Townsend, Mass., by Rev. Samuel Dix, to Sarah Osgood, b. in Billerica, Mass., Jan. 31, 1749-50 (O. S.); d. in Keene, July 2, 1835; dau. of Joseph and Sarah (Pierce) Osgood. She was a first cousin of Gov. Benjamin Pierce of New Hampshire, father of Pres. Franklin Pierce. In 1781, Josiah settled in that part of the former town of Stoddard, which is now included in Sullivan, where the Fifields are living (1917). His first house was at 140. He lived in that small, temporary house about seven years. In 1788, he erected a framed house nearly upon the site of 139. In 1797, he erected the fine old mansion, which is now only a wreck of what it was once. A part of the house built in 1788 became the ell of the Martin Rugg house at 59, a part formed the shed between the two barns on the Seward homestead. He was an early deacon of the First Congregational Church of Sullivan, which office he held many years until his death, which occurred at 139, July 10, 1828. He held all the important town offices and served as a representative to the General Court. He was afflicted with poor health for several years before he died. He derived some benefit by going to Saratoga Springs and taking the waters there. He was an early guest in the original Congress Hall. He had eight ch.: 1. *Hannah*⁴, b. in S., at 140, Sept. 29, 1781, 3; 2. *Josiah*⁴ Ir., b. in S., at 140, Oct. 30, 1783, 4; 3. *Sarah*⁴, b. in S., at 140, Feb. 6, 1785, 5; 4. *Abigail*⁴, b. in S., at 140, June 11, 1787; m. Edward Wilder, q. v.; 5. *Thomas*⁴, b. in S., at 139, March 5, 1790, 6; 6. *Betsey*⁴, b. in S., at 139, Dec. 1, 1792; d. in Walpole, Jan. 21, 1850, at the house of her brother-in-law, Dea. Amos Wood; an unmarried woman, who had been a nurse for many years in Boston, and a member of the Park St. Cong. Church; 7. *Fanny*⁴, b. in S., Nov. 13, 1794; m. Amos Wood, q. v.; 8. *Rebecca*⁴, b. in S., at 139, April 20, 1796; d. there, June 17, 1796. Betsey's funeral was at the house of her cousin, Joseph Seward, in S., and the interment in her father's lot in the old Sullivan cemetery. These eight ch. were all born on the same farm, but the first four were born while it continued to be a part of the original Stoddard, the last four, after Sullivan was incorporated.

2. SAMUEL³ SEWARD, third son of Thomas², lived at 135; he died very suddenly, Dec. 8, 1833, while in Stoddard village on business. He m. in Pepperell, Mass., Mar. 27, 1783, Olive Adams, natural daughter of Abiah Chamberlain (who later m. Jonathan Shattuck of Pepperell); she was b. Mar. 4, 1758 in Chelmsford, Mass., and died July 18, 1852 in S. Nine ch. all b. in S. at 135, the first three while the farm was still in Stoddard before the incorporation of S.: 1. *Olive*⁴, b. Apr. 26, 1784, 7; 2. *Samuel*⁴, b. Jan. 26, 1786, 8; 3. *Joseph*⁴, b. June 30, 1787, 9; 4. *Mary*⁴, b. Dec. 6, 1789; m. James Bolster (q. v.); 5. *Lucinda*⁴,

b. July 10, 1791; m. Hammond Keith (q. v.); 6. *Nancy*⁴, b. Dec. 12, 1792; m. Judson White (q. v.); 7. *Abijah*⁴, b. Jan. 24, 1795, 10; 8. *Louisa*⁴, b. May 6, 1797; m. Oliver Heaton (q. v.); 9. *George Washington*⁴, b. Apr. 27, 1802, d. in S., Oct. 15, 1804.

3. HANNAH⁴ SEWARD, dau. of Dea. Josiah, 1, m. Sept. 1, or 29, 1805, Jonas Wheeler of Rutland, Vt., b. at Packersfield, Mar. 2, 1784; d. at B. Pittsford, Vt., Aug. 15, 1870; son of Jacob and Molly (Mary) Wheeler. She d. at Chittenden, Vt., Dec. 17, 1837. According to Mr. Wheeler's family Bible he was m. to Hannah Sept. 1, 1805; according to S. church records, Hannah m. Mr. Wheeler upon the same day that her sister Abigail m. Edward Wilder, which day was Sept. 29, 1805. According to the Wilder Bible, Mr. and Mrs. Wilder were m. Sept. 30, 1805. As Sept. 29 would have fallen on Sunday that year, I incline to the belief that the family Bible records are correct. A Jonas Wheeler, b. at Keene May 9, 1777, son of Abraham, Jr., must not be confused with this Jonas, although he may have been a kinsman.

Mr. Wheeler was a farmer and Justice of the Peace; he was a man of marked ability, held several offices and was highly esteemed. He had one son by Hannah, 1. *David*⁵ Wheeler, b. at Chittenden, Vt., June 15, 1806; d. there Oct. 4, 1811. Jonas Wheeler m. (2), Mar. 21, 1838, Fanny Ridell, b. Dec. 2, 1796; d. in Mich. Two sons: *Edwin*⁵ Wheeler, b. Rutland, Vt., Dec. 8, 1838; d. Nov. 23, 1840; *Seneca Erving*⁵ Wheeler, b. Rutland, June 13, 1841; d. in the army at Baton Rouge, La., Aug. 8, 1862. He was in the 7th Vt. Reg. He had a fever, and when convalescing, bought and ate a pie, which produced a relapse, from which he did not recover. He was m. June 13, 1858 to Ellen Elizabeth Foster, b. in Mendon, Vt., Aug. 29, 1866. She m. (2), Feb. 4, 1864, John Holt Noyes of Mendon.

Mrs. Fanny (Ridell) Wheeler's mother was Fanny, whose 2nd husband was William Wright, and both were buried on a farm in the north part of Rutland.

4. JOSIAH⁴ JR. SEWARD, son of Dea. Josiah³, 1, inherited part and purchased the remainder of his father's farm in S., No. 139. He survived his father but little more than three years, and d. in S., Sept. 14, 1831.

Several were sick in his house at once of typhus fever, which was very prevalent that year, and, of which, he and his son both died. He m. Feb. 22, 1807, Polly Wilson, b. in Keene, Mar. 23, 1784; d. in Keene, Sept. 19, 1864; dau. of Daniel and Abigail (Morse) Wilson. Three ch. b. S.: 1. Josiah 3d⁵, b. July 29, 1809; d. in S., Aug. 8, 1831 (See account of him on page 609). 2. *Daniel*⁵, b. Feb. 26, 1813; d. Keene Feb. 11, 1875, unm.; 3. *David*⁵, b. Sept. 14, 1816, 11.

5. SALLY⁴ SEWARD, dau. of Dea. Josiah³, 1, d. in Rutland, Vt., Apr. 8, 1815; m. Stephen Hale, a farmer, and lived in various places in Rutland and Mendon, Vt. He paid a poll tax in S. in 1801 and WILDER.

NICHOLAS WILDER, a military chieftain, in the army of the Earl of Richmond, was at the battle of Bosworth in 1485. He lived on an estate presented to him by King Henry VIII, with a coat of arms. This estate was Shiplake, on the west bank of the Thames, three miles from Henley. JOHN WILDER, son of Nicholas, m. Agnes —, and lived at Shiplake, which he acquired by entail in 1525. He had a dau. I. FAMILY OF EDWARD, LOIS, LUCY, AND BETSEY WILDER.

I. THOMAS¹ WILDER of Shiplake, Oxford, England, proprietor of the Sulham estate in Berks Co., was the ancestor of the Sullivan Wilders. Though the youngest son, he was, by some arrangement, the heir of Shiplake, and Martha Wilder who emigrated from Shiplake in 1638 was undoubtedly his widow. II. THOMAS² WILDER, son of Thomas¹, I, b. England, in 1618; d. Lancaster, Mass., Oct. 23, 1667. He was admitted a freeman in Charlestown, Mass., in 1640; his wife's name was Anna, whom he m. in 1641, and who d. in Lancaster, June 10, 1692. He moved to Lancaster, then called Nashaway, July 1, 1659. His body was the first buried in a burying-ground which he gave to the town. He had three sons, Thomas, John and Nathaniel; also two daughters, Mary and Elizabeth. According to the inscription on the monument of the immigrant Thomas at Lancaster, it would appear that he settled at Hingham, Mass., in 1641, and went from there to Lancaster; he was a brother of Edward of Hingham. III. NATHANIEL³ WILDER, son of Thomas², II, b. Hingham (if inscription on his father's monument is true history), Nov. 5, 1650; was killed by the Indians in "Queen Anne's War," at Lancaster, July 31, 1704. Nathaniel and Daniel Hoar once killed an Indian, and were tried and sentenced to be hung, but, on their repentance and confession, were pardoned. III. FAMILY OF OLIVER WILDER.

The first four in the line of the lineal ancestors of Oliver Wilder were the same as the first four in each of the two Wilder families which we have already described. OLIVER⁵ WILDER, son of Col. Oliver⁴, was b. at Lancaster, Mass., Mar. 7, 1719-20, according to the published Lancaster records. The published Wilder Genealogy has May 17, but is more unreliable than the Lancaster records. He d. Sept. 2, 1787, and lived in what is now Sterling. His death is on the Lancaster 1st church records. He m. (1), Jan. 16, 1739-40, Sarah Townsend, b. "relict" of Oliver Wilder, undoubtedly Ruth, d. Lancaster, Apr. 6, 1792. Ch. of Oliver and Sarah were: Ezra, b. Lancaster (probably in the part now Sterling), May 27, 1741; Oliver; Sarah. Ch. of Oliver and Ruth were: Samuel, Tamar (who was the 3rd wife of Abijah Wilder of Keene), Ruth and Mary. VI. EZRA⁶ WILDER, son of Oliver⁵, b. Lancaster, May 27, 1741, lived in Bolton, Mass., and later as early as 1782 in Jaffrey, N. H. Abt. 1809 he moved to Peterborough; was one of the men furnished by Jaffrey to the Revolution. According to the Wilder Genealogy, as well as the record given me by the family, he m. in 1762 Betsey (called Betty) Welch (sometimes written, probably erroneously, Welsh). The history of Jaffrey gives the name of his wife as Jerusha Welch Alexander. It may have been a second wife. The same History mentions that he m. again in Peterboro to Jerusha Hogg. The ch. of Ezra and Betty were: Ezra, Silas, Betsey, Mary and Oliver, I, who was b. at Bolton, Mass., June 17, 1775; where perhaps the other ch. were born. Wilder's book of the Wilders has a very imperfect sketch of this family.

FAMILY OF JOSHUA WILLARD.

A family named Willard, or at least a man named Joshua Willard, lived on the Winchester farm in 1811-1812. He may have come in 1810, and probably did, and he perhaps remained until Mr. Winchester, who succeeded him, arrived in 1813. Hosca Foster, Esq. said that his housekeeper was a Mrs. Raymore, who had some ch. Neither Mr. Willard nor the Raymore's were very highly esteemed by the neighbors. There was a Joshua Willard, who was living in Fitzwilliam; his son Joshua may have been the man who lived in S. If so, he was b. Fitzwilliam, Jan. 10, 1783. Hayward's Gilsum mentions a Joshua Willard, b. abt. 1760, who was a Revolutionary pensioner. This Joshua went from Surry to Gilsum and m. WILSON.

1. The ancestor of the DANIEL² WILSON family came from Tyrone, Ireland, in 1737, with the famous Scotch Irish emigrants. These emigrants were a hardy, industrious, long-lived, honest and sturdy race of people. A great proportion of New Hampshire's most distinguished sons are found among their descendants.

One of these emigrants was JAMES¹ WILSON. The history of Peterborough gives his name as WILLIAM. Later researches favor JAMES, but we are not positively sure of the name. Nor do we know who was his wife. They brought with them from Ireland a son, Robert², and a daughter, Lettuce². In this country they had at least two more sons, Daniel² and James².

Robert² lived in Peterboro' and was the father of Anne³ (killed by a log falling from a fence upon her, in childhood), Hon. James³, William³, Anne³ (who m. Jeremiah Swan), Mary³ (who m. Gen. John Steele), Hon. John³ of Belfast, Me., (in the U. S. Congress in 1813-1814), Joseph³ and Sarah³ (m. Hon. John Scott Harrison, son of President William Henry Harrison, 9th President of the U. S. and father of Benjamin Harrison, 23rd President of the U. S.)

Hon. James³ Wilson of Peterboro and Keene was the father of Gen. James⁴ Wilson, the well known lawyer and orator of Keene and a member of the 30th and 31st U. S. Congresses; Col. Robert⁴ Wilson, who was a well known character in Keene; Elizabeth Jane⁴ (who m. William G. Hunter); and Sarah M. A.⁴, who m. Col. Frank Lee of Boston.

The emigrant, JAMES (?)¹ WILSON, spent the winter of 1737-8 in West Cambridge, Mass., and then moved to Townsend, Mass., where was b. Daniel², Nov. 6, 1745, 1.

1. DANIEL² WILSON, son of James¹, lived in Keene, in the ancient house on Court St., near the Glue factory, known as the Daniels' place; in Sullivan, where C. F. Willson and George Hubbard have lived. He was a farmer; d. in S. Nov. 13, 1815, "after a long and painful illness." He m. (date unknown), Abigail Morse, b. Sherborn, Mass., June 28, 1746 (this date is from a family record, and is probably correct—other authorities give her birth as June 7 and June 17); d. in S., Aug. 26, 1825; dau. of Thomas and Mary (Treadway) Morse of Dublin. Nine ch. b. Keene, and the two youngest in S.; 1. Daniel³, b. Nov. 11, 1770, 2; 2. Hannah³, b. June 27, 1772, 3; 3. James³, b. Feb. 22, 1774, 4; 4. John³, b. Sept. 30, 1776; d. Aug. 31, 1777; 5. John³, b. June 19, 1778, 5; 6. Abigail³, b. May 29, 1780; m. Nathaniel Osgood, (q. v.); 7. Josiah³, b. May 3, 1782, 6; 8. Polly³, b. Mar. 23, 1784; m. Josiah Seward Jr., (q. v.); 9. Betsey³, b. Feb. 25, 1786; m. James W. Osgood (q. v.); 10. Samuel³, b. Apr. 15, 1789, 7; 11. Sally³, b. Apr. 15, 1789; m. Roswell Nims (q. v.) S. records give the birth of the twins at April 16, 1789. I presume the family register is correct (Apr. 15). Daniel² Wilson was in the battle of Bennington, and, while the little boy, John, was sick on his death-bed, Mrs. Wilson claimed to have heard the firing. For further War record see page 509.

2. DANIEL³ WILSON, son of Daniel², 1, was a farmer, and res. Keene, N. Y. and Charleston, Pa.; m. May 20, 1805, Sarah Dart, b. Surry, May, 8, 1780; d. Charleston, Pa., Mar. 26, 1850; dau. of Thomas and Sarah (Wilcox) Dart of Gilsum and Surry. Six ch.: 1. Luman⁴, b.
